

Ice Cream, Plain or Fancy, Good Food for Summer

Ice cream is a welcome treat anytime to most of us, but it is particularly enjoyable during the warm summer months. The nicest thing about ice cream is its "double dividend"—it's a mighty good food in addition to being such a joy to eat.

Ice cream tastes good plain, but it's fun to have it "fancy," especially when you are planning something special. Two glamorous (but easy to make) ice cream desserts plus a fluffy refreshing milk drink are suggested here for summer parties, family meals, or in-between refreshments.

Regardless of how you like to serve ice cream or how you like to eat it, remember, you can eat plenty; it's good for you!

Chocolate Charlotte

(Serves 6)
1 8-inch sponge cake layer
4 Tbsp. sherry
1 pint chocolate ice cream
1/2 cup cream, whipped

Cut sponge cake layer into thin strips. Line freezing tray of automatic refrigerator with strips. Sprinkle with 2 tablespoons sherry, then spread half of ice cream over this. Top with remaining cake and sherry, then with rest of ice cream. Cover with waxed paper and freeze until firm. To serve, cut in slices and top with whipped cream.

Raspberry Ice Cream Pie

(Serves 6)
1 9-inch pie shell
1 pkg. raspberry gelatin
1 2-3 cups hot water
1 Tbsp. lemon juice
1 pint vanilla ice cream

1 cup crushed raspberries, fresh or frozen
Whipped cream
Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add lemon juice; chill until partly set. Beat ice cream into gelatin until smooth and fluffy. Fold in raspberries. Pour chilled filling into cool baked pie shell. Chill until firm, about one hour. Spread with whipped cream, garnish with raspberries and serve.

Peppermint Delight

(Serves 4)
*5 Tbsp. sugar
1 quart milk, chilled
1/4 tsp. peppermint flavoring
Red vegetable coloring
1 pint vanilla ice cream
Whipped cream
Maraschino cherries
Shaved chocolate
Dissolve sugar in milk. Add flavoring and tint with coloring to desired shade. Pour into glasses and spoon generous portions of ice cream onto milk mixture. Top with whipped cream, piling into peaks. Garnish each serving with a cherry and shaved chocolate curls.

For a quick and easy dessert—try Chocolate Chip Tortoni. Fold 1 package semi-sweet chocolate pieces and 1 teaspoon almond flavoring into 1 quart softened vanilla ice cream. Spoon into paper baking cups and sprinkle with chopped toasted almonds. Freeze until firm. Garnish each with a Maraschino cherry.
