

Business Census Interviews Now Under Way Here

Census enumerators have begun to interview owners and managers of retail, wholesale, and service establishments in the Bend area to obtain information on local credit practices as well as other facts about business operations. It was reported by Mrs. Gertrude M. Arnold, district census supervisor.

Retail stores whose annual sales exceed $100,000 are asked to report the amounts of net sales for 1948, subdividing the total into: cash and c.o.d. sales; charge accounts and open credit sales; and installment or deferred payment sales.

Data also is to be collected on balances due from customers using charge accounts and open credit, and from those who made their purchases on installment or deferred payment plans.

Reports Asked

Wholesale establishments are being asked to report: amount of 1948 credit sales, accounts and notes receivable outstanding as of December 31, 1948, and December 31, 1947, number of credit accounts, December 31, 1948, and bad debt losses (receivables written off during 1948 as uncollectable).

Statistics to be published on completion of the census will reveal changes and developments within the credit structure that have occurred in a decade of business expansion, augmented to unprecedented dimensions by consumer spending.

Credit information will be available on a national scale and for those states areas and country groups where business concentration is sufficient to provide summaries that will not reveal the activities of individual establishments.

Low Cited

Other data to be compiled in the census include the number of stores and total sales, number of proprietors or unincorporated businesses, pay roll and employment, sales analyzed by principal merchandise lines, and inventories of merchandise on hand at the beginning and end of 1948.

Public law 671 requires all business establishments to file reports and impresses on the census bureau the responsibility of guarding against publication of data in any form which would reveal operations of individual establishments. All census employees are bound by an oath of secrecy and are subject to penal action if they violate their pledge.

Mrs. Arnold, whose headquarters are located at 1050 Bond St., is responsible for the census work in Crook, Deschutes, Hood River, Jefferson, Klamath, Lake, Sherman, and Wasco counties.

As soon as the training of enumerators is completed here, enumeration will start in the rest

Boss Hague Loses In Jersey City

Jersey City, N. J., May 12 (AP)—Frank ("I Am the Law") Hague, last of the old time city political bosses, faced a probe today of his 32-year rule of Jersey City by the new "freedom" administration elected yesterday.

John V. Kenny, whose fusion slate broke the reign of the 73-year-old democratic leader, said he would ask superior court judge William J. Brennan to impound the Hague administration's records to prevent their being destroyed. He said a large staff of auditors would be put to work on the city's books as soon as he and four fellow "freedom" commissioners take office next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Horney and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Freeman, J. P. Read, Herschel Read, Mr. and Mrs. Renyer Jenkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Greenwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hagman, daughter, Lorelei, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Hagman and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Keeney.
