Spencer-Dalton Rites Held Valentine's Day at Church

The traditional day of hearts and flowers was the wedding day of Ba Bette Jean Dalton, who became the bride of Raymond Glenn Spencer on February 14 at First Lutheran Church. Rev. Stanley G. Gunsten read the ceremony at 1 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Dalton, 820 Staats street, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer of 1362 Cleveland.

AAUW Plans Meeting 23rd

Mrs. Robert E. Van Bruggen of Portland will be guest speaker at a luncheon meeting of the Bend branch of American Association of University Women, Saturday, Feb. 23, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Niskanen, 525 Broadway.

Mrs. Van Bruggen was the recipient of the 1949-50 AAUW fellowship for the state of Oregon, and did research in Mexico. At the luncheon Saturday, she will speak on the recent developments in Mexican-American economic relations.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Charles Overbay, Mrs. Merville Moore, Mrs. Harold Carlisle, Mrs. T. L. Boyer, Mrs. Carl A. Johnson and Miss Sylvia Lee. A short business meeting will be held, according to the president, Mrs. Overbay, who requested that members who wish to bring guests notify her not later than Friday.

4-H Club News

TUMALO BEEF CLUB

By Linus Dalheim
At their last meeting, members of the Tumalo 4-H Beef Club answered roll call with one-minute talks on their beef projects.

Officers of the club are John Brice, president; Jimmie Jones, vice-president; and Linus Dalheim, secretary. Meetings are held each second Saturday, at the Tumalo Grange Hall.

The club was organized last November, with J. L. Jones as leader.

TUMALO DAIRY CLUB

By Shirley Frakes
The Tumalo Dairy Club will hold its next meeting, March 8, at the last meeting, held Feb. 9, members filled out report cards and participated in a cattle judging contest, using pictures from a magazine brought by Jack Jones, leader.

Victor Parkhurst, president, conducted the meeting, and Shirley Frakes, secretary, took the minutes and called roll. James Dahlheim, the vice-president, led the flag salute and 4-H club pledge.

BLUE RIBBON COOKS

The Blue Ribbon 4-H Cooking Club met Feb. 15 at the home of Willa Jean Fix, 1106 E. 6th. The hostess and Nadine Oldaker demonstrated the preparation of fruit and vegetable salads.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 29, at the home of Janice and Robert Fix. Robert Fix and John Prichard will give a demonstration on the "Starch Cousins."

YOUNG FARMERS

By Janice Fix
The Young Farmers 4-H Garden Club and the Young Farmers Beef, Swine and Crops club met Sunday evening, Feb. 17, at the home of Mrs. Walter Prichard.

The garden club discussed the grading of potatoes and their 4-H garden plans. The beef club discussed the contest sponsored by the Hoard's Dairyman's Association.

After the meetings, Tommy and Terry Tye served refreshments. In ancient China, where peaches were probably first grown, they were considered symbolic of long life and immortality.

Vows Said in Church Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Glenn Spencer (Ba Bette Dalton) will make their home in Coos Bay.

Toastmistress Club Contest Held Monday Evening

Mrs. W. C. Coyner and Mrs. B. W. Seeley tied for first place in the speech contest of the Bend Toastmistress Club, Monday evening at the Pilot Butte Inn. Mrs. Coyner's topic was "Ah! Tempo!" and Mrs. Seeley spoke on "Power."

Mrs. J. E. West, speaking on "The Art of Enjoying Poetry," was runner-up. Other contestants were Mrs. Keats Oliver, "A Public Trust," and Mrs. W. E. Wierprecht, "Do You Care?"

Judges for the contest were Kessler Cannon of radio station KBND, and Bertha Deaton and Mrs. Rolfe Ephland of Redmond. Mrs. Frank G. Riehoff of Redmond and Mrs. Ralph Waller and Mrs. J. A. Dudley of the local club were tellers.

Mrs. Elsie Dunn was toastmistress, and Mrs. E. B. Hogan gave the invocation and had charge of table topics. Mrs. Walter Emard and Mrs. Frank H. Loggan were timekeepers. Mrs. Don Midland was received as a new member. Guests, in addition to those who acted as officials, were as follows: Mrs. M. F. Lyons and Mrs. P. M. Madden of Bend; Catherine Elliott, Ona Alken, Ruth Simmons, Mary Bradley and Laura Hepper, all Redmond.

Grand Officer Conducts School

REDMOND, Feb. 21—Mrs. Louise Irving of Madras, associate grand conductress of Oregon, held a school of instruction for the Redmond Eastern Star chapter Monday evening at the Townsend Hall. An addenda was put on by the courtesy girls and Mrs. Irving was presented with a gift.

In deference to Mrs. Irving's former profession as school teacher, the decoration motif for the dinner which preceded the meeting carried out a school house theme.

Triple Link Club will hold a public card party Friday, Feb. 22, at 2 p.m. at the IOOF Hall. Prizes will be given for scoring, and refreshments will be served.

Club to Hold Dinner-Dance

An evening of dancing, preceded by dinner, is in store for members of the Bend Golf Club, Saturday night, Feb. 23. The cocktail hour will be from 7 to 8 p.m., with dinner to be served from 8 to 9:30. Dancing will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Mahoney are chairmen of the host committee, which also includes the following: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Cuthbertson, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Munkers, Mr. and Mrs. George Silkworth, Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Weigand, Mr. and Mrs. Sig Shavlan, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prince Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Connie Mahoney, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Innes, Mr. and Mrs. Roderick O'Hearn, Mr. and Mrs. Neil T. Agan and Mrs. F. S. McGarvey.

LITERARY CLUB MEETS

REDMOND, Feb. 21—Mrs. Hugh Amsherry was hostess for Juniper Literary club last week. Mrs. Sam Johnson discussed American foreign policy, embracing particularly a review of the book, "Master Plan, U. S. A." by John Fisher.

Mrs. Ray Wise was welcomed as a member. Mrs. Ray Rogers will have the program at the next meeting, to be held Feb. 27 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Helm.

Degree of Honor will hold a benefit card party Tuesday, Feb. 26, at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, with the public invited to attend. Pinochle will be played, and there will be prizes and refreshments.

Council Planning Annual Activities

REDMOND, Feb. 21—The Madras Methodist Youth Fellowship was host group Sunday for a rally of the Central Oregon Council. Young people from churches in Bend, Madras, Prineville and Redmond attended the meeting which was presided over by Bob Clark of Redmond, president.

In making plans for the future the Council voted to sponsor two regular inter-church events each year. A snow-retreat during Christmas vacation is to be held at Suttle Lake and a mid-summer vesper service and picnic at Scout Lake was planned.

A spring banquet in Prineville is planned for the latter part of April. Theme for the banquet will be youth's opportunity in bringing other young people into their local church life. The council is to hold monthly meetings to work out details of these plans.

At the Sunday meeting games and group singing were led by Graceline Carter and Shirley Henke of Madras. Other members of the Madras Methodist church group served refreshments. Rev. Armon Lathrop of Madras concluded the worship service with a chalk drawing about the hymn, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning." A motion picture, "What Happened to JoJo" climaxed the evening's program.
