American Team Trailing Russia In Olympic Bid

HELSINKI, July 21 (AP)—The United States, trailing Russia by eight points in the unofficial team standings, got off to a good start on the third day of the Olympic Games Monday by qualifying its three entries for the shot put finals in rain-soaked Olympic Stadium.

Darrow Hooper, Fort Worth, Tex.; Parry O'Brien, Santa Monica, Calif., and world record holder Jim Fuchs, New York, all exceeded the qualifying distance of 14.60 meters (about 47 feet, 10.8 inches) without even taking off their sweat suits.

O'Brien's qualifying distance of 52 feet, 8 inches was the best performance of the Americans, who are given a good chance of sweeping the first three places in the shot put. Hooper threw the iron ball 50 feet, 5.5 inches and Fuchs' heave measured 50 feet, 2 inches.

An early morning downpour flooded the stadium track and made a bog of the jumping pits. Athletes feared the wet footing conditions might seriously affect their performances in today's scheduled broad jump, pole vault and shot put events.

Russia led in the unofficial team standings with 23 points, while the U. S. was second with 15.

Russia entered only two men in the shot put and both qualified easily. Otto Grigalka hit 52 feet 2 inches on his first try and Georgii Federov exceeded 49 feet.

Shot put trials were scheduled for this afternoon.

At the nearby Mellihatt course, the second day's rowing competition began.

Seventh Crew
America got its seventh crew into the semi-finals of the various rowing events when the coxless pair from Rutgers University won the second heat by more than 30 yards over Poland and the Saar. The U. S. pair—Charles P. Logg Jr. at bow, and Thomas Price at stroke—lost its heat Sunday after a minor collision with a Belgian pair.

The Americans had little trouble pulling away to an easy victory, covering the 2,000-meter course (1.24 miles) in seven minutes, 28.4 seconds.

After the coxless pairs heats, the U. S. and Belgium reached the semi-finals, while the Soviet Union, Italy, Finland, Germany, Poland and the Saar were eliminated.

Three Americans, led by Meredith Gourline, Cornell, were among five athletes who qualified in the first series of the broad jump trials. Gerry Biffle of the U. S. Army and favored George Brown of Los Angeles also qualified for the afternoon finals.

Marks Reported
Gourline leaped 741 centimeters (24 feet, 3 1/2 inches); Biffle's jump was 24 feet, 2 1/2 inches, while Brown jumped 24 feet, 3/4 inch.

In the free-style wrestling competition at Messuhalli, Tom Evans of Oklahoma threw Jack Vard of Ireland after seven minutes and 29 seconds of their lightweight match. Bill Borders of Oklahoma lost a decision, however, to Mohamed Yaghoobi of Iran, three points to none, in the bantamweight class.

The Russians, mystery of the games, made an auspicious debut from behind the Iron Curtain by winning two gold medals in the opening day of competition Sunday and taking first place among the nations with 23 points to 15 for the United States.

One First Place
The Yanks, who gained 1 first place on opening day as Walt Davis of the Texas Aggies captured the high jump with a new record, hoped to come roaring back today in the shot put, the broad jump, the 100-meter dash, and the 400-meter hurdles. One other final event was scheduled today, the 50-kilometer walk, but U. S. hopes were virtually nil in that.

Bucky Harris' Washington Senators Amaze Experts, Now Only 5 Games Behind Yankees

(By United Press)

Bucky Harris, whose greatest pride in a 28-year career of running big league clubs is that "I never finished last," was shooting for "manager of the year" honors today with a Washington team that many experts had consigned to the bottom spot.

Baffling everyone with shrewd trades that strengthened the lineup and with manipulations of manpower that have kept the Senators in contention all the way, Harris now has them in third place just five games behind the pace-setting Yankees.

No one expects a super miracle which would bring them their first pennant since 1933, but then neither did any one expect them to be anywhere but deep in the second division at this stage of the race, either.

The Senators gained on every-day Sunday by extending their latest winning streak to five games with 7 to 6 and 6 to 3 victories over the Browns. The White Sox set back the Yankees, 5 to 4, and the Red Sox took a firmer grip on second place by defeating the Indians, 8 to 7 in 12 innings.

and sending them down to fourth place. The Athletics topped the Tigers 8 to 7, then battled to a 3-3 curfew-halted second game tie in which two Detroit runs in the 10th were wiped off the books because there was not time for Philadelphia to complete the inning.

