

Easter Revival Service Planned

Under the leadership of Rev. Richard DeVilliers of Twin Falls, Ida., a week of pre-Easter revival services will begin Sunday at First Christian Church. The visiting evangelist will speak on "The World's Greatest Revival" following the Bible School, which has set an attendance goal of 300. At 7:30 p. m., he will give his famous "chart" sermon on "The Gospel of Christ."

Special evening services will be held next week Monday through Friday at 7:30, as follows: Monday, Bible School night, "In the Valley of Decision"; Tuesday, family night, "The Big Fisherman"; Wednesday, women's night, "Three Philosophies of Life"; Thursday, men's night, "Men Who March With God"; Friday, youth night, "Journey of Life."

The booster band of boys and girls through the eighth grade will meet at 4 p. m. each day for choruses, Bible drills, magic and specialities, under the direction of Mrs. William Henry Hart.

This week, Rev. DeVilliers conducted a four-day visitation program which closed Thursday night.

At the Sunday and evening services next week there will be special music, with youth and adult choirs under direction of Earl Roarig.

Boys Flee From Training School

SALEM, March 21 (AP) — State police organized a statewide search Friday for five boys who escaped from the state school for boys at Woodburn Thursday night.

Seven boys broke away from a line of lads returning to their quarters from the gymnasium and ran across the school grounds to disappear in the dark.

Within an hour two of the youngsters were caught.
