

MARRIED RECENTLY — Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Conklin (Billyette lone Hogan) exchanged marriage vows Sept. 26 in Salem.

Hanna-Ward Vows Church Meeting Said Recently At Bend Church

Miss O'donna Claudene Ward and Cpl. George P. Hanna were married Thursday evening, Oct. 7, at First Lutheran church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Ward, 105 E. Kearney avenue, and Cpl. Hanna is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville S. Hanna of Route 3.

After the ceremony a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bridal couple made a short wedding trip to northern California, returning by way of Myrtle Creek, where they visited relatives of the bridegroom. They will be at home at 101 W. 14th Street in Hopkinstville, Ky. The bridegroom is in the 51th Airborne Division and is stationed at present at Fort Campbell, Ky.

For the wedding the bride wore a brown tailored suit with blouse, hat and gloves in champagne color. Her shoes and purse were the new benedictine shade, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Donna Hanna, sister of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant, in a brown tailored dress with benedictine accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Alan Waterman was best man. Rev. R. E. Ylvisaker officiated at the marriage service, and Mrs. Ylvisaker played traditional organ music.

Cpl. Hanna was graduated from Myrtle Creek High school and attended Willamette university for two years before enlisting in the armed forces. His bride is a graduate of Bend High school and was employed at the local exchange of Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Church Meeting Set in Prineville

Special to The Bulletin PRINEVILLE — Sunday school programs of community churches will be the topic at an educational conference sponsored by the Prineville Community church today and tomorrow and conducted by West Coast church leaders.

Dinner with the local board of education will be held at the church at 6 this evening. Following will be a combined meeting of parents, teachers and high school students. Tomorrow will be devoted to workshop sessions.

Episcopal Guild Fetes Mrs. Coble

The meeting of Trinity Episcopal guild Tuesday afternoon was in the form of a farewell party honoring Mrs. Wacht Coble, who will leave early next month with her husband for Laguna Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Claire T. Crenshaw and Mrs. Lane Barton were hostesses at the Crenshaw home.

Mrs. Cole was serving a term as vice-president of the organization, and Mrs. W. H. Snok was elected to take her place. Mrs. Edith Dark was also named secretary, succeeding Mrs. E. L. Knight, who moved last month to California.

Mrs. Harry Dace of Northridge, Calif., a former Bend resident, was a guest at the meeting.

The next meeting, which falls on the day of the general election, has been cancelled, and the group will meet as usual on the third Tuesday afternoon, next month.

Mirror Pond Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. Ralph Snider was named roadside chairman of the Mirror Pond Garden club and Mrs. F. A. Starkey was named co-chairman, at a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edgar Smith. They succeeded Mrs. Smith, who is chairman of the flower show committee. Mrs. Snider was also appointed to serve as music chairman for the club.

Speakers were Mrs. Clarence Elder, who gave pointers on winter care of roses, and Mrs. C. V. Winterscheid, who spoke on the life cycle of the leaves.

Mrs. Joe Griffin was co-hostess. Mrs. Ed Mowat acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. G. R. Plumb.

Members of the Yew Lane Parent-Teachers club saw a film on organization of a community for prevention of tooth decay and heard talks by specialists from the Oregon State Board of Health, at a meeting Monday evening at the school.

Dr. Melvin Amsberry introduced Dr. David Witter, head of the dental section of the board, who was assisted in his presentation by Miss Mary Ann Weidinger, dental hygienist, and John Graham, education consultant. They have been working in Bend to set up a dental health survey in the Bend Public Schools.

A social time followed the business meeting, and refreshments were served.

SCRIMMAGE HELD
PULLMAN, Wash. (UP) — The Washington State Cougars held a rugged scrimmage session yesterday in preparation for their annual "Battle of the Palouse" with Idaho Saturday.

Coach Al Kirecher said the team was "polishing" its offense and attempting to tighten its pass defense against George Eidam, the Vandals' top tosser.

RECEPTION HONOREES—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Cruickshanks celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at a party given by local friends.

Extension Agent Gives Program

Miss L. Mildred Wilson, Deschutes county home economics extension agent, spoke on "Family Business and the Law," at a meeting of the Bend home extension unit Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roland Anderson, 515 Lava road. The occasion was Miss Wilson's introduction to the local group.

Assisting with the noon luncheon were Mrs. Kelley Swafford, Mrs. G. C. Dalenberg, Mrs. Harvey Olson, Mrs. J. B. Rogers, Mrs. Frank Noakes and Mrs. Donald Banta.

The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. B. Reams, 807 E. Tenth street. Mrs. Rex Thomas and Mrs. John Jacobs will be leaders for a project on "Buffet Meals."

COMMITTEE NAMED
Special to The Bulletin REDMOND — A bishop's committee has been chosen from the membership of St. Alban's Episcopal church here. William Whiles and Mrs. Earle Hallock will serve three year terms, Clifford Larance and Dee Angell two years, and Pete Eccleston and Mrs. Harold Hummel one year. Ex-officio officers are Rev. and Mrs. Clair Crenshaw of Bend. The committee will meet Oct. 26 at the time of the regular bi-monthly church meeting. St. Alban's is a mission church.

POLITICAL DINNER
Democrats of Central Oregon will hold a potluck dinner and party rally tonight at 6:30 at the Pleasant Ridge Grange hall. There will be short talks by Democratic candidates. Women are to take potluck dishes for the meal and table service for their groups, it was announced by Mrs. E. Fouts, secretary.

Cruickshanks Wed 25 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Cruickshank received silver wedding congratulations at a reception Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seaton H. Smith, 20 Drake road. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Carl E. Erickson, Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Mrs. Vernon Smith and Mrs. Joe Elder, all of Bend, and Mrs. Melvin Barcus, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cruickshank, who live at 107 Drake road, were married Oct. 17, 1929, in Portland. They are parents of two sons, John, a junior at Oregon State college, and Kenneth Jr., a junior at Bend High school. Mrs. Cruickshank was formerly Elsie Johnson.

Some 75 friends of the honored couple attended the anniversary celebration.

GOLDEN WEDS—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ruehr celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with open house Sunday afternoon at their home.

Ruehrs Observe Golden Wedding At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ruehr celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with open house Sunday afternoon at their home at 641 E. Revere avenue. Their daughters, Mrs. Angel Peterson, Mrs. Glen Hardman and Mrs. Joe Werner, were hostesses.

Ernest Ruehr and Rosa Haas were married in Iowa Oct. 15, 1904, after immigrating from Germany. Four of their five children were born in Iowa and the youngest was born in Monroe, Wash., where the family engaged in dairy farming. They acquired a farm in the Tu-malu community in 1917, and after two years lived successively in Cline Falls, Redmond and Powell Butte. They operated their own dairy farm at Powell Butte from 1923 until 1942, when they bought an acreage just east of Bend. In June, 1952, they moved to their present home.

Thirty-four family members and many friends attended the open house.

BREEDERS MEETING
Special to The Bulletin REDMOND — George Hostetler, president of Central Oregon Dairy Breeders association, and county agent Gene Lear will attend the annual meeting of Oregon Dairy Breeders association on the Oregon State College campus Oct. 22.

Allen-Marshall PTA will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Allen School auditorium. State Board of Health personnel here to institute a new dental health survey in the Bend Public Schools will speak. They are Dr. David Witter, head of the board's dental section; Miss Mary Ann Weidinger, dental hygienist, and John Graham, health education consultant. Refreshments will be served by the seventh grade room mothers, and a nursery will be provided for young children. Hap Taylor, PTA president, will conduct the business meeting.
