

In-Service Training Day Set March 30

Redmond, March 21 (Special)—March 30 has been marked as the date for the in-service training day for all Deschutes county elementary school teachers, with the exception of those teaching in Bend. The sessions will be held at the Jessie Hill school.

The morning will be devoted to a demonstration in reading by a group of Edwin Brown school students, followed by discussions of primary reading problems. A group of Jessie Hill fifth grade students will give the afternoon demonstration.

Miss Joyce Pritchard, language arts consultant for the Row-Peterson company, will conduct the in-service meeting.

The in-service training day was set by Mrs. Velma Buckingham, county superintendent of schools.

Miss Janet Parkey was a Saturday night guest of her cousin, Miss Patricia Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Bishop and children, Bonnie and Benny, were Bend shoppers Saturday.

The Past Matrons' club met Saturday at the home of Mrs. Al Mansfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Browning and family have moved into the Irvin house, recently vacated by the F. Arensmeyers, who moved into the Heese home which they had purchased earlier in the year.

W. F. King of Prineville called on his sister, Mrs. C. S. Edwards, Saturday.

Mrs. C. S. Edwards, Mrs. John Berning, and Miss Clarissa Berning went to Prineville Saturday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Billingsly were among the Cloverdale people who shopped in Redmond Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland King and daughter, Jacquetta, of Metolius, were in Redmond Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ernest and daughter, Vivian, returned this week-end from Ontario where they had spent a week visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Christian planned to leave today for Newport, where they will complete the details of selling their Newport property. Before returning to Redmond Friday, the Christians will attend the northwest ice cream manufacturers convention.

Ashes Shortage Hits Motorists

New Kensington, Pa. (UP)—Community officers in every city and hamlet in the Allegheny valley are disturbed over an acute shortage of ashes.

An exceedingly mild winter, a long coal strike, a switch from coal to other fuels and modern disposal methods have combined to make the once plentiful waste product as scarce as passenger pigeons.

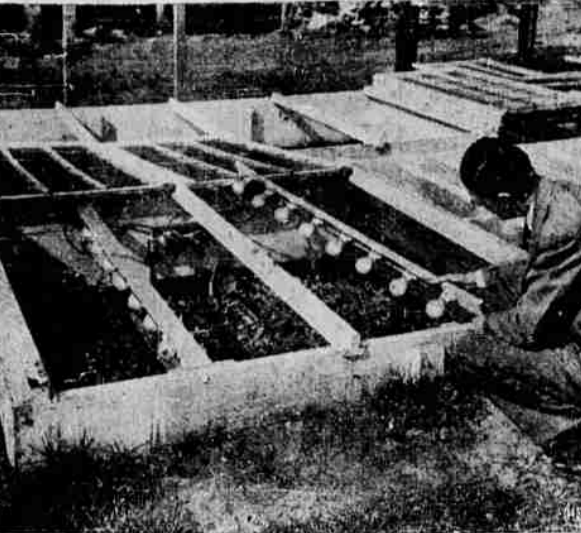

Now, if an irate motorist telephones city officials to complain he's stuck in the mud, there's nothing the city can do but tell him to call a towtruck. Time was, in the days of lots of ashes, when the city would send a truckload out to the stuck car and have it free in no time.

1910
40 YEARS AGO, when Pacific Power & Light started in business, washday was drudgery day! Electricity cost about 15c per kilowatt-hour, and was used mainly for lighting. Many Pacific Northwest communities had small local power plants which operated only from dusk to midnight. A big job lay ahead for pioneering Pacific Power & Light!

1950
TODAY cheap electricity does the wash in short order. Upstairs and downstairs, electric appliances make life easier for the housewife. For 40 years, PP&L has been promoting new uses for electricity, improving service, reducing rates. Today homes served by PP&L use an average of 4,364 kilowatt-hours a year, at an average price of only 1.44c a kwh!

Progressive American business keeps bringing you better electric living... at bargain electric rates!
