

Loggers Extend Win Streak; Beat Alturas 5 to 4

Special to The Bulletin
ALTURAS—The Bend Loggers won their third straight Oregon-California border league game without a defeat here Sunday and Jim Duff hit his second of four 5 to 4 victory over Alturas.
 Don Campbell, the three-homer hitting hero of last Sunday's win over Klamath Falls, scampered home in the eighth on a pass ball with the winning run just a few minutes after Dan Lovejoy had blasted a one-run homer for the tying tally.
 Tom Hunt, the Loggers' newly-acquired left fielder, also got a round-tripper—his coming as he led off in the top of the second.
 Duff took to the hill in the seventh after Starting Pitcher Paul Gehrmann had been lifted for Pinch-hitter Bill Gilmer in Bend's half of the inning.
 Duff came in with a one-run deficit after Gehrmann had been touched for seven hits and four runs in the first six innings. The Loggers failed to produce at the plate in the seventh but the two-run eighth was enough to save the day.
 Two Alturas pitchers limited Bend to five hits over the nine-inning route while the home towners were nicking Gehrmann and Duff for a total of nine.
 Besides Hunt and Lovejoy, other Bend players garnering hits were Curt Jantze, Ron Fundingsland, and Gehrmann.
 The Loggers play their next league game Sunday against Klamath Falls on the local municipal diamond. Saturday night has been set tentatively for a non-league encounter with a Willamette Valley team as yet unnamed.

Bend Dogs Place High in Field of 62 at Camp Abbot

Bend dogs placed high in all events Sunday when the first retriever trials in Central Oregon history were held at Camp Abbot under bright, sunny skies before an estimated 500 persons.
 The entry list included 62 dogs from all parts of the state.
 Lava Bear Clipper, owned and handled by Wayne Faddis of Bend, co-chairman of the trials, was awarded a second in the open all age classification. First prize went to Bear Creek Java, owned by D. H. Holmes of Medford and handled by Pat Montgomery of Klamath Falls.
 Don Williams' Tussie, a yellow Labrador, won the derby stake. Lloyd Magill's Deschutes Pat, one of the many powerful black Labradors entered in the trials, placed third in the qualifying stakes. Pat also was handled by Faddis.
 Two other Faddis-handled dogs won high honors. Jet, Faddis' other dog, copped a second in the derby stake while C. M. Duke of Bolivar, the property of Duncan McKay, took a fourth in the same event.
 Local leaders of the trials—sponsored by the Willamette Valley retriever club—were so pleased with the turnout, the large number of entries and the excellent grounds on the Mayfield-Huckeba Ranch that they have suggested the formation of a local retriever club.
 One of the big and unsuspected problems of the day was parking. Some of the cars had to be moved out of the range of scatter guns used in downing pigeons.
 The lush meadows were considered ideal for the dogs—all of them Labradors except for the Quilting Stakes Winner Rain Valley One Spot, a golden retriever owned and handled by Don Cowgill of Lebanon.
 Judging the days events were Red Walker of Albany and Ray Simons of Portland. Trials officials considered the judging outstanding.

K. Falls Drops Gennamen Twice
 Bend's American Legion baseballers dropped a pair of non-league games to the Klamath Falls Legion nine Sunday on the down state team's diamond.
 The scores were 13 to 5 and 10 to 3.
 Manager Vince Genna elected to string along with reserve hurlers, and Dennis Lenaburg, who pitched the final three innings of the nightcap, was the only front line moundsman who saw duty in the doubleheader.
 Bend returns to Central Oregon league play Tuesday when it meets Prineville in the Crook county seat. Genna's team has its next home game Friday, when Redmond comes to town.
 In yesterday's pair of games, Jim Crowell, normally an outfielder, took the hill to open the second contest.

Blistering Pace By Tribe Killing Off White Sox

By FRED DOWN
UNITED PRESS Sports Writer
 The Cleveland Indians' blistering 833-pace since June 4 was killing off the challenge of the Chicago White Sox today and had the New York Yankees in their weakest position for this date since the beginning of manager Casey Stengel's all-winning regime.
 The Indians swept the Boston Red Sox, 3-1 and 9-2, Sunday giving them 15 victories in 18 games since June 4 and opening up a four-game lead on the White Sox, who split their doubleheader with the Yankees. Since June 4, the White Sox have won 10 of 16 games, while the Yankees have won 12 of 18.
 The Yankees, who dropped the nightcap, 7-3, after routing the White Sox, 16-6, in the opener, slipped five games behind the Indians—their poorest showing for this date under Stengel. They led by 11½ games a year ago, by 2½ games in 1952 and by four in 1949. They were second in 1951 and 1950—3½ and one game behind the leader respectively.
 Thus, the Indians' tremendous first-half pace means the aging world champions will have to stave their fastest finish under Stengel if they are to win that sixth straight American League pennant.

Rebounding Beavers Take Pair of Sunday Victories Over Sacramento Solons, 8-3, 6-4

By DON THACKREY
United Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—The San Francisco Seals found out yesterday the best way to look at the Stars is from flat on your back.
 The Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League taught the upstart Seals the astronomy lesson by winning 5-4 and 8-1 and snatching the series away from their rivals just as the San Franciscans thought they had copped it.
 Oakland, San Diego and Portland also took hints from the Stars and gobbled up both ends of their Sunday doubleheaders. The Oaks two timed Los Angeles, winning 4-2 in 11 innings and 6-3 in regular time.
 San Diego won over Seattle 5-4 in the nine inning game and then again by the same score in a seven inning nightcap that got out of hand and went 12.
 Portland capped Sacramento 8-3 and 6-4 in a night doubleheader.
Second Game A Breeze
 The Stars got three innings in the bottom of the ninth inning to push across the winning run in the opener. The game had seen sawed along until Bob DiPietro tied it for the Seals in the seventh with a home run.
 Lino Donoso, Carlos Bernier and Dick Smith provided the one batters in the ninth for Hollywood's first win. Donoso got the victory and Bob Mumcrief the loss.
 In the second game the Stars ran off and hid from the Seals, mostly on San Francisco errors.
 The Stars broke the game apart in the fourth with five runs to give the win to Jim Walsh and the loss to Ed Chandler. The Seals shipped in with four errors and got only three hits off three Hollywood pitchers.
 San Diego stayed six games out Seattle

Pads Kept Tying Game
 In the nightcap Rapp doubled in the 12th and Harry Elliott singled him home. Twice during the extra innings the Rainiers had gone one run ahead, once on Leo Thomas's home run, only to have the Pads tie it all up again.
 Johnny Jorgensen supplied the payoff blow for the Oakland A's in the first game when he clouted a solo blast for the Angels to tie the game.
 Bob Spicer went the distance for Los Angeles and Don Ferrarese took the win in relief.
 In the second game the Oaks poured across four runs in the sixth to take the win. Bill Howerton got the A's their first two runs with a second inane homer.
 The Angels outthit the third place Oaks in both games but couldn't outscore them.
 Portland came within a game of getting out of the basement by clobbering Sacramento. Walt Judnich contributed his 12th homer to the first game and his 13th to the second. Fletcher Robbe of Portland and Joe Brovia of Sacramento also homered in the first contest as Dick Fiedler took the win and Al Cicotte the loss.
