WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

By J. R. Williams

OH, YES, IT'S FINE - FINE! THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR FIXING IT FOR ME!
YOU WON'T NEED A NEW ONE FOR A LONG TIME NOW!

Market Trading Remains Quiet

By Elmer C. Walber
(United Press Financial Editor)
New York, March 21 (UP)—The stock market today settled down to wait for April when Wall street expects the answer to the question: "Is this a depression or merely a seasonal setback in business?"

Trading quieted and volume in the fourth hour at 80,000 shares was at a rate of a mere 400,000 shares for a full session. Prices of the industrial and railroad issues sagged a trifle while utilities made an equally insignificant gain.

Ewan Clague, head of the bureau of labor statistics, said that the rise in unemployment was coming at a slower pace and predicted that employment will regain the 60,000,000 mark by next July. Other government experts recently have been pointing to April as the time for an upturn in business on a seasonal basis, and the trading element has taken a wait and see attitude, according to the market experts.

Several favorable items were overlooked in today's market, including a statement over the week end by Senator Walter George that taxes should not be increased by congress until early 1950; steel operations set at 10.1 per cent this week despite the coal strike, and another optimistic statement by Edwin G. Nourse, chief presidential economic adviser.

BOUNCER TOO THOROUGH
Jacksonville, Fla. (UP)—It cost W. W. Stanfield $350 to learn how far his line of duty went as night club bouncer. Judge Edwin Jones fined him that amount after ruling it was not necessary for Stanfield to shoot a patron in the leg after tossing him out.
