Scholarship Awards Made At State PEO Convention

By Virginia Lee Hulloek
Announcement of scholarship awards made by the PEO Sisterhood was a highlight of the dinner meeting last night, which brought to a close the first day of the organization's state convention now in session in Redmond.

Pythian Sisters Hold Initiation For 9 Knights

Initiation of nine Knights of Pythias, by the Pythian Sisters lodge, was a highlight of a meeting of the women's lodge last Thursday night in the library auditorium. The impressive initiation followed a potluck dinner attended by about 60 members of the two lodges and their wives and husbands.

The degree staff, headed by Mrs. Fred Gibson, was in charge of the initiation ritual. Men who were received into the order are H. H. DeArmond, Harvey Brinson, Harold Hansen, Oscar Hanson, Alfred Hanson, Claude Kelly, George Gohrke, Cecil Hollingshead and Louis DeBunce.

The meeting was the last for the women's lodge until after the summer recess. A picnic is to be held later in the summer, and regular meetings will be resumed in September.

DRUGLESS CLINIC Colon Therapy

Especially indicated in colitis and constipation, it has far reaching benefits in nervous and chronic disorders, due to its cleansing of the source of infection of the blood stream from bacterial poisons retained in the lower bowel. Nature's best detoxifying agent! Oxygen, water and air are employed, supplemented with corrective physical and hygienic measures.

Memorial Held

Preceding a no-hostess luncheon served yesterday in the Jessie Hill school by members of the Community Presbyterian church guild, a memorial hour was held from 11 a. m. until noon at the Community Presbyterian church, Chapter C, Portland, and Chapter D, Forest Grove, were in charge.

Mrs. Kathryn Harris, Portland, played the piano prelude and the postlude. The devotions were read by Mrs. Ella Hutchins, Mrs. Maxine Banks, Salem, played two numbers on the harp, "By Bendamere's Stream" and "London-derry Air." Mrs. Maude Sestak gave the memorial reading, and Mrs. Jennie Price read the candle-lighting ceremony. She was assisted by Mrs. Lera Dunsmore and Mrs. Banks. Mrs. Frances Smith, Portland, sang "The Lord's Prayer," by Mallott. She was accompanied by Mrs. Doris Nestelle. The benediction was given by Mrs. Ella Hutchins.

Registration was held Monday morning from 9 to 11 at the Jessie Hill school. Coffee was served by the Presbyterian guild members.

Delegates and visitors who arrived Sunday were entertained informally that evening at the home of Mrs. L. W. Franks.

AFFAIR IS POSTPONED

Officers of Women of the Moose today announced postponement of a dinner planned for Thursday, June 23, honoring fathers who are members of Loyal Order of the Moose. Instead, the affair will be a potluck supper following the meeting of the men's lodge June 30.

Bridal Couple At Home in Glen Vista

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Danison Jr., have returned from a honeymoon spent at mountain resorts, and are at home on Route 2, in the Glen Vista district. Mrs. Danison is the former Arlene Chaney, who was graduated from Bend high school with the class of 1948.

The marriage took place Sunday, June 12, on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Chaney, Rev. Len B. Fishback, of First Christian church, Bend, performed the ceremony.

For the wedding, the bride wore an aqua gabardine suit, with white and brown accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. C. E. Fullerton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green and white suit with white accessories. Miss Margaret Loudermilk, of Bend, was bridesmaid, in an aqua suit with white accessories.

Tom Danison, Alfalfa, acted as best man for his brother.

An informal reception followed the rites. Miss Mary Ann Kiesow served the bride's cake and Miss Betty Koth served the groom's cake. Miss Betty Dudley poured the punch. About 50 guests were present.

Mrs. Richard Smith of Venice, Calif., was an out-of-town guest. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Danison, Alfalfa.

Bend Women Go To Convention In Klamath

A delegation of local women returned this past week end from Klamath Falls, where they attended the thirty-third annual department convention of the US WV auxiliary. They are Mrs. L. M. Lancaster, who was re-elected senior vice-president, and Mrs. Chris Kostol, who was named as one of the department colors. Also attending from Bend were Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. George Erickson.

Also of local interest was the elevation of Mrs. Bessie Sutton, Corvallis, to the office of department patriotic instructor. Mrs. Sutton is the daughter of Mrs. R. T. Forrest, 1036 Harmon, Bend.

Mrs. Addie May Beeman, Portland, was re-elected president of the auxiliary.

New commander of the United Spanish War Veterans, department of Oregon, is Alfred Hariman, Portland. The veterans and the auxiliary held their conventions simultaneously. Sessions opened last Wednesday and extended through Saturday.

Danison-Chaney Wedding Held

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Danison, Jr., have returned from a honeymoon trip and are at home in the Glen Vista community.

Rim Rock Riders Guests at Ranch; Program Varied

Just short of 100 persons attended the Rim Rock Riders' annual buckaroo breakfast Sunday at which Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hollingshead were hosts. As in past years, the breakfast was at the Timberline ranch, near the north base of Lava butte. The meal was served in rangeland style, over outdoor stoves, with members of the club and visitors "assisting about the trees" in preparing and serving the sumptuous breakfast.