The Dodgers, shooting for a run-away, stayed 7 1/2 games ahead of the Giants in the National League, winning their eighth straight game, 8 to 5, and their 13th in a row over Pittsburgh. The Giants outslugged Chicago 9 to 7, the Cardinals defeated the Braves 8 to 4, and the Reds downed the Phillies 6 to 5 in 10 innings, then lost, 4 to 3.

Harry Dorrish pitched hitless ball for 1 1/2 innings to save Saul Rogovin's ninth victory at New York after the Yankees put on a three-run eighth inning rally. Eddie Robinson and Sherman Lollar hit Chicago homers and Joe Collins homered for New York. It was the first White Sox victory in New York this year as they ended a six-game losing streak.

Ex-Tigers paced the Red Sox to victory at Boston. Johnny Ligon drove in Hoot Evers with the winning run on a single and Evers, who singled to start the rally, also hit an earlier home run. Dick Gernert hit a Boston homer, too.

Billy Hitchcock hit a triple, double, and single and drew two walks to pace the A's 14-hit opening game attack in which Walt Dropp homered for Detroit. Vic Wertz hit a second-game Detroit homer as the teams had their battle for nothing. The game must be replayed from the start.

The Giants made 14 hits including a triple and two singles by Hank Thompson and a homer and single by Sal Yvars in their triumph at Chicago. Larry Jansen, though belted for eight hits and six runs before being relieved, was credited with his 10th victory. Major league leader Hank Sauer hit his 24th homer for Chicago.

The Cards collected homers by Dick Sisler, Red Schoendienst and Solly Hergus while Wilmer Mizell chalked up his fourth victory at St. Louis. Rookie Ed Mathews hit his 15th homer for Boston.

SUNDAY'S STAR—Johnny Ligon of the Red Sox, whose 12th-inning single produced an 8 to 7 victory over Cleveland.

Portland Sweeps Twin Bill From Angels, 9-2, 2-1

(By United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21 (AP)—Candid Fred Haney, who literally talked his way into the job of managing the Hollywood Stars, is sitting on top of the Pacific Coast League.

Haney laid the groundwork for his post a few seasons back when he was a radio announcer, broadcasting the Hollywood games. Fred was quick to point out what was wrong with the Stars and what he thought should be done to make them a winner.

Bango! He got the job and won a pennant. Last year he finished second. And now, with a 1 1/2 game lead over second-place Oakland, Haney and the Stars have the qualities of the 1952 champion.

Their position should not be challenged during the next two series, at any rate, when the Stars engage Sacramento and San Francisco, the PCL's doormat twins.

Great Fun
Hollywood had great fun against San Diego, drubbing the Padres in seven of eight. The Stars took the opener Sunday, 10-9, but lost the nightcap, 1-0, to Theolic Smith's six-hit shutout.

Oakland gained a game on the Stars, winning two overtime contests in Seattle. The Oaks got home, 2-1, in 12 frames, and 4-3 in 11.

Portland, which looks like a better than sixth-place team, waxed Los Angeles twice, 9-2, and 2-1, to win the series, 7-2.

San Francisco and Sacramento, who played their series in near privacy, split. The Seals, won, 5-2, but then lost, 6-1.

Right-hander Smith, though he pitched a fine game, was lucky to snap his Padre mates' losing streak. Hollywood pitcher Larry Shepard opposed him with a four-hitter. But Murray Franklin doubled and Al Richter legged out an infield single in the third. Franklin scored when Smith grounded into a twin killing.

Two-Run Homer
Franklin hit a two-run homer in the opener, sparking a San Diego rally. Haney then rushed in Joe Muir, his third pitcher, to save the streak to 11 straight—seven at the expense of the Pads.

Pete Milne's single and Johnny Jorgensen's two-bagger made the Oaks a winner in the opener. Three pitchers served in the game and none allowed a walk. George Bamberger went the route for the Oaks, allowing only six hits.

In the second overtime meeting, catcher Ray Noble hit a two-run homer in the fourth and singled home the winning marker in the 11th.

Eggert Stars
Don Eggert, Portland's improving infielder, boomed out a grand slam homer in the first frame to make Fred Sanford's shaky 11-hit pitching stand up. In the second game, second-inning doubles by Eggert and Herm Reich and singles by Ed Besinski and Jimmy Gladd gave Portland two runs and the game.

Bend Legion Wins Berth in Playoff Against The Dalles

(By United Press)

Settlemeyer's American Legion junior baseball team has been declared winner in district play for this area, and will go to The Dalles for a district playoff with The Dalles junior Legion Wednesday and Thursday.

