

Budget Balance Held Unlikely

Washington, July 21 (AP)—The senate's top Republican leaders today blasted hopes that the budget can be balanced without new taxes.

Senators Eugene D. Millikin, R., Colo., chairman of the Republican conference, and Robert A. Taft, R., Ohio, chairman of the Republican policy committee, said the domestic, military and foreign budgets cannot be cut enough to balance the budget.

Both senators spoke at a meeting of the senate finance committee where testimony was taken on the administration's request for a $10 billion tax hike. The committee heard a spokesman for the U. S. chamber of commerce testify that no tax increases are needed.

"There will be a tax bill this year," Millikin said.

He said, however, that it might not be necessary to raise rates by $7.5 billion as voted by the house.

Outlook Gloomy
Millikin said the nation's economic outlook is "very gloomy." But he said that the United States should operate "on the pay-as-we-go basis as long as we can."

The Colorado Republican scolded hopes that congress can chop from $7 to $10 billion off President Truman's budget requests.

"It just isn't going to happen," he said, although some money might be saved on the foreign aid program.

Millikin opposed waiting until next year before slapping on new taxes.

Taft doubted whether more than $500,000,000 could be cut out of the $8.5 billion foreign aid program.

The U. S. chamber of commerce, however, urged the senators to "stop and look" and balance the budget without new taxes now.

At the same time, the council of state chambers of commerce called the house-approved tax bill a "monstrosity" which is "the worst of its kind in the history of the country." This organization urged the senate finance committee to junk the bill and make a fresh start.

Like other business groups, both organizations wanted congress to enact a federal sales tax instead of following the house plan for big increases in personal and corporation income taxes.

Robbery Attempt At Prineville Yields No Loot

Prineville, July 23 (AP)—A burglar, said by officers to be a "rank amateur," attempted to break into the safe at Erickson's department store Saturday night, apparently after hiding in the store before closing time.

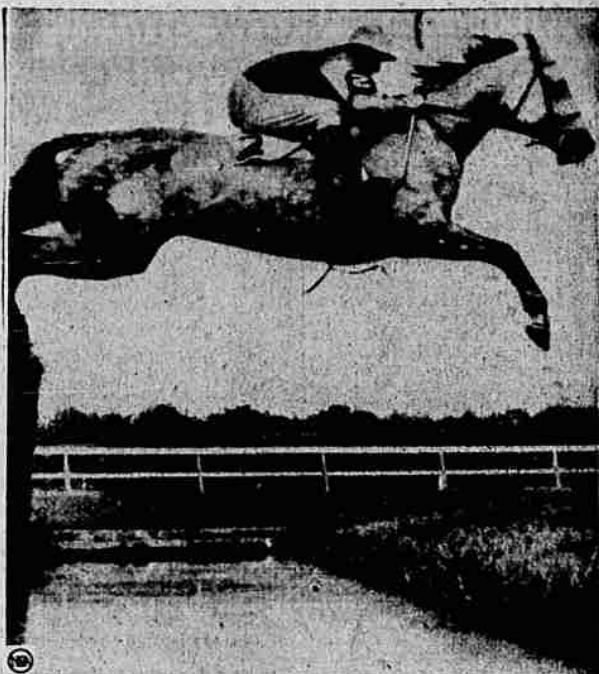

The unsuccessful robber removed hinges from the door of the safe, but jimmied dials on the lock and was unable to remove the door, officers reported. It is believed that money left in the safe Saturday is intact inside, and it will be necessary to drill the safe, in order to remove the contents.

Straw in front of the safe were a screwdriver, an iron shoe last, a hammer and an iron bar. Officers were taking fingerprints this morning. The burglar apparently dispaired of getting into the safe, and left by unlatching a night lock on a rear door.

Officers put the incident in a different class than the unsolved professional robbery of Earl's super market in Madras about two months ago. The robber moved the safe by hand truck to a vegetable room in the back of the store, and set up a dummy safe in the front of the building, under a light, where the safe was regularly kept.

The loot was $1600, and the loss has been paid by an insurance company.

Three Missing Anglers Hunted

Portland, July 23 (AP)—A search party was organized today to look for three persons reported lost while returning from a fishing trip to Roaring river in the Cascades near Squaw mountain southeast of Estacada.

Those reported missing were Max Brewer, 43, Beaverton; his daughter, Mrs. Carol Shampine, Portland, and an unidentified 16-year-old boy.

The three were reported missing when they failed to return to Squaw mountain forest camp by last midnight from their fishing trip.

Leonard Fruck, who lives near Beaverton, and his son Harry, 6, accompanied Brewer, his daughter and the youth on the fishing trip but returned to the forest camp where Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Fruck were waiting. Fruck said the other three were on the trail behind him and his son.

When they failed to appear by midnight, Mrs. Brewer reported them missing to a forest guard at the forest camp.

