4-H Club News

The annual tri-county 4-H summer camp will be held at Skyliner lodge July 22 to July 30. It was announced today by Joseph J. Lievens, 4-H club agent.

The camp will be divided into two sessions, with junior members attending Saturday, July 22 to Wednesday, July 26, and senior members arriving at the camp Wednesday.

Registration will be conducted at the camp, Lievens said. Morning sessions at the camp will be devoted to craft activities. Plans have been made for the following craftwork: leather crafts, directed by Miss Mary Ann Kiesow; paper crafts, Miss Ruth Shelton, Deschutes county home extension agent; plastic braiding, Miss Rebecca Johnson, Crook county extension agent; electricity, Cecil Root, representative of the Pacific Power and Light company of Portland; wildlife and game conservation, a representative of the state game commission; felt crafts, Miss Bernece Hergenroder, and scrapbooks, Miss Nancy Peterson.

Planned recreation activities will be conducted in the afternoons. A special bus will transport campers to the Bend municipal swimmers pool each afternoon.

Evening activities, which will be centered around a campfire, will include singing, games, and skits.

An attraction of the camp will be reports by John Kiesow on the 4-H club camp in Washington, D. C. and by Mary Ann Kiesow on the 4-H club congress in Chicago. They will be given at a special Sunday evening program.

Plans were being made this week for rifle instruction, which would be conducted by members of the Bend rifle club.

Church services will be held at the camp each Sunday. The camp is located 12 miles west of Bend on the Tumalo creek road.

Store Expansion To Be Celebrated

Culver, July 21 — Residents from all parts of central Oregon are expected to gather here Saturday evening when the Culver Seed company will celebrate the completion of expanded cleaning and warehouse facilities. An open house party and dance will highlight the celebration.

The business, headed by Don Lehman and Wilbur Lehman, was started last year. In the first year, the concern made a carlot distribution of the area's noted ladino, red and alsike clover seed throughout the nation.

It was reported yesterday that a delegation of Prineville citizens was expected to attend the party and extend the south Jefferson county residents a special invitation to the 1950 Crooked river roundup, scheduled for August 11, 12 and 13.

Queen Named For Pioneer Reunion, Picnic

Prineville, July 21 — It was announced this week that Mrs. Sadie Roberts will rule over the annual picnic and reunion of the Crook County Pioneer association, which will be held here Sunday, August 6.

The announcement was made by Mrs. Effa Calbreath, president of the association, which has members in Crook, Deschutes and Jefferson counties.

Mrs. Roberts, now 70, was born April 28, 1880 near the village of Smithfield, on the Long Tom river, on the donation land claim of her grandfather Gibson. In 1886 she moved with her parents, John and Mollie Gibson, and her sister and brother, to a long cabin up Newsom creek near the present location of Post, 25 miles south of here up the Crooked river gorge. She attended school at Post.

December 24, 1898, Sadie Gibson became the bride of Charlie Roberts. They lived for two years on the Webdel place near Eagle rock on the Combs Flat road. Later they took up a homestead near Paulina.

For the past several years, they have lived on South Fairview street in Prineville. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary two years ago.

Committees of the pioneer association, now busy with preparations for the annual reunion and picnic, report that letters have been received from many former residents, some living at distant points, announcing their plans to visit the old home town on August 6.

Leonard Woods Visitor in Bend

Leonard Woods, who is retiring from the J. C. Penney company after 27 years of service, and Mrs. Woods are vacationing at Paulina lake for the 18th consecutive year.

Woods was manager of the local Penney store from 1929 to 1932, when he was transferred to Boise to open a new store for the company. He retired July 1 of this year. He said this week he has no plans for the future.

Since leaving Bend in 1932, Mr. and Mrs. Woods have returned each summer to central Oregon for their vacation. They plan to be here for a month.

FIRES UNCHECKED

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 21 (AP) — The smoke of a dozen giant forest fires hung over central Alaska today like a dirty brown fog.

The blazes already have licked through more than 500,000 acres of tinder-dry tundra and forests had little hope of checking the blazes in the near future.

A wall of flame several miles long advanced to the outskirts of the historic river settlement of Fort Yukon yesterday. But the untiring efforts of a handful of men with only one bulldozer and one truck forced the flames to a halt.
