Rainbow Motel Sale Announced

Sale of the Rainbow Motel at 154 E. Franklin avenue was announced today by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hamilton, who have operated the court since coming here from Lebanon five years ago. The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lovejoy, formerly of Salem.

When the Hamiltons purchased the court in June, 1950, it consisted of nine units and a house that had been occupied by the manager. They removed the old dwelling and built a new home the first fall. The next fall they added seven new units. Since then, four more have been built, making 20 in all, and the original units have been remodeled.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will make their home in Salem, where an apartment court which they took over as part of the transaction is located. Hamilton will be in the real estate business in the capital city. He is an Elk, a Mason and a Shriner, and is serving as a state director of the Oregon Motor Court Association. He and his wife are parents of three sons, Lynn of Salem, J. T. of Portland and Jerry, a student at the University of Oregon, and a daughter, Mrs. Ron Clark, The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovejoy will take possession July 10. They have several married children.

Zeeb Realty of Salem handled the transaction.

District to Vote On Consolidation

Special to The Bulletin

MADRAS—A special election on consolidation of the Grizzly school district with Grade School District No 9-C, Madras, is planned July 8.

Patrons of the local district will vote between 2 and 8 p.m. at Madras Grade school, and School District No. 2 voters will ballot at the Grizzly school, the same day, between 2 and 8 p.m.

The vote is on the question of including Grizzly area within the boundaries of the local district, Asa Eaton, Jefferson county school superintendent, explains.

The proposed consolidation, for elementary school purposes only, means that the Grizzly district would accept its proportionate share of indebtedness of the larger district.

If the consolidation vote is favorable, District 9 - C will provide transportation facilities for Grizzly area children.

Seven children attended Grizzly school last year, and average daily attendance was six. Assessed valuation of the district is $319,220.

School District No. 9-C had an average daily membership of 626 in 1954-55, and the school census, covering ages from four through 19, totals 1263. Assessed valuation of the district is $4,460,021.47.

FALSE ALARM

Litter Barrels To Be Placed In Mid-Cregon

Litter disposal barrels will be placed at convenient spots along various highways in Central Oregon, in an extension of a program already started west of the mountains, it was learned here today.

The 50 gallon oil drums, neatly painted in green and stencilled in white, will be for the disposal of litter bags provided motorists by service stations.

This move is gaining nation wide momentum and is proving effective in halting the throwing of litter from car windows, highway officials note.

When sites for the barrels are selected along mid - Oregon highways, signs about a quarter of a mile distant from sites will notify motorists that such disposal barrels are available ahead.

All barrels will be at spots convenient for turnouts without creating traffic hazards, highway officials said.

Budget Hearing Called Tonight

The city commision will meet tonight at 7:30 in the city hall for a public hearing on the $439,177.80, 1955-56 budget, which has been approved by the budget committee.

Tonight's hearing will make it final. The budget may be cut down at the public hearing but the ceiling has been set.

HUB CAPS TAKEN

The city police received three complaints yesterday about stolen hub caps. One car was completely stripped of the caps and the others two each.
