

BEND AN EAR

The University of Washington appears to have another Bob Houbrigs on his way up through the ranks. His name is Bruno Boin and when the season's records for the Washington Frosh were compiled they showed that he had broken Houbrigs' freshman scoring record by 5 points with a total of 270 for the season. Houbrigs set his mark in a season of 22 contests, seven more than Boin played. He should prove to be a man to watch in the future.

There are a great many Bruin cage fans that are wishing that the Corvallis series had been earlier in the season because it was these two games that seemed to give the Bend hoopsters that little extra bit of spirit that wins ball games.

Many others throughout the area are missing the usual play-off of the four top squads in the league. It would have been a good tourney this year with Redmond, Bend, Lakeview, and Burns as participants.

The local members of the Skyliners awoke with a smile yesterday morning with the snow piling up outside their windows.

The new snow at the ski area should help the slope a great deal if it covers the sheet of ice that the hill enthusiasts have been skiing upon. Last weekend the hills were covered with skiers of all ages and with the recent snowfall the Skyliners should have ideal skiing for at least a few more weeks.

Not everyone is happy with the weather, however, and many of the local spring enthusiasts have had to put their equipment back in the closet to wait for March's Lion to blow itself out.

Just because a boy can't get out and play the sport there is no reason why he cannot dream about it. Particularly those days when it was played the entire year around.

The Prineville high school gym will be the scene of a bitterly contested cage tilt between the Redmond and Lakeview basketball teams this Friday night at 8 o'clock as both teams jockey for a position in the State hoop tourney to be held in Eugene March 14-19.

The contest is not a regular league contest but is a play-off game because of the duplicate season's records posted by the schools. Prineville was picked as the scene for the play-off because of its central location.

Keglers Enter State Tourney

Special to The Bulletin. PRINEVILLE — The Hudspeth traveling team of women bowlers will leave here Saturday morning to enter the state tournament now in progress at Albany.

Those planning to attend are Ruth Wilson, Elma Redner, May Coles, Joanna Forrester and Captain Dorothy Hyatt. Dorothy Giliam will bowl doubles and singles.

ELLIOTT PLEASED
ONTARIO, Calif. (UP)—Bob Elliott, new manager of the San Diego Padres, was pleased today with the first workouts of Cliff Fannin and Eddie Erault and seven other hurlers who showed up for spring training.

Elliott, a star outfielder for the club last year, planned to run his 20-man squad through additional leisurely workouts today.

Both Fannin and Erault had sore arms at the end of last season.

Flatbush Cheers—'Campy' Says He's All Right, Now

By UNITED PRESS
Roy Campanella, who could be the key to the whole National League pennant race, issued a proclamation today that started cheering in Flatbush: "I'm all right now."

"I don't feel a bit of pain in the hand," declared the Brooklyn Dodger catcher after smashing five long drives in yesterday's first practice of spring training. "My hand feels as good as it ever did."

Nothing could be better news to the Dodgers, for Campanella's collapse from "most valuable player" of 1953 with a .312 batting mark and 41 homers to a .207 average and 19 homers last year was one of the biggest reasons for the Dodgers' collapse.

And the big factor in Roy's failure was his ailing left hand, which was operated on for a bone chip in May and again in November to cure a "numb feeling" that had spread throughout the hand.

Bad News
While the Dodgers were getting this good news, the New York Yankees were getting some bad news about Billy Martin. Instead of rejoining the team by opening day, as announced by a spokesman at Fort Carson, Colo., on Monday, Martin won't get out of the Army until "early July at the latest."

Officials at Fort Carson, said that Martin, whom the Yankees are counting on as their shortstop of the future, did not have enough accumulated leave time to rejoin the Yankees by opening day. Meanwhile, the Cleveland Indians, Washington Senators, Baltimore Orioles, and Milwaukee

Braves announced the signing of important players who had reached the March 1 deadline as official "holdouts."

Larry Doby of the Indians, who led the American League in homers with 32 and runs-batted-in with 126, signed for $33,000 after asking $35,000 and being offered $32,000. Rudy Regalado, Sam Dente, and Hank Aguirre signed at the same time, but the Indians still have seven holdouts including American League batting champion Bobby Avila and 23-game winning pitcher Early Wynn.

Senators Sign
The Senators signed up third-baseman Eddie Yost (for $21,000), pitcher Bob Porterfield ($20,000), outfielder Jim Busby ($20,000), and outfielder Roy Sievers ($12,900).

That left only first baseman Mickey Vernon unsigned, and he again refused to take a $3,000 cut from his last season salary of $27,500.

The Orioles signed pitcher Jim McDonald, who was obtained from the Yankees during the winter, and now are missing only pitcher Lou Kretlow and outfielder Cal Abrams. The Braves completed their squad as pitcher Gene Conley signed in time to take part in yesterday's drill.

But Catcher Sam White of the Boston Red Sox again refused to sign a contract containing a clause that forbids him to play basketball during the winter. Also unsigned is rookie pitcher George Susce, Jr.

Vikings, Pacific Meet in Playoff

MILWAUKEE, Ore. (UP)—Pacific meets Portland State tonight for Oregon's berth in the NAIA basketball tournament opening next week in Kansas City, Mo.

Pacific, paced by Norm Hubert's dead-eye shooting which haccounted for 34 points, downed Eastern Oregon 86-78, and Portland State outlasted Willamette 69 - 59 before about 2000 fans in the Milwaukee high school gym last night.

Pacific was ahead of EOCE nearly all the way but the Mountaineers stayed within striking distance despite losing three stars on fouls and Hubert's marksmanship. Larry Pryse, Ted Schadewitz and John Reinking fouled out for Eastern Oregon.

Pacific shot .400 from the field, with Hubert getting 16 field goals out of 30 attempts. Schadewitz had 24 points for Eastern Oregon with Reinking and Gary Burton hitting 15 each. Danny French chipped in with 19 for Pacific. EOCE hit .340.

Portland State's Oregon Collegiate Conference champs stopped Willamette's attack with a zone defense and hit .442 from the field to go into the finals. Paul Poetsch, the Portland State floor leader, topped the scoring with 19 points.

Dick Hoy had 17 for Willamette which shot .344. Portland State was ahead 36-28 at the half.

Bruin Arrival Due Thursday

CORVALLIS (UP)—The UCLA Bruins arrive here tomorrow afternoon from Los Angeles and plan a light workout at Gill Coliseum to get ready for this weekend's playoff for the Pacific Coast title with Oregon State.

Coach Slat Gill of the Beavers, meanwhile, was trying to figure out a defense to stop the high-powered UCLA attack which has averaged 76.2 points per game and a shooting average of .410. Top scorer for the Bruins is forward Johnny Moore, who has 343 points in 24 games.

UCLA has outscored its opposition, 1114 to 799.

RETIREMENT SET

NEW YORK (UP)—Hayes Alan Jenkins, three-time world figure skating champion, arrived here by plane from Europe Tuesday and announced he planned to retire after attempting to win the world and Olympic titles in 1955. Jenkins, a 21-year-old student at Colorado College, captured the world title for the third straight year Feb. 16 at Vienna.

There's more Life to Rainier

Here's beer with more life to it! There's more life when you pour. Watch how that snowy collar of foam stands up. And there's more life as you drink. The Rainier people use costly malts such as Hannechen, lightest of all barley malts. They brew and age Rainier for the livelier taste you like. Pour yourself a cold one. Taste that tingle. You'll make it Rainier for life!
