Astoria Station Joins State Group

ASTORIA, March 21 (UP) — Radio station KVAS, which transmitted a "bootleg" broadcast of the state class 'B' high school basketball tournament last week, has joined the Oregon Broadcasters association, station manager L. E. Parsons announced Friday.

Broadcast of the 'B' tournament had been banned by the Oregon School Activities association which said an experiment was being conducted to see if it would improve attendance.

The Broadcasters association had said that KVAS might be denied access to the association-controlled class 'A' tourney broadcasts. However, after the station joined the association it was hooked up to the broadcasts from Eugene.

Sports Parade

By Oscar Fraley
(United Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, March 21, (AP)—Hollywood was making a big fuss Thursday about handing out its Oscars, an unfortunate practice inaugurated by my family three generations ago, and comparative awards in sports prove that the movie capital still is in the Pacific Coast League.

Our muscular thespians do not need gold statuettes. Ordinarily those who win an Oscar's Oscar are busts in themselves.

Take our actor of the year—Rex Layne, star of the heavyweight drama "The New Dempsey." Imagine the dramatic technique necessary to portray a fighter like the Manassa Mauler from Colorado. Layne proved what an acting job he did in subsequent knockouts suffered at the hands of Rocky Marciano, Ezzard Charles and somebody named Willie James. The Barrymore from Utah proved that more than a boundary line separates those two states.

Top actress was, of course, Babe Didrikson Zaharias, star of the epic "Mrs. Golf and A Bunch of Lady Hackers." So superb was her performance as a possible victim that the rest of the gals kept showing up at the various tournaments.

Matching Hollywood, award for award goes like this:

Best Story — "Thomson Homer Wins Pennant for Giants." Hollywood in its most fantastic moments couldn't come off with a script like that final playoff game, last inning, two out, two on, trailing 4 to 2 — and boom!

Direction — Leo Durocher, who waved the megaphone over that baseball fantasy.

Supporting Actor — Ray Robinson, regarded as the greatest carrier since Typhoid Mary.

Supporting Actress — Gussie Moran, for her portrayal of a tennis professional in her series with Pauline Betz.

SWIMMERS TO COMPETE

SEATTLE, March 21 (UP)—Seventy-five northwest swimmers will compete in sectional tryouts for Olympic team berths Saturday afternoon at the University of Washington pool.

The first three finishers in all events will qualify for the national games finals scheduled in July.

Hoppe, Bozeman Tied for Lead

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21 (AP)—Willie Hoppe, of Drexel Hill, Pa., and Jay Bozeman, Vallejo, Calif., were tied Friday for the top spot in the world's three cushion billiard championship tournament.

Each had a record of six wins and two losses as the tourney entered its final stages.

Hoppe moved into the tie after defeating Art Rubin, Brooklyn, 50-4, in a tough 53-inning match Thursday night.

Earlier in the day, Joe Chamaco, Mexico City, won from Joe Procita, Los Angeles, 50-46, in 57 frames.

Hoppe, the defending champion, had to stave off Rubin's challenge throughout the close contest. He had a high run of five while Rubin had a high run of six. The game was tied 46-46 in the 52nd inning.

Chamaco's victory over Procita marked his last appearance in the tournament and gave him a final record of three wins and six losses.

Chamaco had a high run of six while Procita turned in a high run of five.

Wallick Beats Nicolini Here

Leo Wallick lived up to his reputation of being a rough customer when he defeated Gino Nicolini in the main event of the wrestling card last night. Nicolini won the first fall with a crucifix pin hold after 21 minutes, while Wallick came back with his deadly piledriver for the second fall. Nicolini was still almost out on his feet when they entered the ring for the third and final fall and Wallick had little difficulty in subduing the aggressive young Italian.

George Dusette continued his winning streak by defeating Cowboy Carlson in the semi-final. Dusette won the only fall of the match with his pet full nelson.

Danno McDonald won the opener from Tor Yamato, judo expert, on a disqualification when Yamato continued to choke Danno in the ropes after being repeatedly warned by the referee.

Pirates Defeat Rainiers 8 to 3

PALM SPRINGS, March 21 (AP)—The downcast Seattle Rainiers buckle down to routine training Friday following their 8 to 3 beating by the Pittsburgh Pirates "B" team at San Bernardino.

The Rainiers looked sloppy in the contest as the Cubs capitulated on the wildness of Jim Davis and the errors of his teammates to take a 6 to 0 lead in five innings.

BEAVERS WIN

ONTARIO, March 21 (UP)—San Diego's Padres nursed their pride Friday, badly battered by a 5 to 0 blank at the bats of the Portland Beavers, who made the unusual total of 22 assists in the exhibition game. Beaver pitchers Marino Piretti and Bob Drilling held the Padres to two hits.

PLAYER OPTIONED

LOS ANGELES, March 21 (AP)—First-baseman Bob Boyd was optioned by the Chicago White Sox to Seattle in the Pacific Coast league Friday. The 25-year-old left-handed hitter batted .342 and stole 37 bases for Sacramento in the PCL last season.

Hobson Favors Longer Distance

PORTLAND, March 21 (AP)—Yale basketball coach Howard Hobson said Friday he will advocate boosting the width of the free throw lane to 12 feet when hoop officials meet in Seattle next Wednesday and Thursday.

The former University of Oregon coach said the 12-foot lane would be the answer to critics who charge that present-day basketball is dominnted by sky - scraping players. He also said he would recommend to the basketball coaches' conference that two free throws be awarded on all defensive fouls, without the opposition waiving the second shot. Hobson, who is chairman of the U. S. Olympic games basketball committee, said the rule would make fouling unprofitable.

Hobson stopped in Portland on his way to Corvallis for the western NCAA regional playoffs.

GROWTH NOTED

MADRAS, March 21—Joe Miller, who was in Madras in 1937 with the state highway department has arrived here as a member of the staff of the Portland General Electric Co. Miller is making maps of the site of the proposed Pelton dam on the Deschutes river. "Madras is a different town from that of 1937," said Miller. "Then the population did not exceed 250. Today it has grown sevenfold."

ACTION PLANNED

MIAMI, March 21 (UP)—The recently-named head of the National Water Control Board warned industry Friday that water pollution "will not be tolerated."

Carl Shoemaker, speaking here to the 16th annual National Wildlife Federation, said the board plans "aggressive action" in the matter.

TO READ A GOOD BOOK
. . . is one of the finest forms of relaxation known to modern man.
To live in your mind the lives of men of fact and fiction, to enjoy the beauty of well-written prose, the suspense of a breath-taking thriller . . . to some of us, it is hard to enjoy this. We're tired, hard working all day the grinding routine . . . our eyes want to close . . . they want to rest.
If your eyes are tired . . . if they make you feel the strain of daily work . . . give them the care which they deserve.
Come in and let us see if we can help you to enjoy the beauty which life has to offer.
