Local Grange Passes Two Resolutions

Pine Forest Grange members, at their meeting Tuesday evening passed a resolution expressing their disapproval of Senate Bill No. 4, concerning the "emer-gency" tax measure. The grangers claim that use of the word "emergency" prohibits use of the referendum. The organiza-tion also passed a resolution fa-voring institution of veterinarian training courses in the Oregon sys-tem of higher eucation.

The Allen school music department, under direction of Mrs. C. G. Hutchins, provided a program of songs and instrumental music.

The string orchestra played Haydn's "Surprise Symphony," ex-cerpts from "Die Fledermus" by Strauss and Schubert's "Overture to Rosamunde." The following mu-scians took part: Jan Bowius, John Burglehaus, Sharon Wilson, Lois Shumate, Tinka Wolf, Janet Ruble, Kathy Boardman, Karen Gettmann, Marlene Frazer, Nan Hutchins and Susan Burton.

There were songs by a trio com posed of Kathy Boardman, Judy Wilson and Daune Bailly and a sextet composed of Carolyn Munkers, Susan Diver, Kathy Board-man, Judy Wilson, Donna William-
