In the language of flowers

Of course flowers themselves don't really talk, but a flower or combination of them does carry certain meanings. Just as daisies imply innocence, and pansies signify thought, so the waterlily indicates purity of heart.
Pure, lovely, and fragrant, the waterlily floats gently on the water's surface. Yet its roots plunge deep into rich soil beneath it, and it thrives only if it is fed well and constantly.
In return it gives to us not only its exotic fragrance and beauty, but food—for nestled among its stamens is a veritable treasure of small sacks of nectar sought eagerly by the bees.
Your own spiritual life is like this waterlily. Its roots must sink deep and be nourished frequently by worship in church. (That's why each seventh day was set aside for rest and worship.)
Then, like this delicate blossom, your life will be a thing of value and beauty to be shared with others.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
