

Lava Bears Win Second Contest From Uni-High

The Lava Bears racked up their second victory of the season Saturday night, defeating the University high team of Eugene 58 to 44 on the Bend court.

The short Eugene team again provided the Bears with no serious threat. The Lava Bear first five moved up to a 22 to 6 lead in the first quarter. A second five took over in the next period and University high was able to boost its total to 22 points by halftime, while the Bears climbed to 31.

In the third quarter the top five was in again for the Bears and the count moved up to 49 to 34 by the end of the period.

High point man for the game was Brborich, University high guard, who netted eight field goals for a total of 16 points. Doug Hogland, Bend center, got a 14-point total on four field goals and six free throws.

The University high series gave Bend fans their first and last look at the Lava Bears for more than a month. The next home appearance for the quintet will be on January 11, against the strong Redmond Panthers. In the meanwhile, Bend will play nine games on the road, including Lakeview, Burns, Redmond, Roseburg, Corvallis, Marshfield, Prineville and Albany.

This week end, the team will take the big triangle swing through south and Central Oregon, playing at Lakeview Friday night and at Burns Saturday night.

Michigan State Taken in 'Big 9'

Chicago, Dec. 13 (AP)—Michigan State sat in on a schedule-making session today, lining up football games for 1950, '51 and '52, as the Big Nine once again became the Big Ten.

Michigan State was accepted unanimously as a new member of the conference yesterday, filling the vacancy caused by the 1946 withdrawal of the University of Chicago.

TEAMS PLAY IN BURNS

In one of the nicest bowling and billiard installations in Oregon, two men's bowling teams and one ladies' team lost in the overall picture to the Burns bowling teams in week end play. The All State Realty split its match, the Congress Food Market won one match and split even in the other, and the women's team lost both matches. The Congress Food Market team was just plain unlucky, and lost all matches by the merest fractions of pins. In their first match they lost the opening game by 16 pins, the second by one pin, the third by three pins and a total of 20 pins for the entire match. In the second match, it started out to be the same story all over again, then everyone started to hit at the same time and the team won by 130 pins, then lost the last game by 10 pins. But the big lead that the Food Market boys had rolled up in the first game gave them the total pinfall.

All State in their first match won the first game by 37 pins, lost the second by 47 pins, and the third by 52 pins to give the Burns team a 62 pin advantage in the match.

The women had a tough match, winning the second game by 51 pins, which cut the Burns lead to seven pins, but the pace was a little too fast and they lost the last game by 61 pins.

In the individual department, C. Barrell had the honors with a single game of 212 and a 557 series. Pinky Bergstrom was high for Burns with a 203. In the second match, Earl Georgeson had a 229 single and Henley Baughn had a 568 series. In Congress Food Market match, Bill Koller had a 193 single and a 539 series to lead the way, and in the second match D. Mundy was high with a 199 single and a 542 series.

Julia Coulter had a 200 single to lead the women and her 494 was the best series of the day. In the two game finale, Sally Bennett racked up a pair of 168's to win the honors.

Ernie Cundell was really the big wheel of the two matches with a 540 and a 548 to lead all of the teams in actual total pinfall. Sammy Blucher had a 102 game.

Durocher Again Faces Suspension

Chicago, Dec. 13 (AP)—Will baseball commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler bar New York Giant manager Leo Durocher from baseball permanently if he finds him guilty of violating the major league tampering rule?

That was the question baseball men were asking today as major league club owners began their annual three-day mid-winter meetings.

Under baseball law, Chandler has a perfect right to take such action if he feels that Durocher approached Freddie Fitzsimmons and asked him to be a Giant coach while Fitz still was under contract to the Boston Braves.

Chandler, who suspended Durocher for the entire 1947 season for non-specified offenses which the commissioner deemed "detrimental to baseball," could throw the high-octane Giant pilot out for good this time.

Should Know Penalties
As a manager, Durocher is expected to know the penalties for tampering, and Chandler insists there is evidence that he and other members of the Giant organization were guilty when they signed Fitzsimmons.

But if Durocher, club treasurer Edgar Feeley and any one else in the Giant organization can prove that they first contacted responsible persons in the Boston organization about releasing Fitzsimmons, and permission to contact Fitz was granted them, then Chandler's case will fall through.

Before the Chandler-Durocher carpet session takes place tomorrow, the majors will hold separate routine business sessions to map out 1949 schedules and discuss night game increases and the television problem handed them by the minor league executives.

Williams Wins Hitting Title

Chicago, Dec. 13 (AP)—Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox, who claims, "I won't be satisfied until I rank with the greatest hitters in the game," can be content now. Williams now officially ranks with the greatest hitters, according to American league batting statistics released today.

The gangling, 30-year-old Boston outfielder won the circuit's batting crown with a percentage of .369. It was Williams' fourth batting championship in seven seasons and he became the third player in American league history to win the distinction four or more years. By turning the trick, the lanky, left-handed slugger joins the select company of Ty Cobb and Harry Heilmann, two former Detroit greats. Cobb won the title 12 times and Heilmann four.

Williams, who previously won the championship in 1941, 1942 and 1947, showed a 14-point margin over his nearest pursuer and also led the league in doubles with 44.

Lou Boudreau, Cleveland's shortstop-manager, finished second to Williams with a .355 average, his best mark in 11 seasons in the majors. Outfielder Dale Mitchell of Cleveland was third with .336; Al Zarilla of St. Louis fourth with .329, and Barney McCosky fifth with .326.

For the second time in his career, Di Maggio won the home run championship with 39 circuit wallopers, Joe Gordon of Cleveland was second with 32 homers.

Stranahan Wins Miami Tourney

Miami, Dec. 13 (AP)—That "X" denotes amateur" beside Frank Stranahan's name on the golf scoreboard was the difference today between 2,000 silver dollars and just another loving cup.

Stranahan won the Miami open yesterday, shooting a four-under-par 270 for the 72 holes. Were he a pro, the $2,000 would be his. But the Toledo titan, son of a wealthy sparkplug heir, clings jealously to his amateur standing even though he ranks with the nation's best professionals.

Thus, Chick Harbert, who finished second to Stranahan in the tournament with a 274, took the first cash prize and Frankie carried home another cup to add to his huge collection. Tony Penna of Cincinnati and Steve Wurga, Jr., of Miami, were tied for third with 276's.

Charles Must Defeat Savold

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—Ezzard Charles is the most logical contender to fight Joe Louis for the heavyweight title provided he meets and defeats Leo Savold, the champion said today.

Louis, who meets Arturo Godoy in a six-round exhibition bout tomorrow night, said that "Charles would establish the fact without question if he licked Savold."
