Michigan State Still Number 1 Team in Nation

NEW YORK, Oct. 21 (UP)—Michigan State retained the No. 1 spot in the United Press football ratings for the fifth consecutive week Tuesday as it came within 24 points of the perfect score of 350.

In making the strongest showing in the ratings this season, the powerful midwesterners received 19 first place votes, 13 second place ballots, one fourth and two fifth to compile a total of 326 points, 54 more than second-place Maryland.

Maryland, moving from third place into the runner-up position, received five first place votes and a total of 272 points to replace California in the No. 2 spot. The West Coast team dropped down to third with four first-place votes and a total of 257 points.

Same Spot
Michigan State was the only team which retained the same spot in this week's ratings as there were two newcomers to the top 10—Wisconsin in ninth place and Ohio State in 10th. Kansas, defeated by Oklahoma, and Purdue, which lost to Notre Dame, dropped out of the top 10.

Behind Maryland and California came Oklahoma, Georgia Tech, Southern California, Duke and UCLA in that order. Oklahoma, with four first-place votes and 237 points, moved from fifth to fourth place as Georgia Tech, with three first-place ballots and 205 points, exchanged places with the Sooners.

Southern California and Duke each moved up a spot as Kansas, sixth last week, received only 10 points for a tie for 16th place. UCLA jumped from 10th to eighth.

Eight Undeclared
All of the top eight teams are undefeated, although Oklahoma was tied by Colorado in its season's opener. Wisconsin and Ohio State each has lost a game. There were shifts in the second teams as well as the top 10. Notre Dame, which received only three points last week, headed the second ten with 27 points with Pennsylvania, Villanova, Texas and Virginia trailing in that order. Kansas and Tennessee were tied for 16th, followed by Pittsburgh and Penn State while Minnesota and Illinois were tied for 20th place.

Points are scored on the basis of 10 for a first place vote, two for a ninth and so on down to one for a 10th.

Record Crowd Expected For Cowboy-Bruin Clash Friday

One of the largest crowds in Bend high school football history is forecast for Bruin field Friday night when the Lava Bears, in their final home game of the season, meet their traditional rivals, the Cowboys of Prineville, in what promises to be a bitterly contested gridiron struggle.

The Cowboys, who have not been defeated in regular season play in more than two years of football play, are coming to Bend confident they will keep their winning record intact. But Coach Bud Robertson and his Lava Bears believe they have a good chance of topping the Cowboys from the pedestal. It should be a bang-up game from start to finish.

In Seventh Place
In Oregon high school football ratings, Prineville is now listed in seventh spot among the sports writers of the state, while Bend is tied with North Bend in the 10th position, as a result of its victory over the Lebanon high school Warriors at Lebanon last Friday night. A week before Bend was not even among the top ten.

Coach Robertson said the Lebanon Warriors were a much better team than they had been credited as being, and the Lava Bears had to fight every inch of the way to gain their 26-25 victory. Bend's pass defense was weak last Friday, Robertson admitted, which accounted largely for the four touchdowns scored by the Warriors.

Robertson also thought his boys might have been a bit over-confident. Lebanon had not won a district game this year and were generally looked upon as a fairly soft touch. But they proved to be a well-coached team which took advantage of every opportunity and gave the Lava Bears a mighty scare before it was over.

High Scorers
In Friday night's tussle against the Cowboys there is every indication it might be a free-scoring affair as Bend's defensive work so far has been its main weakness, although its fleet backfield, plus the throwing arm of Volney Sigmond, together with the adept receiving by Bill Baer and Mel Loy, have kept Bend's scoring machine busy. In every game this year, except the one against the Albany Bulldogs, each team scored but one touchdown in this hectic battle.

It was announced last night that only 60 reserved seat tickets are still available at the City Drug. The entire grandstand has been reserved, and general admission will be confined to the bleachers at the end of the playfield and for standing room along the sidelines, if necessary.

CITY LEAGUE
The Elks rolled 2523 for high team series and 942 for high team game and split, two and two, with DeGree Construction, Pepsi-Cola, sparked by Ned Douglass, who rolled a 648 series, swamped the Bend Nash keggers by taking all four points. Douglass' 648 is high individual for the season. Bend-Portland rolled to a four point win over Medo-Land, and 7-up took three from Provident Life. Mel Raper had 226 for high individual game.

