Padres Take Two From Portland, Gain on Oakland

By Jim Cooper
(United Press Sports Writer)

San Francisco, Aug. 21 (UP)—The two top teams, Oakland and San Diego of the Pacific Coast baseball league, turned in outstanding performances this week, with second-place San Diego taking the honors.

The Padres, with their double win Sunday over Portland—5 to 4 and 1 to 0—have won 13 out of the last 14 starts. Since last week, they've closed the gap between them and Oakland from seven to five and one-half games.

The Padres are definitely on the move, and the question the Oaks keep asking is: Can we hold that precious lead?

In Sunday's first game, the Padres turned in three runs in the ninth to close in from behind and overtake Portland. Max West singled off relief pitcher Bill Fleming when the bases were loaded, Orestes Minoza and Harry Simpson came galloping home. The home-run twins, Beavers Mickey Rocco and Joe Brovia, each slammed a homer for the losers.

Al Olsen offered the Beavers only three hits in the nightcap and denied them a score. Victory for the Padres came in the bottom of the first frame when Minoza singled, stole second and scored on Jack Graham's single.

Oaks Split Series

In other games, Oakland and San Francisco split, with the Seals taking the first game, 11 to 9, and the Oaks capturing the second, 5 to 1. Los Angeles took the top game over Hollywood, 6 to 4, while the Stars won the nightcap, 4 to 3. Seattle won both ends of the double bill with Sacramento, 4 to 3 and 8 to 6.

Oakland won five games to San Francisco's three in the eight-game series at the Golden Gate town. The opening contest, going to the Seals, was a free-hitting "walkathon" with new San Francisco hurler, "Tiny" Ted Savarese nabbing the victory in his pitching debut with the coasters.

Accotl All Gettel got his 12th win of the year in the nightcap. The Oaks won the contest in the second when Earl Rapp singled to right and Eddie Malone doubled, scoring Rapp. Bobbie Hofman's single brought in Malone with the winning run.

Los Angeles defeated third-place Hollywood five games to two in their series. The Angels came from behind with a three-run homer by catcher Ray Cash in the sixth inning of the first game.

A teeth-rattling homer by Hollywood's Chuck Stevens gave the Stars the win in the second tilt.

At Seattle, Ted Davis blasted a ninth-inning circuit with Bill Ramsey aboard for the Rainier win. The Rainiers broke a six-all tie in the last of the sixth for the nightcap victory.

Six Former Champions In Tourney

By Bob Hefty
(United Press Sports Writer)

Minneapolis, Aug. 21 (UP)—Six former champions—four of them good bets for new honors—led a 210-man field into the 50th National Amateur Golf tourney at trap-happy Minneapolis Golf club today.

Sharing the favorite's spotlight were defending champion Charles Coe of Oklahoma City; Willie Turnesa, 1938 and 1948 titlist from White Plains, N.Y.; 1946 king Ted Bishop of Weston, Mass., and 1940 champion Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N.C.

Along for the fun were Harrison R. (Jimmy) Johnston, of Minneapolis, title-winner back in 1929, and Charles (Chick) Evans Jr., who won the crown in 1916 and 1920 and has played in almost every national amateur in the last four decades.

Coe was considered a good bet to repeat, despite the fact that the same man has won the tourney two years in a row only six times in the amateur's 49-year history. Lawson Little last did it in 1934 and 1935.

Turnesa, the mighty mite with the deadly approach, had a lot of backers in his bid to join Walt Travis, Jerome Travers and the fabulous Bobby Jones as the only men to win the championship three times or more.

Highly-regarded among the non-champions were Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.; Jimmy McHale of Bethlehem, Pa.; three-time runnerup Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. and Dale Morey, the Dallas ace who returned to amateur standing after a brief fling at professionalism.

Stranahan yesterday turned in the lowest score yet fired on the course in a practice round, a four-under-par 67.

While the Japanese held Korea, from 1910 to 1945, no Korean history and little of the Korean language was permitted to be taught in the schools, says the National Geographic society.

Evans Fly Drops Tournament Game to Redmond; 3rd Round Slated On Local Field Tonight

Culver, Evans Fly and Redmond were first round winners in the district softball tournament on municipal field Saturday night, defeating their respective opponents, Burns, Hines and Prineville, by scores of 18 to 8, 16 to 3 and 8 to 0.

In the second round games Sunday night, Hines trounced Burns 12 to 4; Prineville walloped Culver 16 to 2, and Redmond squeezed by Evans Fly 5 to 2.

Redmond to date has been the surprise of the tourney with its two wins, the second against the strong Evans Fly team of Bend.

Leading hitter so far has been Bill Decker of Prineville who has four hits in five official trips to the plate.

In the third round tonight, Bend will meet Prineville at 7:30 p.m. The loser of this game will be eliminated from the tournament. At 9 p.m. tonight Redmond will meet Hines. A win by Redmond will put Hines out.

Following are summaries of the first and second round games:

FIRST ROUND
Team	R	H	E
Burns	8	3	12
Culver	2	3	5
Hines	12	4	5
Prineville	16	2	2
Evans Fly	5	2	2
Redmond	18	8	0

SECOND ROUND
Team	R	H	E
Hines	12	4	5
Burns	4	3	5
Prineville	16	2	2
Culver	2	3	5
Evans Fly	5	2	2
Redmond	18	8	0

CULVER TEAM TO MEET

Culver, Aug. 21—Although Culver high school entered central Oregon rivalry with a 11-man football team only last fall, it is displaying a keen interest in its prospects for the coming season.

Buck Monroe, coach of the Culver school, has announced that he will hold his first meeting of veteran and prospective players on the evening of Thursday, August 24. A practice schedule will be arranged and suits will be issued, Monroe reported.

