Many Attend PTA Program In Redmond

Redmond, April 21 — An audience of about 600 was on hand Thursday evening at the John Tuck gym to witness an outstanding program put on by Edwin Brown school second graders. The occasion marked the regular Parent Teacher meeting, but after a brief meeting and group singing led by Rev. D. L. Penhollow, the program was turned over to the youngsters and their teachers.

Marie Cowling opened the program by reciting "My Flag" and this was followed by a baton twirling routine led by Niki Rader.

Tom Houston and Judy Thompson, in costume, sang a sailor and nurse song, and Mary Fisk played two piano selections. A group of Mrs. Clara Stacey's second graders acted the story of "The Little Engine."

Several young cowboys, dressed in typical western attire, were outstanding in their rendition of "Yippee-ki-yi" and "I'm Going To Leave Old Texas Now."

With Miss Verda Coffman as caller, 56 second graders in seven squares demonstrated a square dance which they performed in perfect unison.

Principal Hugh Hartman commended the teachers for training the children for the excellent program. Second grade teachers responsible for the program are Mrs. Clara Bednarek, Mrs. Margaret Thompson, Mrs. Clara Stacey and Miss Vera Coffman.

M. A. Lynch spoke briefly on the hospital election. A final entertainment feature of the evening was a folk dance demonstration put on by Leonard Gorton and his family.

Refreshments were served by the mothers of second grade children. Mrs. Clara Bednarek's second grade won the room plaque with 50 parents present at the meeting.

The last meeting of the year is scheduled for the evening of May 17. New officers will be installed at this meeting and reports of the state convention will be made.
