Olson Carves Out Win Over Tiger Jones

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (UP) — Middleweight champion Carl "Bobo" Olson got "just the fight I expected" from Ralph "Tiger" Jones Wednesday night and as a result he was geared up today for a shot at bigger game.

Olson, weighing 168 pounds, the heaviest of his career, neatly carved Jones into a hulk bleeding from the eye, the mouth and the nose to win a handy 10-round decision.

"He's got as big a heart as anybody I've ever seen," Olson said of Jones.

Olson, entering the ring, was assured of a chance to go for the bigger game as the sponsoring International Boxing Club scheduled him for an April 13 bout in San Francisco Cow Palace against the former light-heavyweight champion, Joey Maxim.

The bout was contingent only upon Olson defeating Jones, and he did that handily. Referee Frank Gilmer and Judge Spike McAdam gave the champion every round for a perfect 100 points in his 10-round non-title engagement, while Judge John Bray gave him 99 points.

"I felt fine at that weight," Olson said, "and that's about what I'll weigh for Maxim. I was strong and never got tired, and I could punch pretty well.

"But he fought the kind of fight I expected. Coming at me all the time. Just the kind I like."

Both Sid Flaherty, Olson's manager, and Maxim's handler, Jack Kearns, predicted the bout between their brawlers would draw $200,000 with the Cow Palace scaled to a $15 top. They also expected television revenue for the Wednesday night fight and Flaherty said that San Francisco would be blacked out.

Maxim, who watched Olson's one-sided win, said he weighed 196 pounds, but that he could get down to 175 with ease.

Olson was pleased with his performance against Jones.

"I guess my combinations were my best," he said. "In the last rounds a left jab and a right hook. He never hurt me, and I hit him pretty good."

Jones, who said he never was hurt either, suffered two cuts under the right eyebrow. One required three stitches to close and the other, one. It was Jones' 13th loss in 49 fights and Olson's 61st win in 67.

Basinski Signs Beaver Contract

PORTLAND (UP) — Second Baseman Eddie Basinski, Pitcher Glenn Elliott and First Baseman Ed Mickelson have returned their signed baseball contracts to the Portland Beavers, General Manager Joe Ziegler said today.

Basinski revealed that he had turned down an offer to become playing manager of the Spokane club in the new Northwest league because he preferred to remain in Portland.

Nite Hawks To Play Host To OCE Frosh

The COC Nite Hawks under Coach Claude Cook will play host to the Oregon College of Education frosh from Monmoth this weekend in two games to be played in the local area.

The Wolfpups are coached by Bill McCarthy and have gone unfeated since the addition of Norm Willougaby to their squad. Willoughby was attending the University of Oregon but transferred to OCE when he was placed on probation.

The first contest will take place in the Redmond high school gym beginning at 8:20 preceded by a preliminary contest between the Redmond Freshmen and the Sisters JVs.

The following evening, Saturday, the teams will move to Bend to play their other contest in the Kenwood grade school gym at 8 o'clock. There will be no preliminary for the Saturday tilt, Claude Cook announced.

A tentative starting line-up for the Nite Hawks lists Bob Adams in at the post with Milton Sexton and Gordon Slate completing the back line at the forward positions, Bob Eberhard and Millard Marsh will be out front at the guards. Miles Hutchin, Roger Van Nest, Larry Kribs will also see a great deal of action Cook said.

Golfers Tee Off In Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UP) — Veterans Johnny Palmer and Tommy Bolt and a couple of fledgling pros, Gene Littler and Billy Maxwell, were rated the men to beat as the $12,500 Texas Open Golf Tournament started today.

Littler, like Maxwell a former National Amateur champion, and Bolt already have two tournament championship checks deposited in their bank as a result of victories along the eight-weeks old winter tour, while Palmer has one and Maxwell has a runner-up check to his credit.

HOW WIND AFFECTS SHOTGUN PELLETS

STRONG WINDS MAKE AERIAL SHOTS EVEN TRICKIER IF YOU DON'T ALLOW FOR WIND'S DEFLECTION. IF YOU CAN REMEMBER TO AIM A BIT INTO THE WIND, IN ADDITION TO FORWARD ALLOWANCE OF FLYING TARGETS, YOU'LL SCORE MORE HITS! EXPERIENCE WILL INDICATE HOW MUCH TO ALLOW FOR WIND'S VELOCITY.

IN LEARNING, YOU MAY HIT A DIFFERENT TARGET THAN YOU SHOT AT (AS ABOVE), AND FIND THAT LARGE-SIZED SHOT BUCKS WIND BETTER THAN SMALL SHOT.

Dietzel Named To Grid Post

BATON ROUGE, La. (UP) — Paul Dietzel, new Louisiana State University football coach, said today he would install a rugged rock 'em, sock 'em type of football at the school, based on Army's type offense.

The LSU Board of Supervisors picked Dietzel unanimously Wednesday to succeed Gaynell Tinsley, who was fired a week ago Saturday. He was given a three-year contract at $13,000 a year, highest in the school's history.