Hugh McElhenny, Matson Compete For Pro Honors

By HAL WOOD
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21 (UP)—The battle for the "Rookie of the Year" honors in the National Football League will be between Hugh McElhenny of the San Francisco Forty-Niners and Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals.

That limits the field to a considerable extent, but on the basis of play during the first four games of the season, these youngsters stand head and shoulders over the rest of the crop.

To citizens of Seattle, Wash., and Compton, Calif., this will be no surprise. The Seattle people, in particular, have been proclaiming for two years that McElhenny was the greatest thing ever to pack a football over a gridiron. Now the professional moguls are just about ready to agree.

During the early part of the season, McElhenny was feeling his way. Sure, he was the stand-out in a couple of games—but nothing compared with the way he performed against the Chicago Bears on Sunday.

Lavish Praise
Look at what some of the "old pros" have to say about this youngster:
"That McElhenny is the best running back I have seen in a long, long time," said Johnny Lujack, former Bear quarterback and now backfield coach at Notre Dame.

"Hugh's 94-yard run against the Bears was the greatest single-handed run I ever saw," said Coach Buck Shaw of the Forty-Niners.

"McElhenny's play in this game was the greatest I've ever seen on any field," said Frankie Albert, the famed quarterback of the San Francisco club.

There is considerable conversation going the rounds that Mac has split vision—i.e., he can see both sides of the field at the same time as he runs down the grid. We've heard of this before in basketball, but this is the first time it has ever been used in connection with a football player.

Uncanny Ability
"He seems to have an uncanny ability to look around the line for another hole to run through at the same time as he is aiming for the spot called by the signal," says Shaw.

Matson, of course, is making a successful season for his long-time college coach, Joe Kuharich. The San Francisco Negro lad, who finished third in the 400-meter run in the Olympics at Helsinki last summer, is the best defensive rookie to come up in a long time. On top of that he took over ball-packing chores for the Cardinals Sunday and starred in their one-point upset victory over the New York Giants.

Teddy Davis Adds Bassett to List
BROOKLYN, Oct. 21 (UP)—Unheralded Teddy (Red Top) Davis, the Hartford, Conn., campaigner who specializes in licking top-notchers, added the name of Percy Bassett, "unheralded featherweight champion of the world," to his impressive list Tuesday.

Entering the Eastern Parkway ring a decided underdog Monday night, Davis made Bassett, the Number One featherweight contender, give ground repeatedly as he punched his way to a split 10-round decision in a bout that was televised to eastern and midwestern points.

The 129½ pound Davis, a half pound heavier than his Philadelphia opponent, punished Bassett with straight lefts to the head and telling hooks to the stomach.

Jack Lee Named Lineman of Week

CHICAGO, Oct. 21 (UP)—Jack Lee won a monogram as a Notre Dame lineman as a freshman last year, and this season he's winning praise from Coach Frank Leahy for a standout job as the middle guard on the Irish defensive line.

Sophomore Lee, for his stellar tackling and rushing against Purdue Saturday, Tuesday was named United Press Lineman of the Week.

The 190-pound, 20-year-old from Medford, Mass., was one of the unsung rookies who helped Notre Dame to an unexpectedly good 1951 season of only two defeats and one tie on a 10-game schedule.

This season Leahy never had any doubt where the "lad" would fit into the Irish program. "Lee will be our middle guard on defense," he said each time he named a tentative starting line-up, "and we hope that he doesn't get hurt."

So far, Lee, of Irish descent, has been in action virtually every second a Notre Dame opponent has had the ball this season. But Saturday, as the Irish scored their second victory in four games this year, a 26-14 upset decision over Purdue, Lee played his best game.

He "shot" the line on virtually every play and once, when the Boiler-makers' Norm Montgomery was back to punt in the Purdue spread formation, Lee came through so fast he partially blocked the ball. It went out of bounds in Purdue territory and, though there was a pass interception and a fumble thereafter, Notre Dame failed another touchdown to make victory more certain.
