THE DIRT MERCHANT

"SNOW WHITE" is with us; rather the outdoor type, we will agree, but quite noticeable. If it was about two feet deep we would think more of it; however, Central Oregon has the water, and that's what it takes to produce the crops. To those who are interested in this thriving part of Oregon, we are inviting you to stop in. A careful study of our large listing, and a ride through this wonderful spot where the sun shines every day in the year, and you will feel at home.

TO OWN A 10,000 acre stock ranch, with miles of outcrops; creek in every direction, including a river; two homes, one new and modern; 1600 a. creek bottom meadow land; this would be a keen present for any man's family. This ranch is located in the good old cow country.

We are offering an 80 acre ranch that would be a nice Christmas present for any family. You know, fellows, there is nothing equal to Powell Butte; and the price of this ranch is only $17,500.

140 ACRE HIWAY RANCH, and it's a real one. Price $20,000.

IF YOU would be satisfied with a keen 80, we can locate you for $12,600.

A CLIENT in the Willamette Valley with 13 1/2 acres near Dayton told us to get him a buyer. The price is $6,500.

NOW, SIR, we're going to leave it to you concerning these famous irrigated farms, which we have a large list of, and just take you to a 2720 acre stock ranch on Crooked River. "Nuf said; you better see us. Santa Claus took most of our do-re-me, and we can't squawk a lot this Xmas. Come and see us; we will show you some of the finest ranches in the West. Wishing you a Merry Christmas, and a Wonderful New Year.

IT'S ABOUT TIME

TO HARVEST the annual crop of Xmas and New Year greetings. Our contribution is that if all of us have sense enough to see things as they are, and courage enough to do something about it, the New Year will turn out all right for most of us.

NOW THEN, if we are to become one of the richest men in Deschutes county this coming year, we must have more listings: farms, homes, business properties. Most every day we have calls for something we don't have. We can't sell it if it isn't listed. We need more good farms and stock ranches for men who want to buy and have the money. We need a number of city homes in popular price range that can be sold on terms. If you have a good, paying business, we have a man who wants it—if the price is right.

WE DON'T list everything we see. If the price is too high, we will tell you so and pass it by. We like to sell property that carries full value to folk who will speak to us after they buy it. If you like that policy, mebbe we can help you turn your real estate into cash. A call will set us on our way.

BY GOLLY

IF THIS new, 2 bedroom house with its 100x140 foot North Hiway frontage isn't worth $5500 with $1500 down, we'll ooze out into the street and trickle away. No, ma'am, the house isn't quite ready to live in—just a few little things to do yet, but we think there is more dollar value wrapped up in the selling price than anything we have seen lately. If you want more information, call our office and ask for Pat Ballew (we think he will be back from duck hunting then).
