

Tito Will Help Allied Nations

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Nov. 9 (AP)—Premier Marshal Tito told his people today that Yugoslavia soon may contribute an armed forces unit to the United Nations for use against aggressors.

All newspapers splashed across their entire front pages this morning the text of an interview Tito gave three days ago to C. L. Sulzberger of the New York Times.

Observers placed the greatest importance on the Yugoslav communist party's decision to publish Tito's declarations.

The translation differed slightly from the version published in the New York Times. It quoted Tito as saying:

1. Yugoslavia will abide by whatever decision the UN makes in the event communist China is declared an aggressor.

2. "Our country is not very enthusiastic about symbolic help because it is a weak policy which has practically no effect," and Yugoslavia is considering contributing armed forces to the UN.

3. Yugoslavia "does not care what others will say if it is offered a good opportunity" to purchase or receive arms from any country, including the United States, if its independence is at stake.

MAC'S MAN FRIDAY—William J. Sebald, 48, of Baltimore, Md., chairman and U. S. member of the Allied Council for Japan, has been appointed permanent political adviser to Gen. Douglas MacArthur with the rank of ambassador. A former U. S. Navy captain, Sebald became MacArthur's temporary political adviser in the fall of 1947.

4. Yugoslavia realizes today that "the Marshal plan is not so catastrophic as it is presented by some, because we see it has helped France and Italy."

5. The Hungarian, Bulgarian and Romanian armies are being strengthened constantly, and "although the situation is not dangerous it may be so in the near future."

To Free Stepinac

6. Roman Catholic Archbishop Stepinac, now serving the fifth year of his 16-year sentence, will be freed soon, it is hoped.

7. "I think it will be possible within a short time, and I hope it will be soon, to have completely normal relations with Greece."

This further proof by Tito of his closer relationship with the west caused a sensation and rumors spread quickly, growing far out of proportion in their enthusiasm. It was believed that this was the reason the communist government chose to publish the text.

Particularly important for many Yugoslavs was Tito's disclosure that there soon will be another amnesty which will involve many Yugoslavs serving terms on charges of having been "spies or agents" of the western powers. They were sentenced before the break with Moscow in 1948.