REDSKINS VICTORIOUS

San Francisco, Aug. 21 (UP)—The Washington Redskins, sparked by the perennial accuracy of Sammy Baugh's slinging arm, trampled the San Francisco 49ers 31 to 12 yesterday in an exhibition professional football game here.

The Redskins dominated the game at Kezar stadium from the opening whistle. A crowd of 53,021 peered through a heavy fog to see the game.

Brooklyn Faces Double-Headers During September

By CARL LUNDQUIST
(United Press Sports Writer)

New York, Aug. 21 (UP)—Week-day double headers in Brooklyn drew out about the same time live dinosaurs stopped prancing on Flatbush avenue, but it looked today as if Branch Rickey might have to stage three of these extraordinary attractions in a row against the Braves at Ebbets field.

That could be a back-breaking lead for a team to carry, particularly if either the Dodgers and the Braves still remained in the pennant fight against the Philadelphia Phillies when they next meet in Brooklyn on Sept. 27, 28, and 29, just two days before the season ends.

Yet there may be no other alternative. A week-end deluge of rain swept out Sunday's double-header and a Saturday single game, and put Dodger officials into a series of conferences with National league president Ford Frick and officials of the Braves and several other clubs.

Ordinarily, Brooklyn would have a number of open dates in which the games could be played but because of almost unprecedented postponements because of earlier rains, there are few spots left in which both teams would be available.

There is a possibility that one of the three rained out games may be played as a night game on Aug. 31 when the Braves return east from Cincinnati and Brooklyn from Chicago.

Phillies Rained Out

The Phillies, also rained out of their three week-end games with the Giants, will make up one of them today at the Polo grounds and the other two in double-headers on Sept. 27 and 28, simultaneous with the Braves-Dodgers three-day marathon.

In the American league, the Yankees got ready for their three-day "make or break" series with the Detroit Tigers beginning here tomorrow by toppling the last place Philadelphia Athletics, 6 to 4 and 5 to 2. Joe DiMaggio won the first game by himself getting a three-run homer and two singles.

Hartsfield has been an adequate replacement for Eddie Stanky, proving a timely hitter and good defensive man for the Braves.

Boone, a .306 hitter, has given Lou Boudreau a chance to manage from the bench. Also promising among the new shortstops are Danny O'Connell of Pittsburgh and Al Carrasquel of the White Sox.

At third, Rosen, leading the American league in homers, is the stick-out. In the National (Continued on Page 7)

Lava Bears Receive Call For Practice

Coach Bud Robertson today issued his first call for candidates for the 1950 Lava Bear football team.

According to Robertson, he and Bill Overman, assistant football coach, will issue uniforms and equipment to prospective Bruins tomorrow and Wednesday. The first practice sessions will be held on Thursday.

The coach announced that candidates for the varsity could draw their equipment beginning at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. each day. Practices will be held twice a day for the first week, at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m., Robertson also reported.

Game Schedule

The team will face a tough, nine-game schedule this season with the first game slated against Madras on September 15.

Only one regular from last year's team will greet Coach Robertson this week. He is Phelon Cullison, senior tackle. However, six other lettermen are expected to be on hand to bolster the 1950 edition of the Lava Bears.

These are Drannan Hamby, guard; Jim Wade, quarterback; Bill Wiley, quarterback; Dale Thornburg, guard; Arnie Reinhart, guard; and Ernie Martin, tackle.

Uniforms and equipment will be issued at the field house on Bruin field.

Asian Partridge Due For Release In Oregon Fields

Several years from now, a hardy partridge that hails from Asia may provide sport for Oregon nimrods. The chukar partridge, already established in arid regions of the west, has been successfully reared this summer at the Oregon State game commission's Harmsman and Ontario game farms.

The 837 young chukars being raised at the two game farms will provide breeding stock for introductory plantings in eastern Oregon. Eggs for the Oregon game farms were supplied by the game departments of Washington, Idaho, and Wyoming. Washington made its introductory chukar plantings between 1939 and 1942, and last fall sportsmen in that state enjoyed a 28-day chukar partridge season.

Well Adapted

Experience in other states has shown that the bird is well adapted to game farm conditions and egg fertility is high. The Harmsman game farm had an 85 percent hatch. The chukar is reputed to be able to go for long (Continued on Page 7)

Tomorrow night, Mysterious Traveler will not be heard, but will be aired at 8 Wednesday evening this week only. "What's the Name of That Song?" moves to 5 on Saturdays.

Wednesday evening, 7:30 to 8, another adventure with the "Cisco Kid" will be aired with a dramatization of "Plot for Murder." Tonight at 8 on "Let George Do It" the story revolves around "The Treasure of Millie's Wharf," all about a search for sunken treasure in the Bay of Islands.

Bill Henry and his capsule newscast each evening, 6:55 to 7, celebrates a double anniversary with the newscast tonight, marking the start of 28 years of news presentation, and also his own birthday anniversary.

KBND's Square Dance broadcasts start tomorrow evening at 7 with a square dance on the air from the KBND studio in the Pilot Butte inn. Louis Olsen, the popular caller from Madras, will be here. In succeeding weeks the square dance will be broadcast at 8 on Wednesday evenings.

Lloyd Mangrum Wins Tourney

Baldmore, Md., Aug. 21 (UP)—Modest Lloyd Mangrum claims, "there are a lot of things about this game I don't understand," but the rivals who lost to him in the eastern open tourney think he knows everything about the game of golf.

Mangrum really gave the other pros a lesson yesterday as he won the 72-hole tournament with a nine-under-par 279.

Mangrum started the final round one stroke behind co-leaders Clayton Hieffner of Charlotte, N. C., and Pete Cooper of Ponte Verda, Fla. He was tied with Fred Haas of New Orleans.

He birdied three of the first (Continued on Page 7)
