

Worst is Yet to Come For UCLA, Ohio St., Cincinnati

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
 There's clear sailing in the offing for three of the nation's six unbeaten and untied major powers but the worst is yet to come for UCLA, Ohio State and Cincinnati. Barring upsets that would rival anything the top-turvy season already has offered, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Miami, Fla., should continue unscathed past teams which have a combined season's record of 36 wins and 30 losses. Only one of the trio's 11 future opponents has escaped with fewer than two losses and two of the teams are under .500 for the year. Oklahoma, which beat Colorado 13-6, for its sixth straight victory on Saturday, meets Iowa State 3-4 next weekend and then goes against Missouri (3-3), Nebraska (4-2) and Oklahoma A and M (3-3-1) on successive Saturdays. Arkansas, still unbeaten after a 14-7 triumph over Texas A and M, takes on Rice (4-2), SMU (3-2-1), LSU (2-5) and Houston (3-2), while Miami, which butchered Fordham, 75-7, Friday night, meets Auburn (3-3), Alabama (4-2-1) and Florida (4-3). Betting on any of those underdogs would be like risking money on Army's black and blue Knights of the Hudson against the Detroit Lions.

 No Soft Touches
 There are no such soft pickings in prospect, however, for UCLA, Ohio State and Cincinnati, whose combined opponents have a season's record of 41 victories and only 13 defeats.
 UCLA, 27-6 victor over California last Saturday, shouldn't have too much trouble next weekend with an Oregon team which has lost three of its seven games. But then the Uclans run into a real tough one on Nov. 20 when they take on Southern California (6-1).
 Ohio State, which downed St. John Northwestern, 14-7, for victory No. 6, still must hurdle upset-conscious Pittsburgh (3-3) in addition to such Big 10 powers as Purdue and Michigan. Pittsburgh has beaten Navy, Northwestern and West Virginia in succession while Purdue is 4-1-1 and Michigan 4-2 for the season.
 More Upsets
 Cincinnati, which slipped past College of Pacific, 13-7, for its seventh straight, goes on to play Arizona State (5-2), Wichita (5-1) and Miami of Ohio (6-0).

 Saturday's latest wave of upsets included Iowa's 13-7 triumph over eighth-ranked Wisconsin and claimed four of the nation's previously-unbeaten and untied major powers. Boston University bounced Bucknell from the honor scroll 30-7; Xavier (Ohio) upset Boston College, 19-14; Pittsburgh defeated West Virginia, 13-10, and William and Mary tied Virginia Tech, 7-7.
 Other national powers which had their troubles were Notre Dame, which tripped Navy, 6-0; Army, which shuded Virginia, 21-20, and Duke, which slipped past Georgia Tech, 21-20. Southern California, the nation's No. 9 team, romped over Oregon State, 34-0, meanwhile, eighth-ranked Purdue beat Illinois, 28-14. Yale defeated Dartmouth, 13-7, and Penn State walloped Pennsylvania, 33-31.

Big Three Sets London Session

WASHINGTON (UP) — The United States, Britain and France will meet in London shortly to draft formal notes rejecting Russia's call for an early Big Four conference on Germany, informed sources said today.
 The drafting session may get underway this week with a team of Big Three experts. The aim will be to bar Big Four talks until after the new Allied agreements on Germany have been ratified.
 It was understood the Big Three will be careful not to rule out a possible future meeting with the Russians after the German agreements have gone into effect and given the Allies a stronger bargaining position.
 Harold E. Stassen, foreign aid administrator just back from a 10-day tour of Europe, said in an interview that the signing of the agreements has produced a "marked change" in European public opinion. He said he found more "friendliness" and "better understanding" for the United States than in a long time.
 France cleared the way for the London drafting session by assuring the United States that it will not press for a conference with Russia before the ratification process has been completed. This is not expected until early next year at the earliest.
 President Eisenhower announced Saturday that the administrator will submit the agreements on Germany to the Senate at its spec-

No Poison in Nixon Supper

SEATTLE, Wash., (UP) — A laboratory analysis of a supper which Vice President Richard M. Nixon ordered in his hotel room here Saturday night showed today that it contained no poison.
 An anonymous caller telephoned Nixon Saturday evening and warned him his supper had been poisoned. When the meal arrived at his room in the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Secret Service agents took it away to be analyzed.
 Nixon said before his denaterr or Denver yesterday on his campaign tour that he believed the warning was the work of a Halloween prankster. Authorities were unable to trace the call which came from outside the hotel.
 Secret Service agents, who supervised preparation of a second supper for Nixon Saturday night, questioned several hotel employees but no one was held.

'Stability' Seen Following Merger

WOODROW, N. C. (UP) — Paul Jones vowed today to be "dang sure" his pants are fastened the next time he dashes out to check a noise in the hen house.
 On his latest sortie Jones' trousers fell. As he grabbed for them the pistol he was carrying went off and the bullet nicked him in the leg.
 SOUTH BEND, Ind., (UP) — The president of Studebaker-Packard Corp., says the recent merger of the two auto firms is giving both a Los Angeles went on overtime Oct. 25.
 "Stability."
 James J. Nance, in a letter to Studebaker dealers yesterday, said the first month's operation of the new merger has brought Studebaker division, which suffered a slump in the 1954 model year, a "business upswing."
 Nance said lower, competitive prices on 1955 model Studebakers had improved sales to a point where plants at South Bend and

'Short Look' Set for Men

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., (UP) — The "short look" in men's fashions was unveiled here yesterday with the male ankle destined for further exposure to the critical female glance.
 The "high water" trousers fell to the top of the male oxford above the heel.
 Presented at a $75,000 fashion roundup, masculine styles also featured trousers hanging vertically without a break giving what one critic described as that "drain-pipe feeling."
 The "short look" also features narrower lapels, shorter sleeves and robes that fall just below the knees.
