Girl Who Killed Mother Defended

Hayward, Cal., Oct. 21 (AP)— Friends and relatives rallied to defend 15-year-old Celeste Morrow, who stabbed her mother to death in a quarrel over her high-school boy friends.
"As far as we can find out, the girl had a very good reputation," said juvenile probation officer Mrs. Mary F. Quale. "She just had a miserable life because of her mother's drinking." Celeste admitted jabbing an eight-inch kitchen knife into her mother's back Wednesday night.
She said her mother, Mrs. Celeste Morrow, 41, had forbidden her to see Freddie Klarenbach, 17, with whom she had gone on movie and bowling dates.
The Alameda county probation department filed a petition in juvenile court alleging murder and a preliminary hearing was set for Oct. 31. It was a routine procedure.

Depending on the outcome of investigations now being made into the pretty bobby soxer's background, Celeste could be committed to the probation officer until she is 21; committed to the California youth authority; placed in a private institution, or certified to the criminal courts.
It was doubtful that she would be bound over for a criminal trial.
A preliminary psychiatric examination, conducted by Dr. E.
W. Mullen, showed Celeste was a "perfectly normal, intelligent young girl," said assistant district attorney Folger Emerson.
Young Klarenbach said Celeste did "everything possible to stop" her mother from drinking.

burg police want a smooth-operating gypsy woman who set up her

Central Oregon Group to Attend Utah Sessions

Prineville, Oct. 21—Central Oregon will be represented at the annual convention of the National Reclamation association in Salt Lake City, Utah, November 3, 4 and 5, by men of Crook and Jefferson counties long active in irrigation development of the area. From Prineville Judge A.
H. Bowman and LaSelle Coles will attend, accompanied by their wives. Ben Evick, O. E. Bobb and Ralph Freisen, members of the Jefferson Water Conservancy district of Jefferson county will go to the Salt Lake session.
Plans had called for a delegation of the Powell Butte High-line Irrigation association to attend the Salt Lake meeting. The members of that group, however, report that they all will be busy clearing up the annual potato harvest. They will cancel the Utah trip and are making plans to go to Portland the week following the Salt Lake meeting, to confer with Michael W. Straus.

commissioner of the U.S. bureau of reclamation, who is scheduled to come to Oregon immediately following his attendance at the Salt Lake convention.
The Powell Butte interests wish to confer with Commissioner Straus over plans for a high dam in the Crooked river gorge at the Hoffman site, 13 miles south of Prineville, where a storage reservoir will be developed, capable of conserving the entire run-off of the Crooked river watershed.
