

SPORTS

Redmond VFW Regains Lead In Softball League, With Win Over Childs Hardware

The Bend Softball league leadership went back into the hands of the Redmond VFW team last night as they scored a close 2-1 decision over Childs hardware.

Although 18 hits were batted out by the two teams, 10 for the Vets and 8 for the hardware nine, neither team had the needed punch to run up a big score.

Childs hardware scored first in the second inning on a double by Sullivan and a single by Rukaveno. Childs hit safely four times in the inning, but could score only one run.

Boyer, Westling Are Medalists In Oregon Golf

Astoria, June 21 (AP)—Tab Boyer and Ted Westling, Portland shotmakers who fired one-under par 70's, today were tied for the lead in the men's qualifying round of the annual Oregon Golf association championships at Astoria golf and country club.

Men's qualifying rounds will continue today.

Mrs. Babe Freese Bowman of Portland shot a 72 to win women's medalist honors. Her qualifying round over the wind-swept Astoria country club course broke the women's course record of 74, set by Jessie M. Hearty in 1940. Mrs. Bowman won the OGA title in 1946.

Other qualifying scores: Men's round: Ron Clark, The Dalles, 77; Sid Milligan, Eugene, 73; Will Haines, Vancouver, Wash., 73; John Rippet, Gearhart, 73; Robert Nichols, Astoria, 74; Gene Bates, Portland, 74; Ralph Dichter, Gearhart, 74; Bill Langley, Portland, 74; Lou Jennings, the defending champion from Portland, was not required to qualify.

Women's round: Grace DeMoss, Corvallis, 76; Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Astoria, 77; Mrs. J. M. Odell, The Dalles, 79; and Lillian Schassen, The Dalles, 83.

The rural electrification administration reports that almost 51 per cent of Tennessee farms now have electric power.

JACK in the CORNER

I have ruminated for an hour trying to get an idea to come through the haze of a big "gripe" but it won't seem to percolate, so I might as well "blow my top," get the trouble off my mind, and maybe the ideas will come easier.

You know last year we had a big knock-down and drag-out over the City Commission. The group that were elected were supposed to be the answer to all our troubles—but from the standpoint of a truck dealer, they could all resign and let some one else try.

The City recently purchased a truck after asking for bids. (However, we were not invited to bid—protestations to the contrary.) The bids were reported in the Bulletin the other night and the low bidder was not awarded the bid because, according to reports, "they wanted a heavy, two-ton truck." So the bid was awarded to a concern that does not maintain an agency in Bend.

I challenge any such reason as from my personal knowledge the Commission could have purchased a truck that would have COMPLETELY met "legitimate" specifications from any one of five dealers that pay taxes, own property and maintain payrolls here in Bend. Yes, even ourselves, who were not invited to bid.

I am bringing this out to show that something doesn't smell good and if you have noticed a peculiar smell in the last few days, it probably comes from a source close to the City Commission meeting room. Why can't the dealers who support the town be given due consideration, particularly when one of them was the LOW BIDDER?

Well, that's the reason for my "fussin' and a-feudin'"—again, I say—we weren't invited to bid, although two years ago when cars and trucks were really hard to get we were favored (?) with a chance.

Oh well, it's done and the dealers will consider the source the next time they are asked to co-operate with our good (?) City Commission.

Meantime, be sure and bring your car service trouble to us—we never feud or fight with our customers. The work is always right because we make it right at Halbrook Motors, Minnesota and Bond streets, phone 580.

JACK HALBROOK.

All Philadelphia World Series? Not Impossible

By Carl Lundquist (United Press Sports Writer)

New York, June 21 (AP)—Maybe it's the heat, maybe it's the humidity, but before the man comes with reservations for that nice padded cell, how about just considering an all-Philadelphia world series?

The Phils vs. the Athletics. Fantastic? Well, maybe, but just look at the records.

Take the Phils. Since June 6 they have won 11 out of 15 games to come from a lowly spot in the second division to a fourth place berth, just 2½ games behind the pace setting Brooklyn Dodgers.

Now how about the Athletics? Right now the A's are the hottest club in the American league with 12 wins out of their last 18. They are now in third place, 4½ games out of the lead.

Both Teams Win

Both the Phils and A's won breezily last night to enhance their contending positions. Russ Meyer pitched the Phils to a seven-hit, 7 to 1 victory over the Pirates in which he missed a 15th out because of Ralph Kiner's 15th homer.

