periods without food or water. It will adapt itself to a variety of conditions.

In Washington, the birds prefer rather deep canyons with rocky hillsides and cliffs. Cheat grass is their chief winter diet. The Oregon game commission feels that the birds will fill a niche in eastern Oregon now occupied by no other game birds.

In size, the chukar is midway between a pheasant and a quail. It has shiny red legs, a red bill, and a greyish body, barred on the sides with black stripes. This partridge's flight is strong and swift, but it will usually lie after one good flight. The chukar runs and flushes at long distances.

On the domestic side, the male chukar is said to take one mate. Most game birds are polygamous. In its native habitat, the chukar partridge is found from Mongolia to the Himalaya mountains and south to Nepal.

old team mate, Stubby Overmire, scattered nine hits. Les Moss and Don Lenhardt hit St. Louis home runs. George Kell got three Tiger hits to pace the opening victory.

Indians Spanked
 At Cleveland, the Indians suffered a terrific blow in losing 2 to 1 and 6 to 5 decisions to the sixth place White Sox at Mary Ritter and Gus Zernial smashed homers to give Chicago its victories. Bill Wright outpitched Bob Lemon to win the opener, giving up five hits while Billy Pierce, though touched for homers by Al Rosen, Joe Gordon, and Thurman Tucker, won his ninth game in the afterpiece.

The Cardinals gained on the other idle contenders in the National league, moving to within seven games of the top by scoring their third straight one-run victory over the Red Sox, 2 to 0, and their 14th in 18 starts against Cincinnati this year.

Howie Pollet outpitched Herman Wehmeier and won his 12th game.

Ralph Kiner hit his 37th homer for the Pirates but there wasn't much else for them to shout about as the Cubs tripped them 2, 4 to 2 and 5 to 2 as Paul Minner and Frank Hiller won well-pitched games.

The Red Sox and Senators also were rained out in the American league.

Yesterday's star - Ed Ford, who beat the A's 5 to 2 in the second game of a Yankee sweep for his fourth straight triumph and a record of only one earned run in the last 26 1/2 innings.

Tag Application Blanks Available

Tag applications for two special big game seasons, a cow elk hunt in Union county and an antlerless deer hunt in Lake and Klamath counties, are now available at all Oregon state game commission license agencies.

The 250 cow elk tags to be issued will be valid from November 11 to 19 inclusive. The cow elk area is on the Starkey range between the upper Grande Ronde river and La Grande. Deadline for receipt of tag applications is 5 p.m., October 6. A drawing will be held October 10 if more than 250 applications are received.

Elk winter range in the Starkey area is in critical condition, and the concentrated animals made heavy use of grazing lands last spring, states Bob Mace, chief of big game for the game commission.

Plan Deer Harvest
 On October 18 and 19 hunters with special tags will have an opportunity to harvest 1,300 antlerless deer from the Interstate deer herd. This herd summers on the Fremont national forest west of Lakeview and winters on the Modoc national forest in northern California. Tag applications for this hunt will be accepted until 5 p.m., September 15. If more than 1,500 applications are received, a drawing will be held September 19.

A harvest of 3,000 antlerless deer from the herd was recommended by the interstate deer herd committee; half the deer to be taken by Oregon hunters and the other 1,500 by California hunters. The committee administers a cooperative study by California, Oregon and the U. S. forest service. Winter range carrying capacity determines the number of animals to be taken jointly each year by Oregon and California.

Tag fees for the two special big game hunts are $5. Applicants should not submit the fee until notified by the game commission that they have drawn a tag.

Merrins had to stave off a late drive by Brewer. The Mississippi player held a 3-up lead on the 33rd hole, but Brewer birdied the 34th and parred the 35th while Merrins bogied both holes. However, they halved the final hole to give Merrins the title.
