Jefferson Roads Get New Names

MADRAS, Aug. 21 — Glenn Dowers, chairman of a special committee, has announced that major roads intersecting U. S. Highways 97 and 26 through Jefferson county have been selected and the sign division of the state highway department is expected to erect signs the coming winter at the intersections.

Powers reports that radiating out from Madras to the north roads will be named after trees, those to the east for famous men, those to west for rivers and those to the south will receive miscellaneous appellations. North and south thoroughfares will be called drives, while those from east to west will be termed lanes.

Powers' fellow committeemen are Art Carlson, Jay Binder, George Clowers, Kenneth Green, Perry Henderson, John Clemens and Homer Earnest.

STRUNG UP NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (AP)—City firemen had to rescue a robin whose spring housecleaning chores became a little too strenuous. Perched on a limb 60 feet above the ground, the bird became entangled on strings used in remodeling its nest and hung suspended. Fireman Frank Armstrong climbed a ladder and set the bird free.
