Couple Wed Saturday In Local Church Rites

First Presbyterian church was the scene of a lovely pre-holiday wedding Saturday, December 16, when Miss Nancy L. Lusk became the bride of William J. Sheffold. Rev. Allan B. Philip performed the double-ring candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in a setting of bronze and gold chrysanthemums. The bride, who was graduated from Bend high school with the class of 1948, was employed before her marriage at the

Cub Pack No. 27 Has Christmas Party Monday

Members of Cub Scout pack No. 27 held their annual Christmas party Monday evening at First Christian church. Each den presented a short Christmas skit, and the cubs gave their mothers the Christmas gifts they had made for them.

Awards were received by Lee Edmondson, Billy Edmondson, Gary Holland, Robert Ellis, Jimmy Winslow, Philip Marcoulier, Ray Brogan, Benny McCarty and Richie Olson.

The Webelos badge was awarded to Leroy Miller. Certificates of appreciation and corsages were presented to the following den mothers: Mrs. A. T. Sandwick, Mrs. E. L. Nielsen, Mrs. G. W. Ross, Mrs. Harvey Olson, Mrs. Howard Kopp, Mrs. W. E. Jossy and Mrs. Leslie Ross.

The pack presented a gift certificate for a poinsettia plant to their sponsor, First Christian church.

Mrs. Fred Jensen entertained with violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Caryl.

At the close of the evening, Santa Claus appeared to distribute Christmas gifts and candy.

Practical Nurses Have Yule Party

Members of the Central Oregon Practical Nurses association elected officers for the coming year, at a meeting held in connection with a Christmas party Wednesday evening at Sunset home. A pollock dinner and a gift exchange were highlights of the affair, and members of Miss Jean Webster's Camp Fire group sang carols.

Mrs. E. F. Berridge was re-elected president. Named to serve with her were the following: Vice-president, Mrs. Marjorie Hague, Prineville; secretary, Mrs. Everett Jones; treasurer, Mrs. Nellie Van Hise; directors, Mrs. Robert Knorr, Redmond; Mrs. Neil Wyse, Prineville; Mrs. H. W. Richards, Mrs. Mildred Johnson and Mrs. Marion Dubois.

Cubs Busy With Gift Projects

Cub scouts of Pack 21 are centering their December activities around the Christmas theme. Cubs of Den 1, under direction of Den mother Mrs. Everett Gettman, have done potato block printing of Christmas wrapping paper and made surprise packages of Christmas candy which they presented to their mothers.

Cubs under the direction of Mrs. Elmer Brown have made surprise candy packages for parents, sung carols, and helped to tell the Christmas story. They have also sprayed twigs of juniper with silver for the tops of their gift boxes and made place cards for Christmas dinner.

Theme for the January pack meeting will be "Rivers of America" and skits on that subject are being planned by both groups.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS "SING" IS SUCCESSFUL

More than 100 Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds gathered last night in front of the Santa Claus and reindeer decoration in the Drake park Christmas Fairyland, for a half-hour Christmas songfest.

Many spectators gathered in the park to hear the carols, and favorable comments were made.

Director for the singing was Miss Marilyn Taintor, music instructor in the Bend public schools.

Before the songfest, members of Miss Jean Webster's group accompanied by Miss Taintor, visited St. Charles hospital and Sunset home to sing carols. Later in the evening, they gathered at the home of Bobbie Lee Erickson, for hot chocolate.

After the singing in the park, several of the groups sang outside the homes of shut-ins.

HAPPY BLUE BIRDS By Janet Hackett

Happy Blue Birds met last week at the home of Mrs. Arthur Crawshaw. Under direction of the leader, Mrs. Harold Kelley, the girls made Santa Claus favors of apples, marshmallows and gumdrops.

Members present were Jean Lisenbury, Sherry Jorgenson, Sandra Thompson, Linda Davenport, Karen Baud, Barbara Lidel, Judy Crawshaw, Judy Harrison, Paty Fisher and Janet Hackett.

Sheffold-Lusk Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sheffold (Nancy Lusk) will be at home in Corvallis after the holidays.