Dick Fowler pitched the Athletics to a 4 to 1 triumph over the hot Cleveland club, besting Mike Garcia in a hurling battle.

The Yankees topped the Boston Browns, 4 to 1, at New York in the margin of Jackie Phillips' three-run homer.

Walt Masterson pitched fine ball for seven innings to record his first victory since switching from Washington to Boston, but there was an ominous note in the 6 to 1 Red Sox decision over the Tigers, for he had to leave the game with a sore arm.

Maybe Bargain

Young Bobby Bagan, obtained for the bargain counter price of $10,000 from the Giants last week, gave the White Sox a 6 to 5 victory at Washington that ended a five-game losing streak when he hit a two-run single to send in the tying and winning tallies.

The Cardinals had no difficulty stopping the Giants, 7 to 2, as Gery Staley scored his third straight victory over them and Red Schoendienst set the batting pace with four hits, boosting his average to .357, just one point behind league-leader Jackie Robinson of Brooklyn.

Eddie Stanky's double and a single by Elbie Fletcher gave the Braves a ninth inning run for a 3 to 2 victory over the Cubs at Chicago, the ninth of the season for curve-baller Vern Bickford.

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Sport Parade

By Jack Cuddy (United Press Sports Writer)

Chicago, June 21 (AP)—Chuck Koney, youngest scout in the major leagues, expressed confidence from his hospital bed today that he soon would become a successful ivory hunter.

Other scouts, players and coaches occasionally drop into room 204 on the South shore hospital and give pointers to the 23-year-old talent seeker for the Boston Red Sox.

Tom Yawkey and Joe Cronin of the Boston club phone often and tell Chuck to sharpen his "old hawk eyes" because they plan to keep him busy as soon as he's permitted to leave the hospital—in about five weeks.

5-Year Contract

"Yawkey gave me a five-year contract," explained the slender, brown-haired youngster, whose back was propped up by the mechanical bed, and whose left leg and its white cast were suspended aloft by a Rube-Goldberg contraption of ropes and pulleys. "And Yawkey told me I'd be working for the Sox as long as he's connected with the club," he added.

Yes, the future seemed bright to Chuck Koney today; although not as bright as it did on May 7. But May 7 had started off as an exceptionally wonderful day for Chuck and his pretty, hazel-haired wife, Lorraine, who had just returned from the hospital with their newly born daughter, Carol Lynn.

May 7 was a delightful day also for his father, James, who lives in the upstairs flat of the Koney dwelling on Chicago's South side.

That evening, all the Koneys were having dinner in Chuck's downstairs flat. It was a farewell dinner for Chuck, who had his bags packed, preparatory to taking a train for Louisville, Ky.

The dinner had been planned as a gala event in the lives of the Koneys. Chuck was ready to return to the Louisville Colonels where he would wait perhaps but a few weeks the call from Boston that would order him to the Red Sox as understudy to veteran Bobby Doerr, second baseman.

During the gala dinner in the Koney dwelling on May 7, the elder Koneys thought they detected a gas odor coming up from the water heater in the basement. They went down to investigate, and Chuck followed them.

As they were standing near the heater, it exploded. Chuck's parents escaped with a few scratches, but Chuck narrowly escaped death. He suffered two fractures of the skull, a compound fracture of the left leg, and such a ghastly mangling of the right leg that he nearly bled to death.

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Leg Amputated

Two days later, doctors amputated the right leg to save his life. That operation ended Chuck's dreams of being a Red Sox second baseman.

Today Chuck admitted: "When I realized that my leg was gone, my mind seemed numb with horror as I thought of all the things I couldn't do any more—without that leg. Then Yawkey and Cronin and my other friends came along and got me to thinking about the things I could do without the leg. So now I'm planning to do things—scouting; and I've quit regretting what I can't do. I'll try to be a good scout for Yawkey."

Hollywood Stars Boost League Lead

San Francisco, June 21 (AP)—The Hollywood Stars increased their bulge in the Pacific Coast league to six full games last night as they took an 8 to 6 decision from third place San Diego in a battle of home runs.

The Twinks got off to a fast start by scoring single runs in the first and second innings and then piling up five more in the fourth to drive San Diego pitcher Al Jurisich from the mound. Gene Handley, Irv Noren and Jim Baxes homered. Later, in the eighth, Chuck Stevens also hit for the circuit.

The Padres rallied for six runs in the fifth and sixth innings. Max West hit his 25th homer of the season, routing Hollywood hurler Gordon Maltzberger.

