Region Camp Fire Supervisor To Visit in County Next Week

Miss Nora Garvin, region No. 6 supervisor for Camp Fire Girls, Inc., will arrive in Bend Tuesday, Feb. 19, for a three-day visit with the organizations in Deschutes county, according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Joe Elder, executive director.

Miss Garvin, whose Camp Fire territory includes Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana, will meet with the adult members in the county during her visit to assist them with their work and the problems in the program. Tuesday and Thursday Miss Garvin will meet with the workers in Bend and Wednesday she will spend the day in Redmond.

Miss Garvin assumed responsibilities in region 6 in September of 1950 after serving with the national headquarters in New York City as assistant director of the department of field operations for four years. Prior to that time she was traveling field secretary for six years in most sections of the United States and director for three years in Arizona, California and Nevada. Previously, Miss Garvin was executive director in Spokane and camp director at Swoyolokan. She was also executive director in Yakima, Wash., and director of Camp Roganunda.

Schedule Outlined
Tuesday Miss Garvin will spend the day in the Camp Fire office in Bend. In the evening there will be a "dessert" at 7 p.m. in the Pilot Butte Inn Blue Room for all Blue Bird leaders, Camp Fire guardians, sponsors and prospective leaders in Bend and Gilchrist. Reservations for this meeting should be made with Mrs. Elder not later than Monday evening. Special projects, program and problems pertaining to group activities will be discussed by Miss Garvin at the evening session.

Wednesday Miss Garvin and Mrs. Elder will be in Redmond. They will meet with local officers, council committee members and members of the leaders' and sponsors' association. A one o'clock luncheon and afternoon meeting for all leaders and sponsors will be held at Mary's Drive-In. Reservations for this luncheon should be made with Mrs. Forrest Yeoman.

Thursday Miss Garvin will meet with the 1952 county council president and board, chairman of council committees and their committee members. She will be in the Camp Fire office all day Thursday.

Dance to Follow Basketball Game

Bend High School students and their friends, and visiting students who will be here from Lakeview, have been invited to attend a dance Friday night in the Pilot Butte Inn Blue Room, as guests of the Bend Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The party will be informal, and dancing will start at 9 p.m., following the Bend-Lakeview basketball game. Music will be by Frank Cole's orchestra. Soft drinks will be served.

Steve Eller is general chairman of the Jaycee committee in charge, assisted by Charles Keith, Women of the Jaycee Auxiliary decorated the ballroom in the Valentine theme, with Mrs. Eller and Mrs. D. E. Stacy in charge.

Eagles to Receive Polio Donations

The Bend Eagles will hold a free dance for the public at their new lounge home on Greenwood Avenue Friday evening, according to E. C. Eastman, chairman of the Eagles' March of Dimes committee.

The Eagles have pledged $500 to the polio fund, and donations will be received that night following a floor show featuring the Bordon Family of Prineville. It was announced. The lodge received $206 from a polio promotion two weeks ago, and it is anticipated that the amount necessary to complete the quota will be received Friday night, Eastman said.

Dancing will start at 9:30 p.m.

CARD PARTY SATURDAY

Bridge, pinochle and canasta will be played at a public card party to be held Saturday night, Feb. 16, at the Library Auditorium. The Eastern Star Extension Unit will sponsor the party as a benefit for 4-H Club activities.

Prizes will be given, and refreshments will be served. It was announced by Mrs. Lyle Carrington, general chairman. Tickets are being sold by members of the sponsoring group, and will also be available at the door.

Hobby Show Dates Set as March 8, 9

The annual hobby and handicraft show sponsored by the Reid-Thompson PTA and the City Recreation Department will be held March 8 and 9 in Thompson School Auditorium, officers of the PTA announced today.

Mrs. Lloyd Abrams is general chairman in charge of arrangements, and other chairmen, announced at the PTA meeting Monday night, are as follows: Mrs. Stanley Hultberg, hobbies and handicrafts; Mrs. Don Newman, telephone; Mrs. M. O. Young and Mrs. F. T. Younker, silver tea; R. E. Spani, Harvey Brinson and W. D. Mayer, tables; Mrs. Kenneth Gottchalk, food sale; Mrs. William Mayer, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. George Rayercraft, setting up tables.

In connection with the hobby show, a food sale will be held in the auditorium lobby March 8, and a silver tea will be held both afternoons.

Anyone wishing to exhibit a hobby or handicraft will be welcome to participate, it was stressed by those in charge.

Founders Recognized
Founder's Day was observed, open house was held and plans were made for coming events, at the Monday meeting.

Members expressed a desire to sponsor a program for the benefit of the children, and upon the recommendation of Albert W. Nelson, principal, the group decided to finance a train trip to Redmond for the third and fourth grades.

Mrs. Hugh Fountain reported that the sale of saving stamps, held each Thursday morning in the lobbies of the schools, has been enthusiastically received by the children.

W. E. Piland gave a short talk on the background of the national Parent-Teachers Association and its purposes, in commemoration of Founders' Day. Mrs. Julius Steen spoke on the history and accomplishments of the state PTA, and Mrs. Harvey Brinson gave the background of the Reid-Thompson PTA, which was founded four years ago, with A. W. Westfall as the first president.

Open House Held
Open house was the highlight of the evening, and the parents visited the various rooms, where pupils' work was on display. At the close of the evening a decorated cake, with four candles commemorating Founders' Day, was cut and served with coffee. Mothers of pupils is Miss Irma Klinghammer's room were hostesses.

Velma Boone's room won the room count. Lloyd Abrams reported on progress in the fluoridation program.