Something new was added to the program this year, with couples gathering for square dances on a green lawn. Bill Burton called the quadrilles, with music received over a public address system.

A horse show followed the breakfast and dancing, with A. L. O. Schueler, K. C. Gullick and Harvey Jenkins as judges. Ribbons were awarded winners. Mr. and Mrs. Hollingshead joined with others in showing some of their prized horses.

Ideal weather prevailed for the breakfast, with first arrivals showing up around 7:30.

This was the sixth annual breakfast sponsored for the Rim Rock Riders by Mr. and Mrs. Hollingshead.

Lady Elks will have a social evening Thursday in the BPOE hall, beginning at 8 o'clock. The affair will honor the women's drill team, who placed first in state competition recently, it has been announced.

Many to Attend Party Tomorrow

Many local women are making up tables for the annual luncheon and card party sponsored by circle 1 of the Catholic Altar society, to be held Wednesday afternoon in the St. Francis parish hall.

The luncheon will be served promptly at 1 o'clock, and both bridge and pinocle will follow. There will be special tables for business women who do not wish to remain for cards, it has been announced.

Attractive prizes have been provided for the affair, according to those in charge. Mrs. Robert Wetle is general chairman.

Speech Club Installation Is Gala Affair

A "Mirror Pond" theme was carried out in decorations and favors for the installation and charter presentation banquet of the Bend Toastmistress club, last night in the Pilot Butte inn Blue room. Present at the semi-formal affair were some 75 persons, including members of the club and their husbands, members of the local Toastmistress club, and visitors from out-of-town.

The charter was presented by Mrs. L. W. Wirenius, Albany, a director of Toastmistress Clubs International. Officers were installed by Mrs. George Goodrich, retiring representative of the Tillamook club.

Officers who were installed include Mrs. David Wilson, president; Mrs. Walter Emmel, vice-president; Mrs. Floyd Neff, secretary; Miss Kathryn Kelley, treasurer, and Mrs. Craig Coyner, club representative.

Guest speakers were Miss Mildred Ringo, representative of the Tillamook club, whose topic was "Project: Toastmistress," and Vance T. Coyner, of the Bend Toastmasters club, who spoke on "Toastmasters' Goal." The third of the five-minute talks was given by Miss Kathryn Kelley, of the Bend club, who spoke on "History of Mirror Pond."

Mrs. Howard Cox presided as toastmistress, and Mrs. W. F. Andrews was topic mistress. Mrs. W. E. Parson was timekeeper, and Miss Amanda Anderson, a speech teacher in the Salem schools, acted as evaluator.

Mrs. Coyner, who served as temporary chairman while the club was being organized, was in charge of the program. The invocation was given by Mrs. Ted Mark, and Mrs. J. A. Dudley led in the pledge to the flag. Don P. Zenc entertained with a tenor solo.

Greetings were extended by Don Peoples, president of the Bend Toastmasters' club, who was accompanied by Mrs. Peoples, and Thomas A. Power, president of the Madras club, who was accompanied by Mrs. Power.

Setting the theme for the banquet was a replica of Mirror pond, arranged on a small table near the speakers' table. Miniature swans sailed on a blue mirror, which was edged with a garden of moss and rock plants. Favors at each place were miniature swan vases, and larger swans, placed along the tables, held flower arrangements.

1:30 p.m. — Juniper Garden club, Petersen's Rock gardens.
8 p.m. — Lady Elks, BPOE hall.

8 p.m. — Junior Civic league with Mrs. Leo J. Normand, 636 East Fourth.

Friday
1 p.m. — Women's Golf club, luncheon at country club.

Saturday
1 p.m. — Deschutes County Tuberculosis and Health association, annual meeting at Pine Tavern.

Junior Civic league will meet Thursday, June 23, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Leo J. Normand, 636 East Fourth street.

Family Reunion Is Held Sunday At Corkett Home

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corkett, 654 Roanoke, was the scene of a Father's day reunion on Sunday.

Present from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corkett and three children, from Azusa, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Varnel Corkett and daughter, Portland. Bend persons attending were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Corkett and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corkett and their three children.

Charles, Earl and Varnel are sons of Clyde Corkett, who came to Bend in 1911 from Minneapolis, Minn. He established Bend's first ice-cream factory and candy kitchen, which he operated in connection with a restaurant and confectionery store.

The serving of a ham dinner was a feature of the family gathering Sunday.

HOSSESSES NAMED

Mrs. Merle Sleeper will act as chairman of the hostess committee for the regular weekly luncheon of the Women's Golf club this Friday at the Country club. The luncheon will be served at 1 p.m., following a putting tournament which is scheduled to start at 8 a.m. Assisting Mrs. Sleeper as hostesses will be Mrs. Howard Conlee, Mrs. G. A. Horstkotte, Mrs. Ray Forrest and Mrs. Regis de Maleisvire.
