

Lewiston Edges Wenatchee 3-2

By UNITED PRESS
Lewiston continues to make hay in the Western International League whether the sun shines or not. Last night the Broncos pushed across a run in the ninth inning to edge Wenatchee 3-2 and take a two and one-half game lead in the second half of the pennant scramble.

In other games, Salem nicked Victoria 5-1 and Tri-City and Yakima split a twin bill. Tri-City took the opener 6-3 while Yakima came back 2-1 in the nightcap. Vancouver at Edmonton was called off because of wet grounds.

Lewiston's winning run crossed when Clint Cameron walked and moved to third when Manager Larry Barton singled on a hit and run play. Ed Garay's sacrifice fly then did the trick. Tony Rivas of Wenatchee had homered in the top of the ninth with the bases empty to tie it up.

Lefty Joe Nicholas tossed five hit ball and contributed a double and a single in Salem's triumph over Victoria. Victoria got its lone run in the first on two singles, a stolen base and an error but Salem put the game in deep freeze in the fourth with a three-run splurge.

Tri-City staged a four-run rally in the third inning of their opener against Yakima to win that one but then bumped into a three-hit pitching job by Yakima's Danny Rios to drop the second game.

Rios walked five and whiffed five. Yakima's winning run came in the second when John Albior scored from third on a sacrifice fly by Dick Briskev. He had reached third by the devious route of being hit by a pitched ball, an infield out and an attempted pick-off at second which misfired.

Duck Rules About Same As in 1953

KLAMATH FALLS, (UP)—Duck hunters in the western states this year may be subject to about the same regulations as a year ago, according to the Pacific Flyways Council.

Representatives of game commissions of the seven western states wound up their annual meeting here last night after a long program that covered the intricate phases of migratory waterfowl management.

Recommendations of the council will be subject to approval by the Fish and Wildlife Service in Washington, D. C., which was represented at the meeting and advised the council of the expected migration from inland breeding grounds this year.

The council's recommendations are as follows:

1. Length of season to be 75 days or more; each state to choose its own dates.
2. Bag limits the same as in 1953.
3. A special management season on pintail ducks of not more than 15 days.
4. If the fish and wildlife service authorizes a split season, the penalty for any state taking such a season should not be more than 5 per cent.
5. Hunting hours to be the same as in 1953.
6. The fish and wildlife service is asked to define clearly the policy regarding the regulated feeding of waterfowl.
7. Consideration by the service of giving states the right to determine possession limits.
8. Simplify the goose regulations by setting the daily bag at six for all species, but not more than three of dark varieties.

Tribes, Red Sox Deadlock 5 to 5 in 17 Innings

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's lead in the American League was so small today that you almost needed a microscope to see it, but the Indians wouldn't even have that if they hadn't followed the sage old advice of the late John McGraw.

"Beat the hell out of the second division teams," McGraw used to tell his Giants, "and then all you'll have to do is break even with the contenders."

The Indians have been following McGraw's advice all season long, so well, in fact, that even with Tuesday night's 16-inning 5-5 tie against the fifth-place Red Sox they still have by far the best record—44 victories and only nine defeats for an 830 percentage—of any major league club against second division teams.

Red Sox Tougher
The Red Sox, whom the Indians have defeated 11 out of 12 times this season, proved tougher than usual but after four hours and 26 minutes of play, the score was still tied, the umpires called the game because of the rule which states no inning may start after 12:50 a.m. local time, and the Indians still led the Yankees by four percentage points.

The Yankees beat the third-place White Sox 4-1.

Bobby Avila gave the Indians their first run with a first-inning homer, then walloned a two-run homer with two out in the ninth to tie the score. Mike Garcia started for the Indians, Ray Narleski hurled the ninth and Don Mossi limited Boston to three hits from the 10th inning on. Ellis Kinder relieved Willard Nixon in the 10th and went until the 15th when he gave way to Sid Hudson.

Rosen, Doby Homer
Al Rosen and Larry Doby also homered for Cleveland and Ted Lepcio hit a two-run homer for Boston.

Mickey Mantle and Irv Noren each drove in a pair of runs in the Yankee triumph over the White Sox while Whitey Ford pitched an eight-inning shutout for the Yankees.

Detroit swept a two-night doubleheader from Philadelphia, 12-0 and 4-3, extending the Athletics' losing streak to 10 straight games. Harvey Kuenn's grand-slam homer featured a nine-run first inning in the opener. Ned Garver went the distance and benefited from Detroit's three-run rally in the eighth inning of the nightcap.

