

Local News

Bend CAP Unit Reorganizing

TEMPERATURE Maximum yesterday, 60 degrees. Minimum last night, 34 degrees.

Bend — Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Sunday, with an occasional shower in surrounding mountains, decreasing tonight and Sunday. High today 72, low tonight 35 to 38. High Sunday 75.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Luhn, of Portland, were in Bend Friday night on their return to their home in Portland on a vacation trip to the Imperial valley, Calif. Luhn is the chairman of the Oregon public welfare commission.

The condition of Gale S. Blakley, who is seriously ill at Lumberman's hospital, was "unchanged," it was reported early this afternoon. Blakley suffered a cerebral hemorrhage Wednesday morning. He is woods superintendent for Brooks-Scanlon, Inc.

Ann Longballa, Bend high school sophomore, will be one of two delegates representing Deschutes county at the Junior Red Cross summer camp at Silver Creek falls, Mrs. L. T. Standifer, Junior Red Cross chairman, announced today. Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Longballa, 107 Drake road.

A meeting of the Bend Stampede and Water Pageant association will be held Monday at 7:30 p. m., at the chamber of commerce office.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Schwab left today for Seattle. Schwab, who is circulation manager of the Bend Bulletin, will attend a meeting of newspaper circulation managers of the Pacific Northwest, next week.

Camp Fire guardians and sponsors, members of the O-Ki-Ci-Ya-Pi group, will meet Monday at 1:45 p. m. at the Niswonger and Winslow chapel, to attend funeral services for Mrs. Robert H. Douglas, who was killed in a fall Thursday.

The Bend MIA of the Latter Day Saints church will sponsor a district dance Friday evening, May 27, at Townsend hall in Redmond. Members and friends of the church are being invited. Refreshments will be sold, it was announced.

Louis Bunting, 238 Riverside boulevard, was dismissed from Lumberman's hospital this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kearney, of Madras, are the parents of a son, born yesterday at St. Charles hospital. The baby weighed nine pounds at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buder, of Detroit, Mich., arrived Thursday to spend several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Donahue and SYNOPSIS OF ANNUAL REPORT for the year ended December 31, 1948. Includes financial data for various departments and a total of $2,085,000.

ZEEK'S Auto Service advertisement featuring an image of a car and text: 'Expert Automotive Repairs AT REASONABLE COST EARL ZEEK — Experienced mechanic in business in Bend for many years. OSCAR L. CRANE — Specialist on Ford cars and experienced general mechanic. FREE ESTIMATES GLADLY GIVEN. WARNER PLUMBING 822 Wall Street Phone 217-W'

Eisler faces extradition

Gerhard Eisler, described as America's top Communist, is escorted from Southampton, England, police station to be taken to Bow Street court in London, where he was ordered to face an extradition hearing. Eisler was taken from the Polish liner SS Batory after he left the U. S. where he is under bond.

Shevlin

Shevlin, May 21 (Special) — Orville Bean recently suffered a badly crushed hand while working in the woods. The amputation of two fingers was necessary.

Mr. Baker has returned home from the hospital in Klamath Falls but Mrs. Baker is still a patient there. At this writing she is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Watts returned recently from a visit with relatives in California.

Members of the relief society of the Latter Day Saints church will hold a "parcel post" sale in connection with a cooked food sale, Wednesday, May 25, in the Pacific Power and Light company office.

John Schneider, Portland, has been visiting his brother, Charles Mathes, in Bend this week.

James Frankland, assistant regional forester in charge of the engineering division, was in Bend last night from his headquarters in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Shingler and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman, of Shingler's Town and Country Footwear, and Meyers Freedman, of the Wilbur Morgan shoe salon, left today for Portland to attend the shoe style shows sponsored by various manufacturers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bailey plan to leave soon for Vancouver, Wash., to make their home. Bailey is a conductor for the SP&S railroad, and Mrs. Bailey was employed at the Pine Tavern.

Mr. and Mrs. George Prokopovich and daughter, Jackie, went to Portland Friday, May 13, where Jackie took examinations for nurse's training.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson and Stanley and Donna went to Portland Friday, May 13, where Stanley saw a doctor. While in Portland they visited relatives and then went to Yamhill, Ore., with Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Johnston. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston's daughter, Gwen, returned with them for a visit here.

Mrs. John Cooper is visiting with relatives. John Cooper went to see her last week end.

Mrs. Jim Ness and Judy and James came out Sunday to visit her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Tassel, Little James became ill Monday and had to be taken to Bend to the doctor.

Lucille Eikins visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Banks, over

Heating Problems an AUTOMATIC COAL STOKER in your furnace or boiler could give you cheaper and cleaner heat! FREE ESTIMATES GLADLY GIVEN. WARNER PLUMBING 822 Wall Street Phone 217-W

Six Corners

Six Corners, May 21 (Special) The Six Corners extension unit met Friday, May 13, at the home of Mrs. Louis Robertson. There were eight members present.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Rowley visited at the Wilson Eakman home last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith drove to Portland last Wednesday, May 11. There, Mrs. Smith met Mrs. Irvan Maurris of Millican, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cushman in Seattle. They attended the Sherman county luncheon at the Portland hotel. Mrs. Maurris returned to Bend with Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

The 4-H flower club met Sunday at Carolyn Johnson's home. The members worked on their record books. The next meeting will be June 8 at Carolyn Bradbury's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cyrus and Raymond Cyrus of Terrebonne, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cyrus of Redmond, were Thursday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carson Call.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Eakman and children, visited at the John McManman home last Tuesday evening.

Jimmy Smith, who is employed at Reedsport, spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith.

