Women's Chorus Has Social Time

Members of the Women's Civic chorus met Monday evening for rehearsal and a social time at the home of Mrs. M. M. Orona. Mrs. Willard Higgins, just back from a vacation trip to the Hawaiian Islands, described highlights of the ocean voyage and plane tours in the tropics. She also played several recordings of Hawaiian music which she brought from the islands, and explained the symbolism in the Hawaiian dance.

In addition to Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Clifton Hutchins, director, Mrs. Bernice Towner, accompanist and the hostess, the following members of the chorus were present: Mrs. Fred Rush, Mrs. Earl Roaring, Mrs. Francis Stokewberry, Mrs. Charles Beckley, Mrs. Sherman Dearth Jr., Mrs. W. C. Burrell, Mrs. W. D. Ward, Mrs. Albert Canaris, Mrs. Bernard Bennett, Mrs. W. E. Shaver, Mrs. Dwight Newton, Virginia Wenerstrom and Carolyn Blakely.

Past Matrons Elect Officers

Mrs. G. L. Conklin was elected president of the past matrons' club of Order of Eastern Star, at the last meeting of the season, last Saturday in the Masonic temple. Other new officers, who will be in charge when the club resumes its activities in the fall, are Mrs. Robert H. Fox, Jr., vice-president, and Miss Frances Thompson, secretary. Mrs. Horner Thomas is the retiring president.

At the Saturday meeting, Joe Van Wormer presented a well-received program of wild life pictures.

The next meeting of the club will be the third Saturday in September.

Roses Planted In Pioneer Park

A rose in memory of Mrs. Roy Van Vleet, given by her husband, was planted recently in the Memorial rose garden in Pioneer park by a committee from the Bend Garden club, composed of Mrs. Harry Boyle, Mrs. Cliff Rasmussen and Mrs. Stella Nelson. The women also planted 10 old-fashioned bush roses and two French lilacs. Two roses will be planted this week by the Nightingale Blue Birds, as a civic project. Mrs. Howard Krog is their leader. Gifts of roses for the garden are always welcome, and planting will be done by the garden club, according to Mrs. Nelson, who has been active in the project since its institution several years ago.

OSC Scholarship Recipient Chosen

A recipient and an alternate for the scholarship offered by the Oregon State College Mothers club were selected at a meeting of the group last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Cruickshank, 107 Drake road. The names will be made known at the Bend High school major awards assembly to be held Monday, June 1, at 10:30 a. m. in the school gymnasium. The scholarship will go to a member of the 1953 graduating class.

The mothers' club also made plans for a picnic, to which OSC dads and students will be invited. The event is scheduled for Wednesday, July 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Peak, 637 Drake road.

Lady Elks will hold a meeting and social time tonight at the RPOE hall, starting at 8 o'clock. The meeting was scheduled originally for May 28, and was moved up, officers explained, Mrs. Frank Perry, from Mannheimer's, will present a style show featuring sports clothes. All women who are eligible for membership will be welcome to attend, it was stressed.

Tomorrow night, Pythian Sisters, will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the RPOE hall. Mrs. Grant Salisbury will be hostess for the afternoon, and Mrs. Kenneth Arnold and Mrs. M. B. Smith will arrange the entertainment.

Mothers' Club Sponsors Film, Plans Banquet

Members of the Red Cross classes in infant care, the instructor, Mrs. Oscar Larson, and other interested persons, were guests of the Young Mothers study club, at their regular monthly meeting last week in the courthouse assembly room.

A new film, "Life With Baby," was shown and afterward Dr. J. H. Stewart, director of the tri-county health department, conducted an open discussion and answered questions.

After the program, members of the club adjourned to the home of Mrs. Glen Mitchell for a business meeting. Mrs. Leonard Ackerman, president, appointed the following committee to make plans for the fall banquet: Mrs. Ted Coulter, Mrs. Walter Connolly, Jr., Mrs. Elmer Judy and Mrs. Tom Langer.

Reports on the Homemakers' festival were given by several who attended.

Mrs. James J. Magee was a guest at the meeting. Assisting with the hostess duties were Mrs. Walter Connolly, Jr., Mrs. George Davis and Mrs. Don Seelye.

Shower is Given For Mrs. Walker

Mrs. George Walker was honored at a surprise layette shower for which Mrs. Morris Clark was hostess last Friday evening at her home at 148 Congress. Quiz games provided entertainment, and refreshments were served after the gifts were opened.

Guests included Mrs. C. L. Isted, Portland, Mrs. William Burgess, Prineville, and the following Bend residents: Mrs. F. N. Van Matre, Mrs. C. P. Niswonger, Mrs. Lillian Organ, Mrs. Ida Reynolds, Mrs. Kenneth Bennett, Mrs. Wally Krenner, Mrs. Paul Gilley, Mrs. Claude Vandever, Mrs. Arthur Robideaux and Mrs. Ed Gotchy.