In tonight's games, second place Seattle invades last place Los Angeles, Sacramento entertains Oakland, Portland goes to San Francisco and the Twinks and the Padres continue their series.

Coast, Big Ten Open Track Meet

Berkeley, Calif., June 21 (AP)—Upon the slender flying legs of Pell-Mel Patton, the world's greatest sprinter, hang the chances of the Pacific coast conference to whip the Big Ten in their annual track and field meet at Edwards stadium last this afternoon.

Patton, who will be running his last race in United States as an amateur, is expected to win the 100 and 220-yard dashes and anchor one of the short relay teams.

However, he complained of a cramp when winning the NCAA crown at Los Angeles last week end and it is not certain that he will run in more than the relays.

If Patton is unable to run, the chances are that the Big Ten will continue its athletic domination over the PCC. In the dual meet series dating back to 1937, the PCC has won five meets and the Big Ten three. But the Big Ten has won the last three in a row—and by lopsided scores.

The meet will get under way at 3 p.m.

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

- 8:00—Straight Arrow
- 8:30—Adventures of Champion
- 9:00—Tom Mix
- 9:15—Cote Serenade
- 9:30—Sons of the Pioneers
- 9:45—Music
- 10:00—Remember When
- 10:15—Bill Henry News
- 10:30—Sammy Kaye Showroom
- 10:45—Vocal Varieties
- 11:00—Count of Monte Cristo
- 11:15—Paul Weston Show
- 11:30—News
- 11:45—Lanny Ross
- 12:00—Fulton Lewis
- 12:15—Music
- 12:30—Bulletin Board
- 12:45—Airplane Trio
- 1:00—World News
- 1:15—Popular Demand
- 1:30—Novelities

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22

- 8:00—Variety Show
- 8:30—Sunrise Salute
- 9:00—Farm Reporter
- 9:15—News
- 9:30—Breakfast Game
- 9:45—Vocal Melodies
- 10:00—Morning Roundup
- 10:15—Shoe Time
- 10:30—Victor H. Lindlahr
- 10:45—Music
- 11:00—Bulletin Board
- 11:15—Airplane Trio
- 11:30—World News
- 11:45—Popular Demand
- 12:00—Novelities

WATKUS CONVALESCENT

Chicago, June 21 (AP)—FIRST baseman Eddie Watkus of the Philadelphia Phillies, shot and wounded by a lovesick girl fan, may be out of the hospital in three weeks, doctors said today.

Watkus, shot a week ago today, got out of bed and took a walk around his room yesterday. A .22 caliber rifle bullet lodged in his chest has not yet been removed.

Voice of -KBND- 1340 Kilocycles
Central Oregon
Affiliated With Mutual Don Lee Broadcasting System

Congressional debaters on KBND-Mutual Don Lee's "American Forum of the Air" program will discuss "How Far Should We Go in Public Housing" this evening 7 to 7:30 p.m.

At 7:30 tonight and each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings tune in the "Sammy Kaye Showroom" program, with the best in orchestras, popular songs and entertainment.

At 8 o'clock this evening, a Pymalione-type story "The Would-Be Lady," is dramatized on "The Count of Monte Cristo".

"Straight Arrow" is replaced for the summer starting today with "B-Bar-B Ranch" in the 5 to 5:30 time Tuesdays and Thursdays. At 5:30 Monday through Friday, a new series of children's dramatic programs, "The Adventures of Champion" replacing "Captain Midnight," will be on the air.

The 1949 all-star baseball game, an exclusive sports feature on KBND-Mutual Don Lee for the sixth year, is scheduled for broadcast July 12, starting at 9:15 a. m. our time.