The first celebration of the Declaration of Independence was not held on July 4. It was held on July 8, 1776—four days after congress officially adopted the historic document.

WHO GETS PAID?
Geo. N. Taylor
Down in your heart, you believe in Christ as having died for your sins. Then you have a Saviour and eternal life. But you never yielded yourself over to Him to be His servant. You have Him as Saviour but He has not you as servant. As you go ahead in your own strength, do your good works give glory to God? At the end will they not be as ashes? See 1st Corinthians 8:10-15.

Let Christ take over whether you scrub floors, raise kiddies, run a ranch or farm, teach S. S. or day school or do common or skilled labor or are in professional life. Yes, die to self and let Christ take over. Let Him be your strength as you go on, not for self but for the glory of God. Then your reward will be as gold, silver and precious stones. Must you go out empty-handed or will you let Christ power you into eternal reward. 1st Cor. 3:10-15.

Joe Kirkwood Wins Tournament

Milwaukee, July 23 (AP)—Joe Kirkwood, Jr., the Joe Palooka of the movies, shot up among the big-name pros today with the championship in the $28,000 blue ribbon open golf tournament.

The husky, 30-year-old blond from Hollywood blasted a seven-under-par 64 yesterday to beat out Sam Snead by two strokes in a fighting duel for the third biggest prize of the year.

Kirkwood rolled in from the four-day, 72-hole tourney in 72-69-271 to collect $2,750. His final round 64 tied the course record over North Hills Country club.

The grinning champ accepted the cash and silver trophy with the remark that "I'm glad to win for all my friends," and left for northern Wisconsin to go fishing.

It was his first major victory of the year and the second in his 11-year pro career. His other big win was the Philadelphia Inquirer open in 1949.

Big Jim Ferrier of San Francisco and power-hitter Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago tied for third at 274 and pocketed $1,475 each.

Bend Moose Win From Burns, Take Over Top Position

The Bend Moose baseball team climbed into first place in Central Oregon league standing Sunday with a stunning 8-0 win over the Burns town team in a contest played at Burns.

The contest was highlighted by a brilliant three-hit pitching performance by Player-Manager Jim Farmer. The win gives Bend a record of seven wins and two losses for the season. Lakeview trails the leaders with a record of six wins and two losses.

Bend drew first blood of the game in the third inning by scoring two runs on Center fielder George Walker's home run. The contest then went scoreless until the sixth inning, when the locals scored once more. They pushed two across in the seventh and three in the eighth to mark up the final tally.

The Moose socked 12 hits past Erickson, who relieved Kessel on the mound for Burns in the second inning. Farmer hurled the entire game for Bend, giving up one hit each in the second, fifth, and eighth innings.

Rivera Bought By Chicago Team

Chicago, July 23 (AP)—General manager Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox announced today that the team has executed its option to buy outfielder Jim Rivera from Seattle of the Pacific coast league.

Lane also announced the trade of catcher Joe Erazo to Seattle for catcher Bud Sheely.

Sheely, who was batting .339 with Seattle, was expected to report to the White Sox tomorrow in Boston.

Rivera probably will not report until the Pacific coast league season has been completed. He ranks second in batting in the league with .343 and second in stolen bases with 27.

DELAY RECOMMENDED
Portland, July 23 (AP)—The state board of higher education's finance committee today recommended a further delay in salvaging of Camp Adair hospital property near Corvallis until Aug. 1.

The property belongs to Oregon State college.

The committee took its action to permit federal agencies "an opportunity to present a program for its (Camp Adair's) utilization."

IN HALL OF FAME
Cooperstown, N. Y.—Baseball's hall of fame officially adds two new tenants today in Jimmy Foxx and Mel Ott.

The two famous home run sluggers will formally gain entrance to the hall when plaques paying tribute to their most famous deeds, are dedicated in the presence of baseball's highest officials.

Following the dedication, the Brooklyn Dodgers will play the Philadelphia Athletics in the annual hall of fame exhibition game.

MOTORIST ARRESTED
Elmer R. Carr, 41, California, was arrested by city police yesterday on a charge of violating the basic speed rule. According to arresting officers, Carr exceeded 40 miles an hour in a 25 mile an hour zone. He was released after posting $10 bail.

ON THE SANDS OF TIME—Recently discovered in the rocky hill country along the Guadalupe River near Kerrville, Tex., were huge dinosaur tracks like that pictured above, dwarfing a man's hand. It was made, some millions of years ago, by a monster called Tyrannosaurus Rex, fiercest and most terrible of the prehistoric animals. From 40 to 50 feet long and 18 feet high, it was a carnivorous killer with a melon-shaped head that was mostly mouth and sharp teeth. As seen in sketch, below, it walked erect, supported by its huge alligator-like tail and used its comparatively small and weak forelegs for grasping its prey.