The Dalles won the championship of the mid-Columbia championship Saturday by defeating Gresham, 4 to 1. The winner between Bend and The Dalles will then play Ontario, winner of the Eastern Oregon district, for the right to compete in the state championship tournament at Salem next week.

Although the Bend team still has two games scheduled for the second half of the league season in this area, it is so far out in front that these games will be cancelled in order that the team might compete at The Dalles.

Bend and Prineville ended in a tie for top spot in the first half of the season. This game was to have been played off yesterday, but after Chief of Police Henry Cassidy, the Bend coach, took his charges to Prineville he found the playing field in use, whereupon Prineville agreed that Bend should be declared the winner of this district because Bend had won three out of the four games played between the two teams.

HELSINKI, July 21 (AP)—The slender blond man had a gold medal in his hand and a steel glint in his eyes.

"I was not good, not good at all," Emil Zatopek snapped. "I was not fast. It was not a very good run."

Just a few minutes earlier before more than 70,000 thrilled fans, the Czech with the frenzied face had smashed his own Olympic record in winning the 10,000-meter run in 29:17. He had smashed it to bits, too, clipping 42.6 seconds off the mark he posted in 1948.

But the tight-lipped little man with the balding head wasn't happy. And he didn't hesitate to say so.

"I was disappointed with my time," he growled in his halting English. "I have run better, 29:02.6 here in Finland two years ago, and at Brussels."

That 29:02.6 he was talking about only happens to be the world record for one of foot racing's most arduous events. But the Czech Cannibal left no doubt but what he had expected to better the world standard as he scored his Olympic triumph. That he had surpassed the feats of the Kolehmainens, Nurmis, Ritolas and Salinens made no difference. He was racked with disappointment.

Not the crowd, though.

They saw a spine-tingling performance as Zatopek, who always runs as if each step will be his last, grimaced his way to Olympic immortality.

There were 33 starters in this event which ranks as one of the Olympic features. There were so many that they lined up in two jammed rows and started into the first turn like the Light Brigade at its storied finest.

Zatopek was buried far back, hands already clutched tight against his chest like man in agony. But not for long. At the end of the seventh lap he was up there on the front end and the merry-go-round went into high gear.

The record had been in the bag all the way through the last quarter mile, but Zatopek didn't even smile when they handed him the medal and a bouquet of flowers.

"Bad, very bad," he grunted. "I will try to do better in the 5,000 meters."

Victoria Tyees Cool Off Bears

(By United Press)

It looks like Victoria is off to the races in the Western International League.

The rip-roaring Tyees cooled off the red-hot Yakima Bears twice Sunday by scores of 1-0 and 8-2 to gain revenge for the series they recently lost to the state-side crew.

It has been a long time since any of the other members of the Class A circuit have been able to tame the Canadians. Now their lead runs into double figures over their nearest pursuers.

Bill Bottler, although giving up 11 walks, allowed only four hits to gain credit for the second-game win. Ben Lorino allowed only two safe blows as he noticed his 16th victory in the opener.

Vancouver pulverized Wenatchee, 2-2, in the first game and then went on to make it a sweep, 6-2. The Caps gathered 29 hits in the gut-busting batting-parade parade. Tommy Lovrich gained the second-game victory as the Caps came from behind with three runs in the seventh.

Lewiston opened with a 2-1 conquest of Tri-City, then took the nightcap, 7-2. Glenn Tuckett drove in four runs in the second match with a homer, double and a single. A walk, an error and a fly led to the unearned but winning tally for Lewiston in the opener.

Spokane wrapped up its 2-0 victory over Salem in the first inning on singles by Ed Murphy and Sam Kanelos, a sacrifice, and an outfield fly. Salem loaded the bases in the eighth, but couldn't muster a scoring punch.

SMALL, BUT HOSTILE
MARYVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A young mother of two children became so excited when she saw her husband being led to jail that she struck the arresting officer with her fist. The punch was leveled at a 200-pound highway patrolman, John Marshall, who admitted "the lick kinda stunned me." Marshall said the 100-pound assailant must have felt the effects of the attack, too. She fainted.

In the Harvey Duff sweepstakes Saturday Einar Selfors took top honors with a net 67. Ray Yarnes was second with a net 68 and Oscar Glassow was third with a net 70. Harold Milby won low gross honors with an 83.
