52 ALARMS ANSWERED

Nearly half of the 52 fires put out by Bend fire department in July were caused by careless discarding of cigarettes and matches, Chief Leroy Fox said today.

According to his report, submitted to City manager W. O. Cuthbertson, the department answered 52 alarms in July, including three general and 49 still calls. Of these, 27 were caused by matches and cigarettes. Causes of the other fires were given as: fireworks, 18; defective wiring, 5; people burning after dark, 2.

Seven fires took trucks outside city limits.
