Powdered Cream Convenient For New Tomato Cream Soup

There's nothing better in cold weather than a quick and warming soup. Here is a recipe for Cream Tomato Soup made with canned tomato juice and canned powdered cream. (The 4-ounce jars or cans of powdered cream are easy to keep on hand. Its shelf life is long and its calories count much lower.)

Cream Tomato Soup
(Makes 4 servings)

Six tablespoons powdered cream, 1 tablespoon flour, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, ½ teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 2 cups tomato juice, 1 cup water, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine.

Mix powdered cream with flour and seasonings. Combine tomato juice and water. Bring to the boiling point. Shake powdered cream mixture into hot juice, stirring. Add butter or margarine and heat a few minutes longer.

You might like to serve cream snacks with the soup. Tender, rich and the kind that melt in your mouth. Of course they take a little time to prepare, but are certainly worth it.

Cream Snacks
(Makes 2½ dozen snacks)

One - quarter cup powdered cream, ½ cup margarine or butter, softened; ¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour.

Mix ingredients together with fork or pastry blender. Roll into 1-inch balls. Place on baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 6 minutes.

If desired, mixture may be chilled in refrigerator several hours, rolled on floured board, about ¼-inch thick, then cut with 1-inch cutter.

Variations

1. Mix in ¼ cup grated sharp cheese.
2. Mix in 1 tablespoon chopped parsley and ¼ teaspoon poultry seasoning.
3. Mix in 1 teaspoon caraway seeds.
4. Mix in 4 tablespoons deviled ham.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Have cream tomato soup, crackers, hamburgers, French fried onion rings, frozen French fried potatoes, soft rolls, butter, green salad, apple pie, cheese, coffee, tea, milk.

Baked Pork Chop Fine for Sunday

Now that pork chop prices are nearer the average budget, let's consider them for Sunday dinner. Beth Bailey McLean and Thora Campbell, both Chicago home economists and authors of "The Complete Meat Cookbook," have some top recipes. Here are two you will enjoy:

Baked Stuffed Pork Chops
(Yield: 4 servings)

Four rib pork chops (cut 1-inch thick), 1 tablespoon chopped onion, ¼ cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons fat, 2 cups dry bread crumbs, ½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, ¼ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon poultry seasoning, ¼ teaspoon sage, ½ cup bouillon or water, salt and pepper.

Slit a pocket along the bone side of each chop. Prepare the stuffing by browning the onion and celery in the fat and then combining this with the crumbs, salt, pepper, sage, poultry seasoning and bouillon. Stuff each chop with one-fourth of this mixture. Season shops with salt and pepper.

Place in a baking pan. Cover the pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 1 hour. Uncover and continue baking 30 minutes to brown. The chops may be browned first in a heavy skillet and then baked, covered, for 1 hour. Note: Slit may be cut along outer or fat edge. If so, secure with small skewers before baking.

Spanish Pork Shoulder Chops
(Yield: 2 servings)

Two pork shoulder chops, ½ inch thick (about 1 pound), 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon paprika, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1 tablespoon fat, 1 small onion, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 cup canned tomatoes, 1 tablespoon catsup.

Rub the chops with the blended flour, salt, paprika and mustard. Fry in hot fat until brown. Slice onion over chops. Mix sauce, tomatoes and catsup and pour over chops. Cover and cook slowly or bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 40 minutes.

SUNDAY'S DINNER: Chicken noodle soup, baked stuffed pork chops, applesauce, seasoned with horseradish; whipped potatoes, frozen lima beans, seeded rolls, butter, raw carrot sticks, raw cucumber sticks, bakers' blueberry pie with vanilla ice cream, coffee, tea, milk.
