CITY GRADE SCHOOL LEAGUE STANDINGS

Last week's three-way tie for the league lead was narrowed down to a two-way affair as a result of week-end games played in the grade school circuit. Friday afternoon on the Allen floor the eighth grade Bearkittens broke up a tight ball game in the third quarter to come out with a 20-14 win over the Tigers. The east side team turned in one of their best games of the season and for a while looked as if they might turn in one of the major upsets of the year. At the beginning of the fourth quarter they led by a 13 to 11 score. Baer of the Bearkittens led his team in scoring with 9 and Hutchins was high for Allen with 6.

The expected close game between Kenwood and St. Francis turned out to be a one-sided affair as St. Francis turned in one of its better games while the Yellow Jackets were definitely on the cool side. The Saints had a 15 to 5 half time bulge which they widened to 24-19 by the end of the game. No one player on the Kenwood team could hit so the scoring was divided up between Brown, Ray, Paine and Giltner. Larry Wade for the Saints pumped 16 points through the hoop for the winners with Boardman and Crowell getting the rest of the points.

Substitutions: Bearkittens, Carpenter; Allen, Turner, Tucker.

KANSAS FARMS PROSPER

Wichita, Kan. (AP)—More farms in Kansas, the nation's premier wheat state, are free from debt than at any time since the home-stead days. E. Fisher, president of the Federal Land bank of Wichita, reported that Kansas farm mortgages total less than five per cent of the present value of the state's rural real estate.

Hogan, Demaret Set for Playoff

Phoenix, Ariz., Jan. 31 (AP)—Ben Hogan and Jimmy Demaret will tee off in an 18-hole playoff today for a $2,000 first-place money in the Phoenix golf open, their second playoff match in a week for the gold dust winter tourneys.

Battlin' Ben staged almost a repeat yesterday, of his performance in the Long Beach open last week to tie the colorful Demaret, Ojai, Cal., with a 72-hole total of 278.

Hogan, as in Long Beach, needed a birdie on the final hole of play to deadlock his long-time golfing pal.

He got it with a four-foot putt as a gallery of 6,000 watched intently.

Demaret, who finished about an hour ahead of Hogan, had muffed a two-foot putt on the 18th which would have meant his first Phoenix title after being a runner-up several times.

Both the little Hershey, Pa., veteran and Demaret carded mediocre final rounds. Demaret had a 37-36 for a two-over par 73 and Hogan shot a 38-36 for a 74.

Golf Association Names Captain

New York, Jan. 31 (AP)—The U. S. Golf association today named Francis O. Uimett of Boston, captain of the U. S. Walker cup team and announced that nine players will be named to the team late next spring.

The U. S. will be host to the British Walker cup squad at the Marmoronek, N. Y., Winged Foot golf club Aug. 19-20. Uimett has been either a player or a captain in each Walker cup match since the series has started, and is the only person who has played on both sides.

The association, holding its annual convention, also re-elected its officers originally installed last year. They are Fielding Wallace of Augusta, Ga., president; Totton P. Heffelfinger of Minneapolis and James D. Standish, Jr., of Detroit, vice-presidents; Isaac B. Grainger of Montclair, N. J., secretary and Daniel A. Freeman, Jr., of Southampton, N. Y., treasurer.

The association also voted to reduce the field for the national open to 162, a cut of nine, and to eliminate the qualifying exemption of the home professional. The entry fee for the men's and women's national amateur tournaments was hiked to $7, the first hike since the original $5 fee was set in 1895. Both the U. S. and British Walker cup squadmen were pronounced exempt from qualifying for the amateur.

Slow play in the national open was condemned.

Stranded Team Leaves Hawaii

Honolulu, Jan. 31 (AP)—Members of the Utah Shamrocks, girls' basketball team, bid Hawaii a not-too-fond farewell last night as they abandoned a financially embarrassed exhibition tour and its attendant sandwich diet.

The girls, whose tour went more more than $3,000 in the red, found themselves stranded in the island paradise due to a misunderstanding over who was to pay their expenses and transportation.

As a result, according to team manager Lynn Pletcher, the girls have been living on sandwiches for about a week with no way to get home.

Pletcher said the team left the United States with the understanding that the island promoters would foot the bill for all traveling and living expenses. He said it wasn't until after they had arrived that they found the sponsors had cancelled their return trip tickets.

Yesterday, however, promoter MacKay Yanagisawa released the return tickets to allow the girls to leave for home by Pan American clipper.

He said he might as well let the girls go home and then try to collect the money due him rather than have the team go further into the hole.

Yesterdays, however, promoter MacKay Yanagisawa released the return tickets to allow the girls to leave for home by Pan American clipper.

Seattle, Jan. 31 (AP)—A new North American competitive distance record of 290 feet was established yesterday at the Milwaukee ski bowl by Severre Kongsgaard, Norwegian exchange student at the University of Idaho.

