Amaranth Order Holds Dinner, Friendship Night

Members of Order of the Amaranth, some 100 strong, attended a friendship meeting held by Mirror Court No. 24 Saturday night at the Masonic temple. The meeting was preceded by a no-host dinner.

Delegations from several Amaranth courts in various parts of the state attended, and initiation work was exemplified by officers of Mirror court.

Highlight of the occasion was the official visit of Winifred Dyer of Cannon Beach, grand royal matron, and Francis R. Henkle of Gresham, grand royal patron.

Square Dancers To Start Season

The popular square dances at Pine Forest grange hall which have been a feature of the winter program for the past several years will be resumed tomorrow night at 8:30. Music will be by the Cornpoppers with Claude Cook acting as master of ceremonies.

The first three or four weekly sessions will be in the nature of refresher programs designed to enable those who have not danced for a year or two to get back into the swing. This Wednesday night group is made of intermediate square dancers. All those who have had beginning square dance instruction are also invited to attend.

Recreation, friendliness and tolerance are to be the keystones of the year's dancing, Cook said.

Eagles auxiliary will hold initiation at the regular meeting Wednesday, Oct. 22, at 8 p. m. at the Eagles hall. Plans will also be made for a food sale, to be held Oct. 25 at O'Donnell's market.