Couple to Live In Eugene; Wed in Sisters

Sisters, Dec. 21 (Special) — The Sisters Church of Christ was the scene of an informal wedding Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17, when Ruth L. Mitrnick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Mitrnick of Garden Grove, Calif., became the bride of Jack E. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Nichols, of Turlock, Calif.

Rev. George M. Knox read the single-ring ceremony at 2 p.m. Before the exchange of vows he sang "O Promise Me," with Mrs. Knox at the piano.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of white frosted organdy, with accessories in soft rose. Her bouquet was of pink and rose desert flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Varco were the couple's attendants. After a short honeymoon in central Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Nichols will be at home in Eugene, where the bridegroom is a student at Northwest Christian college.

Relatives Present Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lula Jones, Edward Jones and Mrs. Ethel Cutler, Portland; Mrs. Eunice Fankhauser and Miss Louise Fankhauser, Newberg, and Frank Sheffold, Mitchell.

The couple left following the reception on a wedding trip to San Francisco. For traveling, the bride wore a gray striped suit with navy blue accessories. After the holidays, the couple will be at home at 616 S. 17th street, in Corvallis.

Faculty Planning RUHS Yule Party

Redmond, Dec. 21—The third annual Christmas party given by the Redmond high school faculty for the students will be tomorrow night, at the high school gymnasium.

"Christmas in Candy Land" has been chosen as the central theme, with candy canes, lollypops and gingerbread houses to be used as decorations, against a background of Christmas trees, holly and mistletoe.

Music will be provided for dancing, and a program is being arranged.

DATE SET FOR PARTY Because New Year's eve falls on Sunday, the New Year's party for members of the Bendonian dancing club and their friends will be held Saturday night, Dec. 30, at the Bendonian studio, 1001 E. Penn. Dancing will start at 9 p.m., with music by a three-piece orchestra. Noisemakers will be distributed at intermission, it was announced.

Vern Larson Agency. She is the daughter of H. B. Lusk of Portland, and made her home in Portland for a time following her graduation.

Sheffold, also a Bend high school graduate, is a junior at Oregon State college, where he is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

For the wedding, the bride wore a gown of white satin and lace, with lace-trimmed fingertip veil. She carried white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Large Wedding Party Miss Sue Lusk was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a gown of gold satin. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gary Vaughn, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Genny Armstrong, Mrs. James Dickman and Miss Carolyn Blakely, all in bronze satin. The attendants carried nosegays of bronze and gold chrysanthemums and wore matching crowns trimmed with seed pearls.

Darlene and Gloria Sheffold, sisters of the bridegroom, were flower girls, wearing gold dresses styled like those of the bridesmaids.

Groomsmen were fraternity brothers of the bridegroom at Oregon State college. Gene Morrow was best man, and ushers were Yale Rolff, Wes Hogland, Dwight Quisenberry and Vern Clark.

Mrs. Bush At Organs Mrs. Clatence Bush was at the organ, and Mrs. Howard M. Nicholson sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. T. D. Carlson cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. George Brick, Bend, and Mrs. Mel Walsh, Lakeview, acted as the bridegroom, poured. Miss Evelyn Jones, Portland, also an aunt of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book and gifts. Mrs. Vern Clark served the punch.

The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua formal, with pink accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

Relatives Present Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Lula Jones, Edward Jones and Mrs. Ethel Cutler, Portland; Mrs. Eunice Fankhauser and Miss Louise Fankhauser, Newberg, and Frank Sheffold, Mitchell.

The couple left following the reception on a wedding trip to San Francisco. For traveling, the bride wore a gray striped suit with navy blue accessories. After the holidays, the couple will be at home at 616 S. 17th street, in Corvallis.

HILARITY CLUB ELECTS

Mrs. Robert Lyons was named president of the Hilarity club for the coming year, at a brief meeting held Tuesday evening in connection with a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Earl Gregg. Elected to serve with her was Mrs. Les Chapman, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. A. M. Hammer is retiring president.

The evening's activities included group caroling and games, and an exchange of Christmas gifts, revealing secret sisters.

TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Loy will hold open house Friday evening at their home at 644 Harriman, in observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Friends are being invited to call between the hours of 8:30 and 10:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy have been Bend residents for more than 20 years. They were married Dec. 22, 1925, in Crescent City, Calif.