Sherman Crawford of Toledo, Ore., visited Saturday and Sunday with his brother, Wallace Crawford and family. Saturday evening they drove to Lava Butte to visit their mother, Mrs. Jones, who has the look-out station on the butte.

Karie and Ramona Hooker attended a 4-H cooking and sewing club meeting at Johnny Owen's home at Alfalfa Thursday evening, May 19. This date also was Karie Hooker's birthday anniversary, and the members of the club surprised her with a party.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Simpkins and daughter, Gail, visited at Klamath Falls with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hodge and family, last week end.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Olson and family over the week end were Mrs. Merrill Olson's parents and sister and family, from their home in Washington.

Mrs. Henry Van Tassel went to Bend Wednesday, May 18, to care for her daughter, Mrs. Jim Ness, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burgess spent the week end in Bend, when Sam Burgess attended the CIO-IWA convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Murdock and family are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jorgenson and family from their home at Prairie City.

Clint Van Tassel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Tassel visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Van Tassel and family in Bend Sunday, May 15. Forrest Van Tassel returned home from the hospital Saturday.

Stanley Parrish has been at home on the sick list the last week.

BEETLES RELEASED Enterprise, May 21 (UP)—Three colonies of Australian beetles — which arrived here by air yesterday — have been released in the Wallowa valley in an effort to exterminate goatweed.

A fourth colony has been released in range land on the Snake river.

Oregon State college is conducting the anti-goatweed experiment.

American railroads, during the first quarter of the present year, put into service 498 new locomotives, of which 476 were diesel and 22 were steam.

Injured

(NEA Telephone) Philip H. Willkie, 2F, son of late Wendell L. Willkie, answers phone in Cambridge, Mass., hospital to inform inquirers that his mother has "severe shock and possible skull concussion," after an automobile accident. Philip had a throat hemorrhage which was not serious.

Hospital News

The following persons were admitted to St. Charles hospital yesterday: Mrs. Lonnie Wright, Bend; Mrs. Mary Mitchell, Madras; Albert La Verne, Bend, and Uriel Hooley, Redmond.

Mrs. Jack Grifley and son, of Crescent, and Mrs. Eugene Brink, of Redmond, were dismissed from the maternity ward.

CARD OF THANKS

Thanks to all the boys of Shevlin for helping me out when I need it and I sure appreciate it very much. Leonard McCarthy, Adv.

Memorial Floral Designs

... prepared in special containers for your convenience at no extra charge.

PHONE YOUR ORDER EARLY. Open Evenings and Sundays. PICKETT FLOWER SHOP & GARDEN 629 Quimby Phone 530

Eagles District Meeting Sunday

T. T. Turner, state director of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, from Portland, will be the principal speaker at a district meeting to be held tomorrow in Bend, Loyal B. Rhodes, lodge president, announced today.

The district conference will open at 2 p. m. with business meetings by the Eagles at the Bend Aerie 2089 hall, and the Eagles auxiliary in the Elks hall.

Initiation of new candidates and presentation of awards to winners of the recent membership drive will be features at the two meetings.

A banquet for both groups will be held at 5 p. m. in the aerie hall. Candidates who have been notified to appear for initiation are: Raymond Anderson, Edgar Bernard, Wendell Bott, Joseph Carey, John Cox, Kenneth Clark, George Duchscher, William Duval, Dick Goodwin, Galan Gates, William Hahn, Robert Jackson, Ralph Lumpkin, Lloyd McKanna, Martin Neil, Dave Nelson, James Pate, Gordon Randall, Andrew Suhr, Glenn Smith, Mike Svetic, Nick Thomas and Fred Whitmore.

Official Records

The following assumed business names have been filed with the county clerk: Homefinders Agency, by N. T. Cooper, O. G. Nichols, and Lee Taylor; Redmond Garbage Service, by Henry Walker, and Central Oregon Glass company, by Walter Cruickshank.

WELL DOES FORECASTING

Great valley, N. Y. (UP)—The famous "breathing well" in the Cattaraugus County community is a dry well dug in 1441. It "breathes" when strong currents of air blow outward from it in fair, settled weather and inward if a storm is approaching. Residents watch it as a sort of natural barometer.

DANCE Sat., May 21 —at— Eastern Star Grange Music by Crooked River RAMBLERS Come Have Fun

CATERING TO EVERYONE'S GOOD TASTE! Your Favorite Cafe

OPEN DAILY 6 a. m. 'til midnight Friday and Saturday open all night. POLLY'S CAFE 809 WALL PHONE 99

HERE'S Color FOR YOUR WHOLE HOUSE. BOYSEN TRU-KOTE

Yes, glorious pastel color that goes right on over old wallpaper, kalsomine, plaster, stains, wallboard, brick and covers solid in just one coat! Boyesen Tru-Kote is easily applied, dries in one hour to beautiful, washable finish, leaves no paint odor. Eight beautiful shades.

Anything in our yard may be purchased on the COPELAND home and farm improvement plan. Minimum Terms 6 months Maximum Terms 3 years Minimum Amount $30.00 Maximum Amount $2500.00 Investigate Today COPELAND LUMBER CO. 318 Greenwood Phone 110

Enjoy Helphrey Dairy Milk "The Best Milk in Town" Phone 590-J HELPHREY DAIRY 118 Greenwood Ave.

VIC FLINT comic strip panels with dialogue: 'HEY! WATCH IT!', 'WELL, I GOT THE DRAWER OPEN, CHANNEL.', 'THAT'S ALL I KNOW, FLINT. RUMORS OF AN AGREEMENT I WANTED THAT I WAS WISE TO IT AND FOG CHANNEL BLEW HIS TOP.', 'AND THAT'S WHAT FOG IS SO ANXIOUS ABOUT, EH? I'D LIKE TO GET MY HANDS ON THAT PAPER!'