Keats N. Oliver Gets Vale Post

Special to The Bulletin SALEM—Keats N. Oliver has been promoted from transitman in Bend to resident engineer at Vale, according to R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer.

The new position will involve responsibility for assigned highway construction projects in the Vale area.

Oliver is a veteran of World War II. Before coming to work for the state highway department, he was employed by the Geophysical Service, Inc., of Dallas, Texas, and served in the Navy.

He joined the highway department on September 10, 1946, working as a stakeman, chairman, computer, draftsman, and transitman, until his recent promotion.

Prineville Plans Spring Opening

Special to The Bulletin PRINEVILLE—Plans for Prineville's spring opening were discussed at this week's chamber of commerce luncheon forum. The opening will be held from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday, March 26, with streets to be blocked off and a program presented. The CCHS band will be featured, and merchants are completing plans to hold a "lucky dollar bill" contest on the order of the one conducted by a Portland paper some time ago, with local merchants contributing prizes for the holders of the dollar bills with the correct numbers.

Robert Barney also reported that the Lions auxiliary fashion show would take place the following weekend after the spring opening, and merchants are planning an automobile parade as their part towards opening the show. Plans will be completed for both affairs at the next regular merchants' association meeting on March 9. Mike Miksche presided over the forum.
