Newlyweds at Home Here; Wed Jan. 9

Redmond, Jan. 13 (Special).—Miss Rosella Uphoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Uphoff, of Northwest Redmond, became the bride of Henry Ambright, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ambright, of Wisconsin, at a ceremony Sunday, Jan. 9, at Trinity Lutheran church in Bend. Rev. Vincent Larson read the double-ring ceremony at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Montelle Cox, of Redmond, played the wedding music.

The bride was lovely in traditional white satin. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a halo of flowers. She carried a white Bible with a spray of white carnations. Miss Lois Uphoff, wearing a gown with a corsage of jonquils, attended her sister. Little Genevieve Uphoff, in a floor-length frock of yellow taffeta, carried the rings on a white satin pillow. She is the bride's youngest sister.

Otto Kasser, of the Bend office of the World-Wide Travel Bureau, acted as best man. Lewellyn Uphoff, home for the wedding from Concordia academy, Portland, ushered.

Mrs. Uphoff, the bride's mother, wore a green afternoon dress, with an orchid presented to her by the bridegroom.

Before the ceremony, Miss Barbara Uphoff sang, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Oh, Promise Me".

A reception was held after the ceremony in the social rooms of the church. Barbara sang "Perfect Day" at the reception.

The bride, who is a graduate of Springdale high school, Springdale, Ark., served as matron as a cadet nurse in Wind Field, Kansas.

The young couple are at home in Bend, where both are employed. Mrs. Ambright is a member of the staff at Rath's store, and her husband works for Brooks-Scanlon, Inc.

Girls Make Plans For Annual Affair

Committees are busy with plans for the annual Mother-daughter tea, to be given by the Bend high school girls' league Thursday, Jan. 20, in the high school library, between the hours of 3 and 5 p. m. Refreshments will be served by the girls, and entertainment is being arranged. Mothers of all girls in high school are cordially invited. It was announced by Margie Peak, league president, who is acting as general chairman.

Other committee chairmen include Lila Bacon, invitations; Diane Newland, refreshments; Jerene Ranger, entertainment; Charlene Dahlin, corsages; and Marcia Skjersaa, clean-up. Others on the clean-up committee are Judy Blinn, Pat Coleman, Sally George, Carolyn Hoogner, Faye Hunter, Gwen Standifer, Marilyn Waterman, Virginia Wise, Garland Sorenson, Clara Skjersaa, Sharon Grahman and Lois Drost. Margie Peak is handling publicity.

Royal Neighbors of America will install officers for 1949 at a meeting Monday, Jan. 17, at 7:30 p. m. at the library auditorium. All new and outgoing officers were asked to wear formal dress. Mrs. Lee Reinhardt and Mrs. Louise Ross will be on the refreshment committee. All members were urged to attend.

Cloverdale Club Plans for Spring

Cloverdale, Jan. 13 (Special).—The Cloverdale Garden club met last week at the home of Mrs. Earle Paulus with 11 members present. Mrs. George Billingsley, vice president, was in charge of the business meeting. Mrs. Jack Hamrick was elected secretary to fill out the unexpired term of Mrs. Don Reetz, resigned.

Snow and freezing weather failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the members as they discussed garden activities for the coming year. Mrs. Bud Sax gave a report on building and planting a cold frame. Modernistic and naturalistic arrangements were displayed by Mrs. John Williams. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Awards Made At Luncheon

At the Bend Garden club's award luncheon yesterday, awards were presented to Mrs. Clifford Rasmussen, Mrs. Joe Warner and Mrs. R. E. Roderick, who ranked first, second and third, respectively, on points for arrangements displayed last year at club meetings. At each meeting, members of the club display arrangements of different types, which are judged for points.

The club also paid tribute to Mrs. Florence Spencer in charter member of the club, who has been active in its projects since the group's organization in 1911.

Nineteen women were present at the affair.

Miss Spencer To Wed Soon

An approaching wedding of interest in Bend is that of Miss Mary Jane Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde H. Spencer, formerly of Bend and now of Hungry Horse, Mont., to Malvin Scott Everest, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Everest of Portland.

The wedding will be an event of January 23 at St. Michael's and All Angels Episcopal church in Portland. The bride's parents expect to come to Oregon for the ceremony.

Miss Spencer is a graduate of Oregon State college. Her father, who was formerly head of the U. S. bureau of reclamation in Bend, is now construction engineer on the Hungry Horse project.

year. Mrs. Bud Sax gave a report on building and planting a cold frame. Modernistic and naturalistic arrangements were displayed by Mrs. John Williams. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Knife-Fork Club To Hear Admiral

Members of the Bend Knife and Fork club will have a dinner meeting Monday, Jan. 17, at 7 p. m. in the Pilot Butte Inn Blue room, with Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias, USN retired, as guest speaker. Adm. Zacharias is an ex-act intelligence expert and author of a psychological warfare against Japan.

Admiral Zacharias has been a 3500-mile journey to the Japanese since his first experience with them as a language student in the 1920s. His knowledge of their processes of thinking and their behavior enabled him to forecast the actions of Japan in her attack against the United States, including the Pearl Harbor assault.

The admiral also is an author, having related his experiences in 25 years as a naval intelligence officer in the book, "Secret Missions."

Grange to Hold Benefit Parties

Young School Community, Jan. 13 (Special).—A series of pinocchio parties, for the joint benefit of the March of Dimes fund, the Red Cross and the American Cancer society, will be held at the Eastern Star grange hall on the next three Saturday nights, Jan. 15, 22 and 29.

The benefit parties are being sponsored by the grange, with Mrs. R. I. Hamby and Mrs. Lyle Carrington as co-chairmen. They stressed that a special invitation is being extended to newcomers to the community and their friends. There will be individual prizes for each party, and refreshments will be served. Play will start at 8 o'clock each evening. It was announced.

Huber-Triplett Marriage Vows Said in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Huber, who were married January 7 in Portland, have returned to Bend and are at home at 527 Franklin, apartment No. 6. The bride, the former Doris Triplett, was graduated from Bend high school with the class of 1948, and has been employed as secretary in the office of Charles Marsch, attorney. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Triplett, of 527 Franklin.

The marriage was solemnized January 7 at a Presbyterian parsonage in Portland, with Rev. Lewis officiating at the double-ring ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perkins, of Portland, were the couple's attendants. Mrs. Perkins is the former Rayne King, of Bend. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Triplett and Miss Betty Hedstrom, all of Bend, and Jerry Battles, of Prineville.

For her wedding, the bride chose a navy blue suit, which she wore with grey accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bride couple spent several days in Portland before returning to Bend.

Huber, who is a veteran of navy service in world war II, was graduated from Bend high school in 1947, after returning from overseas duty. He is employed by Bend Troy laundry. His parents are Joe Huber, of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. C. O. McNimer, of Bend.
