

Here and There

Mrs. W. H. Snook, mother of Mrs. Don S. Denning, Bend, left yesterday for Medford for a visit with friends before continuing on to California, where she will spend part of the late winter season.

Dr. and Mrs. P. W. Ford, 1523 W. 4th street, are parents of a boy born Wednesday, Jan. 19, at Emanuel hospital in Portland. The baby weighed 7 pounds, 2 ounces, and has been named Eric Walter. He is the second son for the Fords.

Mrs. E. G. McCabe and Mrs. Ella Rasmussen will leave this weekend for Portland, to board a plane Monday for a trip to the Hawaiian Islands. They plan to spend two months in the islands. The return trip will be made by air, also.

Mrs. T. S. Anglin left Wednesday night for Portland, to spend the rest of the week buying merchandise for the dry goods department at Wetle's store.

Jill Acklen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Acklen, 483 E. Irving, Bend, was recently pledged to Delta Gamma sorority during the winter term open rush period at the University of Oregon. Miss Acklen, a graduate of Bend high school, is a freshman major in speech.

Mrs. Marie Sumner, Portland, is visiting local relatives. Mrs. Sumner is a former Bend resident, and has made her home in Portland for the past seven years.

Kenneth K. Deiterman, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Deiterman, Redmond, recently was promoted to corporal while serving with the 9th Infantry Division in Germany. He is a clerk in the 34th Field Artillery battalion's Battery A.

Mrs. Howard D. Thom returned

Wednesday from a buying trip to Portland, for Wetle's store. William Jappert, 443 S. Third street, suffered a fractured shoulder in a fall Thursday at his home. The accident occurred when he slipped on the ice, while walking to his car.

Monthly Budget Report Issued

Expenditures made under the general city budget totaled $31,895.49 during December, a budget report submitted to the city commission Wednesday shows.

Revenues into the general city coffers for the month came to $143,465.67, largest portion of which came from general taxes. Tax revenues for December totaled $123,420.38.

The water department, which operates under a separate budget, showed a slight deficit for the month, its expenditures overstepping income by about $600.

Water department sales for the month brought in $11,016.88, while expenses totaled $11,664.48.

Total budgeted in the general city budget for fiscal 1954-55 stands at $426,268.32. Current budget of the water department totals $152,980.

Departments making the largest outlays under the general budget in December were the fire, police and recreation departments.

Expenditures for the fire department totaled $5,918.77; those of the police department, $4,762.05, those of the recreation department, $2,224.12.

The amount spent last month under the general budget brings total expenditures for the current fiscal year to $224,976.34, leaving an operating balance for the remaining months of $201,291.98.

Expenditures of the water department for fiscal '54-'55 add to $76,057.33. This leaves a balance under the department's current budget of $76,922.67.

Schuman Gets Staples' Practice

Dr. D. O. Schuman, a native of Bend who attended grade and high school here, has taken over the practice of Dr. Herbert S. Staples, optometrist here for the past 18 years. Dr. Staples is retiring from the local field and with his wife is now in Salem.

Dr. Schuman, Bend High school graduate with the class of 1941, served in the navy and attended Wright Junior College under the navy program. Later he took undergraduate work in optometry at Muskingum college, at New Concord, O. Professional work was done at Northern Illinois College of Optometry in Chicago, from where he was graduated with a cum laude degree and was a member of the "Tomb and Key" fraternity.

Lakeview Resident After completing his college work Dr. Schuman established practice at Lakeview, and was there for more than five years. He disposed of his practice in Lakeview this past year and took graduate work at the Ohio State University school of psychology, to specialize in visual problems in school children. He is a member of the Oregon Optometric association, the Better Vision Institute and the Vision Conservation Institute, among others.

Dr. and Mrs. Schuman have three children, Douglas Scott, Gary and Randy. Now in the mid-west, Mrs. Schuman and children will come to Bend later. Dr. Schuman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Schuman, longtime Bend residents. In his many years in Bend, Dr. Staples, a graduate from the University of Oregon with the class of 1923, was active in service and fraternal work. While a Bend resident, Dr. Staples served as head of the Knights of Templar of Oregon.

Dr. Staples was long a member of the Kiwanis club. His plans for the immediate future are indefinite. Dr. and Mrs. Staples still own their home here.
