Rebekah Assembly President Makes Local Official Visit

Mrs. Helen R. Davis of Seaside, president of the Rebekah assembly of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Oregon, paid her official visit to the local Rebekah lodge at a special meeting Friday night in the IOOF hall.

The meeting followed the regular session of the ladies auxiliary, Patriarch Milhant, No. 19.

Other assembly officers present were: Mrs. Clay Osborn, marshal, who was accompanied by her husband; Mrs. Catherine Olson, chaplain; George Naderman, grand junior warden of the grand encampment, and Mrs. Naderman; Mrs. Clara Smith, past state association president; Mrs. Fred Gibson, past association treasurer; Miss Charlotte Easton, past association secretary; Mrs. C. E. Hein, local district deputy president, and Mrs. Ruby Hawkins, Portland, assembly trustee.

Visitors Present

Sixty-nine members were present for the program, which featured an address by the president and talks by other dignitaries, representing lodges in Klamath Falls, Springfield, Coburg, Prineville, Astoria, Seaside, Portland, Redmond, Salem and Denver, Colo.

Following the meeting, films of the crippled children's hospital in Eugene were shown, to call attention to the hospital benefit dance given by Alpha Theta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority.

C. W. Niswonger lent the projector, and Vern Hartford provided the films. Miss Helen Van Sickle and Miss Peggy Carrier were present from the sorority.

A tableau of the Bible story of Hannah and the angel, portrayed by Mrs. J. J. Berrigan and Mrs. Earl Weber, with narrative by Mrs. A. B. Burreigh, concluded the program.

Gift Is Presented
After the president's address she was presented a gift by Mrs. Howard Besson, noble grand, on behalf of the lodge.

Miss Kathryn L. Kelley read an original poem while the assembly president "picked" a bouquet of gladioli from a flower garden depicted by the lodge officers.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room, from tables decorated with crystal bowls of flowers and lighted tapers in crystal candle holders. Mrs. Robert Stout was chairman of the refreshment committee, which also included Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mrs. Earl Weber, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Mrs. G. A. Lemke, Mrs. Eva Winters, Mrs. Park Fleming, Mrs. D. N. Graham, Mrs. A. B. Burreigh and Miss Ada Newby.