LSU still needs an athletic director to replace T. P. (Red) Heard who was allowed to resign the day Tinsley was fired.

Dietzel has been line coach under Earl (Red) Blaik at Army the past two years and held a similar position under Paul (Bear) Bryant at Kentucky the year before that.

He is a graduate of the University of Miami, Ohio, where he was captain of the team.

Buzz Wilkinson Challenges Floyd

NEW YORK (UP) — Richard (Buzz) Wilkinson of Virginia, basketball's highest returning scorer from last season, moved up today to challenge Furman's Darrell Floyd for the national collegiate scoring lead.

Wilkinson, who stands 6-feet-2, tossed in 68 points in two games during the week ending Sunday, to boost his per game scoring average to 32.1 points. Only Floyd, with 40 points in a single game that week, is ahead of him with 35.5.

Wilkinson thus moved ahead of Robin Freeman of Ohio State, whose average is 31.5 points per game and will stay at that figure since he has quit for the season because of his health.

Behind Floyd, Wilkinson, and Freeman in the top 10 in scoring this season are Bill Yarborough of Clemson at 28.6 points per game, Dick Hemric of Wake Forest at 28.3, Jesse Arnelle of Penn State at 28.1, Denver Brackeen of Mississippi at 27.3, sophomore Dick O'Neal of Texas Christian at 27.0, John Mahoney of William & Mary at 26.8 and Jack Twyman of Cincinnati, also 26.8.

Stan Glowaski of Seattle took over the national basket-shooting lead with a 59.7 per cent shooting mark from the floor. Jim Scott of West Texas State retained the free throw shooting lead with an average of 90.8 per cent. Charlie Slack of Marshall College stayed on top in rebounding with an average of 26.1 rebounds per game.

Ducks, Huskies Battle for Second

By UNITED PRESS

A battle for second place between Oregon and Washington a Oregon State's efforts to remain unbeaten in the Northern Division highlight basketball action in the Pacific Northwest this weekend.

Both the Ducks and Beavers will go on the road.

Oregon has a two-game bulge over the Huskies, but both games on the Seattle court will be rough for the Webfoots.

Oregon State, which cinched the division title Tuesday night, travels to Pullman for two games with Washington State.

Oldest National Guard unit is the 182nd Infantry of Massachusetts, organized as a militia outfit back in 1636.

Action Promised By Jim Crowley

SCRANTON, Pa. (UP) — James H. (Sleepy Jim) Crowley, former gridiron great newly appointed to the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said today he plans to rid the racket-element, "if it exists," from state boxing.

"We plan to make it one of the cleanest and most ethical sports," said Crowley, one of Notre Dame's famed Four Horsemen and former grid coach at Fordham University.

Benjamin R. Donolow, a Philadelphia Democrat, has charged that boxing in Pennsylvania is "racket-ridden" and has introduced a resolution for an investigation of the sport by the state Legislature.

The 52-year-old Crowley said he had a chat in Harrisburg Wednesday with Gov. George M. Leader —who appointed him—and the result was a plan to forget "what has happened in the past."

"We want to get a fresh start," said Crowley, who appears in line for the post as commission chairman to succeed Frank Wiener of Philadelphia.

Two other commissioners must be appointed and Crowley said, "I will have a lot more to say when I meet with them."

Crowley's appointment came less than 24 hours after Leader, a Democrat, fired the three Republican members of the commission. The appointment is subject to approval by the Republican-controlled state Senate.

The other commissioners given the gate in addition to Chairman Wiener were George Jones of Williamsport and John Holon of Pittsburgh.

Parson Creeps Closer to Top

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Dean Parsons of Washington has crept to within 12 points of Pacific Coast Conference Northern Division scoring leader Jim Loscutoff while Oregon State continued to dominate team statistics, it was announced today.

Loscutoff, of Oregon, leads with 233 points for a 19.4 game average while Parsons is averaging 18.4. Both have four games to play. Other top scorers included Ron Bennink of Washington State with 17.1 per game, seven-foot, three-inch Wade Halbrook of OSC with 15.9 and Idaho's Harlan Melton with 12.8.

Parsons lead the division in shooting accuracy with 48.6 per cent of his floor shots and OSC's Reggie Halligan was best from the free throw line with an 85.4 percentage.

Oregon State, undefeated in ten division games after a slow early season start, leads every statistic except rebounds, in which Oregon was strongest with 822 to their opponents 432.

The Beavers lead in average points per game with 64.4; percentage of field goal attempts with 38.7; free throw percentage with 59.8; and defense, holding their opponents to 52.7 points per game and 31 per cent of their field goals.

BILL INTRODUCED

SALEM (UP) — A bill which would permit dog racing at Portland Meadows was introduced in the Oregon house yesterday by Dr. F. H. Dammasch, Portland Republican.

The bill would provide an exception to the law that not more than one class of race meet can be licensed for a given course.
