Baptists Plan Yule Services For Sunday

Special Christmas services are planned for First Baptist church, with a Christmas cantata, an evening candlelight service and a musical drama scheduled. On Christmas Sunday morning the Bible school will meet as usual at 9:45 for the Christmas lesson. At the 11 o'clock hour the senior choir, under the direction of T. D. Sexton, with Mrs. Sexton at the organ, will present their Christmas cantata entitled, "The Song of Old." This service will be broadcast over radio station KBND, as usual, and will mark the beginning of the church's 12th year of continuous broadcast of the Sunday morning worship hour.

Sunday evening at 7:30, a candlelight service will feature music by the junior choir, under direction of Miss Joyce Douglass. Rev. Roy H. Austin will deliver a short Christmas sermon. Climaxing the season's special events will be a musical drama, entitled "The Prince of Peace," to be given at 7:45 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 28. The play was written by Mrs. Harold O'Renn, of Crescent, wife of the pastor of the Baptist church there, and will include in its cast young people from Shevlin, Crescent and Bend. No admission charge will be made, but a free-will offering will be received to assist the Crescent church in its building program. An invitation to attend was extended to the public.

The church was filled to capacity for the Sunday school program presented last Wednesday evening under the direction of Mrs. Charlotte Olson and Mrs. Ruth Hockersmith.

Birthday Is Celebrated By Three-Year-Old Boy

Gregory Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt, celebrated his third birthday anniversary with a party for which his mother was hostess Thursday afternoon. The children participated in games and gifts were opened, followed by the serving of refreshments. Guests included the following: Madeline and Mrs. Bill Murphy, Farley and Mrs. Francis Brest, Ronald and Mrs. Jim Wood, Gregory and Mrs. Emil Moen, Janice and Mrs. Cliff Ingram, Corvallis; Lynne, Barbara, and Mrs. Vernon Leverett; Mrs. D. J. Raymond, Judy Ziegler and Jerry Hunt.

Mrs. C. A. Hubbs Honored at Party

Mrs. Charles A. Hubbs, who, with her daughter, Diana, will leave Dec. 29 for Meridian, Wyo., was guest of honor at a holiday buffet dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kostal were hosts last night at their home on Harmon boulevard. Mrs. Hubbs is the daughter of Mel Rogers, of Bend. She and Diana will join Hubbs at Meridian, where they will make their home. He was recently released from the navy, and plans to engage in aerial crop dusting. He also gives lessons in aircraft operation. He visited in Bend several weeks ago, piloting his own plane on the trip.

Present at the party last night were Mrs. Hubbs and Diana, Miss Marjorie Smith, Mrs. Pearl Lancaster, Mrs. Elsie Smith, Mrs. Jean Masiker, Mel Rogers, Frances Stokesberry, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Dunlap and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Grant. A gift was presented to Mrs. Hubbs.

Canadian Party To Arrive Today

A party of staff members from Canadian Bible Institute, Regina, Saskatchewan, is expected to arrive in Bend today, for a week of special services at the Alliance church. Heading the party will be Arnold Neuman, of Esk, Saskatchewan, head of the college's practical extension program, and Mrs. Hazel Tysdal, Briercrest, head cook and dietitian. Members of the party will be guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Riemer, 515 Lava road.

The visitors will present special music at the Christmas day services at the church, and will appear at evening services throughout the week.

As a special Christmas feature, carols and chime recordings are being played from the tabernacle's public address system each evening at 7 o'clock.

Skating Club Has Annual Election

The Central Oregon Skating and Skating Club held a meeting last Tuesday at the Civic roller rink to elect officers. Those elected were Jody Winters, president; Frank Shaw, vice-president; Doris Shaw, secretary, and Junior Baker, treasurer. New amendments to the club constitution were made. Meetings will be held the second Tuesday.

15th Birthday Is Party Occasion

Geraldine Hawk, celebrated her fifteenth birthday with a party for which her mother, Mrs. De J. Francis, was hostess last week at the Franks home in Carroll Acres. Miss LaBona Gifford and Miss Bernice Doramus were co-hostesses. After games, the birthday gifts were opened, and refreshments were served.

The following others were present: Mrs. Harrietta Lowery, Gloria Gail, Betty Jensen, Wilma Burleigh, Joyce Farmer, Arla Fordham, Beverly Anderson, Jerry Ackerson, Dick and Gene Edwards, Bob Kerns, Bob Newman, Jimmy Stelair, Miles Hutchins and Jerry Hawks.

Caroling Party Held For Seventh Graders

Mary and Nancy Plummer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Plummer, entertained a group of Allen school seventh grade girls at a caroling party Thursday evening. The group visited the hospital and received candy canes and ribbon candy.

Later at the Plummer home, games were played, and refreshments were served. Prizes in quizz games were won by Luella Stafford and Ruby Anderson.

KINDERGARTEN PARTY
Mrs. Lenice George entertained members of her kindergarten class at a Christmas party Thursday afternoon. The youngsters participated in games, exchanged gifts and received treats.

Redmond Club Has Christmas Party

Redmond, Dec. 24 — Olla Podrida study club held its Christmas party Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wesley Baker. Gifts were exchanged, and identity of "secret sisters" was revealed. The program consisted of the playing of two recordings, "The Littlest Angel," narrated by Loretta Young, and "The Boy that Sang for the King," told by Dennis Day.

A discussion was held concerning two letters which had been received by the club from a family in Germany to whom the club had sent CARE packages. An effort will be made to have an exact translation of the letters made. The group plans to send a box of clothing to the family, which is destitute. The next meeting of the club will be on January 4, at the home of Mrs. Frank de Lespinaise.
