

Gilchrist

Gilchrist, Dec. 21 (Special) — The Juniors and seniors are planning to have their Christmas party together this year.

Miss Audra Freeman of Portland will come to Gilchrist to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bud Capps during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Arhim L. James and family were in Klamath Falls Saturday, December 17, Christmas shopping.

On the morning of December 17 the residents of Gilchrist awoke to a field of white. After a pleasant fall and a seemingly green Christmas it was something of a surprise to find 18 inches of snow on the doorstep.

A Christmas drama will be given at the Crescent Baptist church December 25 at 7:30 p.m., under the direction of Mrs. Harold U'Fenn.

The Sunday school program will be presented Friday at 7:30. Mr. Reeves of Shevlin recently suffered a serious cut on his head and possible internal injuries.

Mr. and Mrs. William Besau of Portland will spend Christmas with Mrs. Besau's father, James L. Cook, in Shevlin.

Mrs. Ed Banks of Shevlin was shopping in Bend Saturday.

James Cook and daughter of Shevlin and Jimmie Shelton of Gilchrist spent Saturday shopping in Bend.

Bob Van Tassel brought his wife and new son, Richard Lee, home to Shevlin Saturday, December 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Shelton of Gilchrist spent Saturday shopping in Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Banks of Shevlin will spend their Christmas at Albany visiting their sons and families.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Vidonne shopped in Bend Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cromes have moved from Gilchrist and will make their home in Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Vidonne are moving to Gilchrist during the next week.

ed to a large and appreciative audience at the Gilchrist Methodist church Sunday evening by a choir of 32 voices.

Mrs. Harvey Field played the organ prelude and accompanied the singers. Mrs. Charles Shotts sang "Ave Maria," presiding the cantata. Rev. W. F. Dodge read the Scripture and prayer.

Walter Gore played Braga's "Serenade" as a violin offertory solo. Mrs. Charles Shotts, Mrs. Earl Simmons, Mrs. Guy Ferguson, Mrs. Herbert Dennis and Albert Carmichael sang the solo parts.

Following the singing, the Women's Society of Christian Service served apple pie and coffee to the singers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Conklin and family of Shevlin visited Mrs. Conklin's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Hammack, of Sisters, Saturday afternoon and evening.

A birthday dinner was given in honor of Sid Conklin at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Conklin, Wednesday evening. Ted Conklin also attended.

The Gilchrist Grizzlies traveled to Merrill Friday to tangle with the Merrill Huskies in their first league game of the year.

The Huskies defeated the Grizzlies by a score of 35-22. High point man for the Grizzlies was Warren Griflin, who scored 12 points.

The Grizzlies' next game will be Friday, December 23, at Gilchrist, when they meet the Sacred Heart Trojans.

The union at Gilchrist is planning a Christmas party for the children of the community. Santa Claus will be present with candy for all the children.

Zimmerlee Rites Set for Thursday

Prineville, Dec. 21 — Funeral services will be held at the Prineville funeral home chapel at 2:30 p.m. Thursday for Mrs. Bessie Zimmerlee, wife of Zim Zimmerlee, rancher of the McKay road district north of here.

Rev. James Howard, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate and interment will follow at the Pioneer Memorial cemetery.

Mrs. Zimmerlee, 51, and native of British Columbia, died Sunday at the Prineville General hospital after a three-day illness.

Mrs. Zimmerlee came here with her husband in 1916. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, James Zimmerlee, of Prineville; her mother, Mrs. Margaret Bishop, Victoria, B.C.; and three sisters who reside in British Columbia.

GIVES WHILE HE LIVES

Providence, R.I. — A "will" published before he was dead in a newspaper "Letters to the Editor" column was Serop Hagopian's way of singling out novelists, journalists, and newspapers that have given him pleasure in recent years.

"As I live on my deathbed..." he commenced, and went on to say that the Armenian baker would like to distribute $1,300 "while I am alive to see it."

Hagopian gave $100 each to an Armenian-American novelist, a radio program, a newspaper writer and five Armenian-language newspapers. The rest of the money would be distributed later on, he said.

Madras Council Opposes Signs

Madras, Dec. 20 — The Madras city council yesterday announced formulation of a policy for bidding the erection of billboards along its main streets.

Several applications had been filed with the council requesting permission to erect 12 by 26 foot boards in the city.

In announcing the new policy, officers of the council said that the billboards, if permitted, not only would be unsightly but they would create a traffic hazard to motorists.