California Officer Fined in Prineville

Prineville, Jan. 31—An officer on leave from the Oakland, Calif., police forces, was fined $1 in Prineville municipal court on a traffic citation, it was reported this week end by Earl Shaw, local chief of police. He is A. L. Vaughan, who is visiting his father, Rev. A. D. Vaughn, pastor of the local Missionary Baptist church and mayor of Prineville. Vaughan was reportedly cited for driving through a stop sign at an arterial thoroughfare.

Vaughan reportedly expressed regrets at "the lack of courtesy of local police for a visiting officer."

Vaughan's father, who was elected mayor of Prineville on a reform platform last November, recently created a sensation when, in his inaugural address, he declared that three times since he was elected he had heard groups of men on Prineville streets say, "If that Baptist preacher takes office he'll be killed in three days."

2 Eastern Teams Travel to Pacific Coast This Week

San Francisco, Jan. 31 (AP)—Two coaching wizards of eastern basketball bring their teams into California this week to do battle with three of the finest quintets on the Pacific coast.

The New York City Beavers, coached by Nat Holman, will play Stanford Friday night and University of San Francisco Saturday. Both games are scheduled for San Francisco's Cow palace.

Blackbirds Play Santa Clara

On Tuesday, Claire Ives's Long Island Blackbirds will square off with the Santa Clara Broncos in the second game of a double-header, also in the Cow palace.

Both Bee and Holman coach the kind of basketball fans enjoy watching. The Blackbirds and Beavers treat a basketball like it is a hot potato, and seemingly believe defense ought to be ruled out of the sport. CCNY has a scoring average of 68-plus, while Long Island is just a shade off at 66-plus.

PC Conference Play

Only the northern division in the Pacific coast conference will be stirring this week. Washington collides with University of Oregon on Feb. 12, while Oregon State and Idaho tangle on Feb. 4 and 5.

The surprise of last week's play was Idaho's 41 to 32 victory over Washington State on Saturday. The loss was Idaho's 41 to 32 victory over Washington State on Saturday. The loss dropped the Cougars into a first-place tie with Oregon State in the league race.

Other Saturday results were: Long Island 55, Oregon 53; Oregon State 49, Washington 45.

CVA Not Backed By Farm Bureau

Pendleton, Jan. 31 (Special)—"OFBF has consistently opposed the creation of a Columbia Valley Authority," W. Lowell Steen, state president of that farmer organization, stated in Pendleton today.

The farm leader continued "there is no real reason for bringing the matter up at this time. In fact, recent agreements reached by the Inter-Agency committee on plans and procedures make it even less desirable for change or interruption in present arrangements."

"The position of Oregon farm bureau federation on CVA proposal is not determined by the state office. It is a directive by farm bureau members themselves throughout the state, expressed in center and county meetings and at the annual convention. OFBF does support the coordinated Columbia river basin plan as prepared by army engineers and approved by inter-agency committee," Steen added.

The dignity and sovereignty of the state of Oregon or of any state should not be reduced or impaired unless public welfare seriously requires it. Nor should individual rights and interests be set aside by regulation or abolition powers placed in the hands of federal appointees by a general authority law.

The farm group president concluded by saying, "I believe most fully informed farmers in Oregon are opposed to CVA."

Bend's "old red car" that went to college is in the news again, this time in a 3 column picture on the front page of the Salem Statesman. The car, of ancient vintage, but bright with red paint, is owned by Don Benson, Lowell Maudlin, Don Pritchett and Jack Weiser, Bend students attending Willamette university.

This past week, the red car was found reposing at the entrance to Eaton hall, on the Willamette campus, one snowy morning. The car was placed on the porch, several steps above ground level, in the night. With the car were various signs. Pictured with the car were two of the four owners, Don Benson and Don Pritchett. Eaton hall is the administration building on the Willamette campus.

Writer Entertains Bend Kiwanis Club

Frank Bonham, writer of western fiction, entertained the Bend Kiwanis club at the Pine tavern this noon with two lectures, one on dialect forms, the other on photography. He emphasized that he did not consider himself an expert on the second subject. He discussed dialect as it develops from localized mispronunciations, changes in grammar, derived meanings for old words and expressions and the replacement of common terms through an intent to give them a more pleasant connotation. Bonham was presented by Jack Wetle, program chairman of the day.

M. H. Symons, commended by President Ben Hamilton for his work in establishing a skating rink, described the sweeping and sprinkling method used in providing a new ice surface each day and gave credit to Norman Partidge, "who doesn't even skate," for assisting him. The work had later been taken over by the city, he said, and the number of skaters using the rink had indicated the popularity of the project.

Hamilton spoke of the selection of C. G. Retter, member of the club, as city manager at Coos Bay and declared that the best wishes of the organization would go with the Bend man as he assumes his new position.

C. L. McAllister asked for gifts of furniture for the county home for old people. C. L. Allen, county judge, said that the county plans to provide for additional furnishing of the home, that this will be done as rapidly as the budget permits and as good equipment can be had. McAllister reported that night stands for the inmates of the home could be made by high school manual training students if lumber were provided.

A. Wilson Benold, of the underprivileged child committee, asked for gifts of used clothing which could supplement the attire of insufficiently clad youngsters.