Row Sievers' 15th Homer
Row Sievers' 15th homer and Eddie Yost's triple with the bases full in the sixth inning were the big blows in Washington's 9-1 win over Baltimore.

Giants Go Seven Ahead
The Giants stretched their National League lead to seven games by beating the Reds, 2-1, in 13 innings as the second-place Dodgers bowed to the Cubs, 3-2, in their 10-inning game.

Johnny Antonelli limited Cincinnati to nine hits, including Ted Kluszewski's 25th homer, to gain his 14th triumph. Whitey Lockman's sacrifice fly brought home Joe Amalfitano with the winning run.

Jim Hushes' error while covering first base on Ralph Kiner's grounder allowed Gene Baker to score in the 10th with the run that beat Brooklyn. Paul Minner went the route for the Cubs, allowing eight hits.

In the only other National League game, the Cardinals bunched four of their five hits in the first inning to beat the Phillies, 4-2. Harvey Haddix was the winner although he needed Gerry Staley's help in the ninth.

Loggers Bump Eugene 9 to 8

The Bend Loggers made it two in a row over Eugene, defeating the valley boys 9-8 last night in a game played there. No details were available this morning.

The Loggers defeated Eugene here last Saturday by a score of 8-4 and arranged for last night's return game at that time.

Hollywood Stars Fatten Lead With Two Wins Over S. F.

By PETER HAYES
United Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Bobby Bragan's Hollywood wrecking crew got brilliant pitching last night and knocked over San Francisco twice to increase its Pacific Coast League lead to five games over the rain-out San Diego Padres.

Fresh from top-sided wins over Seattle, Portland and Oakland, the Stars downed the Seals 5-2 and 1-0 on the strength of five-hit pitching performances by veteran righthander Mel Queen and southpaw Roger Bowman.

Seal Stadium ushers and police were kept busy in both games escorting back to the grandstand irate fans who charged onto the field to protest close decisions against the home team. Object of their ire was Umpire Mickey Hanich. He was not harmed.

Bob Spicer pitched Los Angeles to a five-hit 3-0 win over Oakland in the only other game. The Angels got all their runs on three hits in the first inning and were retired in order thereafter.

Rain in North
Rain forced postponement of the San Diego at Seattle and Sacramento at Portland games. They will be made up with doubleheaders tonight in Seattle and tomorrow in Portland.

Queen chalked up his 12th win against four defeats as his mate pounded three Seal pitchers for nine hits in the seven-inning opener. Starter Frank Hiller was tabbed with the loss. His record is 7-4.

Hollywood iced the game in the third when Carlos Bernier and Dick Smith doubled and Jack Phillips singled to give Queen the lead he needed.

Luckless Ken Holcombe lost the second game in the sixth inning when, with the bases loaded, he walked Lee Walls.

The 36-year old right hunder previously had beaten the Stars twice. The loss was his seventh against seven wins. Six of his seven defeats were by one run.

Bowman Effective
The win gave Bowman a 14-6 mark. He was in command throughout, striking out five and issuing no walks. Only two Seals reached second.

The Oakland victim was Artie Schallock who was replaced in the first by Jim Atkins who held the Angels hitless until the eighth when he gave way to Hal White who also kept the victors in check.

The three Ansel runs came on a walk, an infield out, a single by Bob Usher, a double by John Pramesa, shortstop Russ Rose's error and Tommy Brown's single.

(Results last night: Union 76 5, Murray Bros. 1; Bend Iron vs. Madras, at Madras, not reported or included in standings.)

Apparently a name change brought good luck to the Junior League team, previously called Ford. Now known as Union 76 they whipped Murray Brothers 5-1 last night at Harmon field to gain a tie for the league lead.

The 76's showed lots of spirit as they picked up three runs in the second and two more in the third to win handily despite getting one less hit than the losers.

Winning pitcher John Newell allowed Murray's six hits but only one run, while his mates were picking up one run for each hit—five of both.

Pat Conley, Jeff Starr, Norman Gibbs, John Newell, and Carroll Clark each hit safely for the winners, but Sid Bauer of the losers carried off batting honors collecting a double and two singles in three times up for a perfect evening.

The winners picked up their three runs in the third without a hit, as errors put the runs on base, and let them score.

Runs were earned in the third, though, as Jonas and Starr singled to open the inning and Norm Gibbs pounded out a double to drive in both runs.

The losing Murray crew picked up their one run in the fifth, as Bauer doubled to open the inning and Ralph Toyner's infield hit, on which he was thrown out, drove in the run. Wayne Lucas pitched five-hit ball for the losers.