- 9:40—Women's Digest
- 9:45—Tell Your Neighbor
- 10:00—News
- 10:15—Gospel Singer
- 10:30—Lullaby Lane
- 10:45—Meet the Band
- 10:55—News
- 11:00—Tune Time
- 11:05—Man About Town
- 11:10—Ladies First
- 11:15—Queen for a Day
- 11:20—Noontime Melodies
- 11:25—Noontime Melodies
- 11:30—News
- 11:45—Farmers Hour
- 1:00—News of Prineville
- 2:00—Against the Storm
- 2:30—Music
- 2:45—Fun Show
- 3:00—According to the Record
- 3:15—Modern Melodies
- 3:45—Northwest News
- 3:50—Music
- 3:55—Central Oregon News
- 4:00—Guest Star
- 4:15—Frank Hemingway
- 4:30—Passing Parade
- 4:45—News
- 5:00—Superman
- 5:10—Adventures of Champion
- 5:45—Tom Mix
- 6:00—Gabriel Scatter
- 6:15—Cote Serenade
- 6:30—Guest Star
- 6:45—Music
- 6:50—Remember When
- 6:55—Bill Henry News
- 7:00—Three Sox
- 7:15—Special Report From Washington
- 7:30—Popular Favorites
- 7:45—Club Corner
- 8:00—What's the Name of That Song?
- 8:15—Family Theater
- 8:30—News
- 8:45—Lanny Ross
- 9:00—Fulton Lewis
- 9:15—Bill Henry News
- 9:30—Tommy Zito
- 9:45—Sign Off

GOLFERS SELECTED

Pebble Beach, Calif., June 21 (AP)—Ten California amateur golfers today were named to meet a Pacific Northwest team in the first Morse cup matches at Seattle on July 9-10.

The Pacific Northwest team will be announced later.

Oliver Leads At Wenatchee

Wenatchee, Wash., June 21 (AP)—Ed (Porky) Oliver, Seattle professional, held a one-stroke lead as medal play in the Washington state golf tournament here entered its third day today.

Oliver carded a three-under par 69 yesterday to lead the field. Oliver shot a 70 Sunday, which gives him a 36-hole total of 139.

Amateur Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane and pro Stan Leonard of Vancouver, B.C., were tied at second with 140's after carding 68 and 70, respectively, the second day.

Irv Parent of Seattle, amateur, slipped to 75 yesterday and wound up six strokes behind pace-setting Oliver. Parent had tied with Oliver and Leonard in the opening round.

VISITORS WELCOME
AT ONE OF AMERICA'S EXCEPTIONAL
BREWERIES DAILY
9:30 TO 4:30.
SEE HOW OLYMPIA
BEER IS MADE.

FAMOUS SIMILES—FOR SCOUTS
"Dumb like a fox"

Official Boy Scout Shoes by Buster Brown

It's hard to fool a Scout... that's why all good Scouts insist on Official Boy Scout Shoes. These shoes are built to take it, and look like a million for dressup, at school and on parade. You just can't buy better!

Available, too in ankle height Widths A to E; Lengths—Boys' size 11 to men's size 10.

Buster Brown Shoe Store

X-RAY FITTINGS

Shevlin Quality PONDEROSA PINE

Lumber and Box Shooks

By V. T. Hamlin

FRIED CHICKEN
Cooked the Way You Like It

Delicious! The Fried Chicken... prepared southern style... to the 'nth degree of mouth watering goodness... and always a favorite at the Skyline Drive In.

White Meat Snack ..... 85c
Dark Meat Snack ..... 75c
Served anytime — Curb Service or take it out!

Skyline Drive - In
ON SOUTH HIGHWAY
1243 South Third Street Phone 1255-W

SUMMER IS HERE!
BUT THERE STILL ARE SOME CHATTERING CLUTCHES!
IF YOURS IS ONE—BRING IT IN FOR OUR CLUTCH SPECIAL!
For All FORD Passenger Cars
EFFECTIVE THRU FRIDAY, JUNE 24

We will "warm it up and take the chatter out by: INSTALLING NEW CLUTCH DISC PRESSURE PLATE THROW-OUT BEARING

ONLY $2280 Labor Included

Halbrook Motors
That Friendly FORD Dealer
Bond and Minnesota Phone 680

ALL SERVICES FREE!
Trips Arranged by AIR • LAND • SEA
WORLD-WIDE TRAVEL BUREAU
Hotel Reservations Anywhere
PILOT BUTTE INN PHONE 1775
Offices in Klamath Falls and Redmond

ALLEY OOP

SHOT UP AN' MARCOONED ON A TWO-BIT ISLAND FORTY MILE OFF SHORE! A FINE MESS!

WELL, ANYWAY WE'RE STILL ALIVE!

YES THAT PLANE COULD HAVE BLASTED US AS EASILY AS IT SUNK OUR BOAT!

YEH! I DON'T GET IT, NOTHIN' ADDS UP!

SURELY SOMEONE WILL COME ALONG AND PICK US UP!

FAT CHANCE! NOBODY EVER COMES TO THIS GOD-FORSAKEN PLACE!

LOOK! A BOAT!