

Unusual Project Is Accepted By Bismarck Lions

12-Year-Old Retires With Her $16,000

 BISMARCK, N.D. (UP)—Leaders of the Bismarck Lions Club plucked up their courage today and gave cautious approval to a Senate request that they study 1,000 pornographic pictures.

The Lions protested the project was out of their line and one said he wanted the wives to take part in the examination, also.

But past President Arvid Wiklund summed up the spirit of the club with the words "I think we should do it—it sounds interesting."

The 150 Bismarck Lions found they had been picked as experts in pornography through an announcement by Sen. William Langer (R-ND) in Washington Tuesday.

 NEW YORK (UP)—"I'd rather go away Gloria, the undefeated champ, than Gloria the foolish little girl who lost out."

With those words, perky Gloria Lockerman, the 12-year-old Negro spelling champ from Baltimore, explained her how-out from CBS-TV's "The $64,000 Question" and retired $16,000 richer today.

Marine Capt. Richard Sherrill McCutchen, another contestant on the big giveaway show, correctly waded through a food-and-cooking query to reach the $16,000 level and earn a possible shot next week at $32,000.

Ninth Grade Student
 Gloria, a ninth grade student, had held TV audiences spellbound for three weeks by threading her way through such orthographic toughies as "belligerent," "astigmatic" and "antidisestablishmentarianism."

Tuesday night, Gloria was offered the chance of doubling her winnings of last week to $32,000. She and her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Key of Baltimore, who has acted as Gloria's guardian on the show, turned the chance down.

"The Lord has been very, very good to Gloria," said Mrs. Key, "and I've decided we'll stop right here."

Money Put In Trust
 The producers of the show announced that $15,500 of Gloria's winnings would be placed in a trust fund for her education. The other $500 was given to Gloria to spend as she pleased.

She also was presented with a TV set, a bicycle, a tape recorder and a subscription to her favorite comic magazine.

McCutchen, a career officer, correctly answered a question dealing with the geographical origin and composition of various breads. They were: tortillas (Mexico or Central America, cornmeal); pumpernickel (Germany, coarse bolted rye); pone (Indian and southern United States, corn); gra-ham bread (United States, whole wheat) and hannock (Scotland, wheat, barley or oats).

Difficult To Say
 Joseph R. Kirby, the club's secretary, added "it's difficult to say whether the club will do it—difficult to tell what some people might think. But it's probably a good opportunity to do some service for the community."

Kirby said if the club agrees to the study it would be well to "get the reaction of both sides of the family."

"The other half would be very valuable in deciding," Kirby said, "if it's not fit for them, it's not fit for us either."

One immediate problem faced by the club is what to do with the pictures upon their arrival.

Deficit Shown In Liquor Fund
 EUGENE (UP)—An Oregon Liquor Control Commission employe was arrested at Florence, yesterday on charges of converting to his own use more than $400 in public funds.

Scheduled to be arraigned before District Court Judge Kenneth Poole here this afternoon was Ellsworth Morten, 49, agent in charge of the OLCC agency at Florence since 1949.

Lane County District Attorney Eugene Venn said a three month audit conducted by the liquor commission showed a deficit of $4186.32 at Morten's one-man agency. The audit was concluded July 12.

State police made the arrest.

68, HE RUNS 360 MILES—A 68-year-old marathon runner from Hamilton, Ontario, nears his destination—the mayor of Pittsburgh, Pa. Bob Whorwood, right, had no trouble finding Pittsburgh, but got lost trying to find the mayor's office, where he finally delivered a message from the mayor of Hamilton. He lost 14 pounds during his 360-mile run, made to arouse interest in wrestling matches staged for the benefit of the Pittsburgh Firemen's Widows Pension Fund. Watching Whorwood's progress are Battalion Chief James Hopper, left, and Chief's Aide Ray Elliott. EXCLUSIVE NEA PHOTO.

Famous Oregon Flier Succumbs

ENTERPRISE (UP)—Col. Graham W. West, a flier famous for his World War II exploits, died unexpectedly Monday night at Walla Walla hospital here after a brief illness. He was 43.

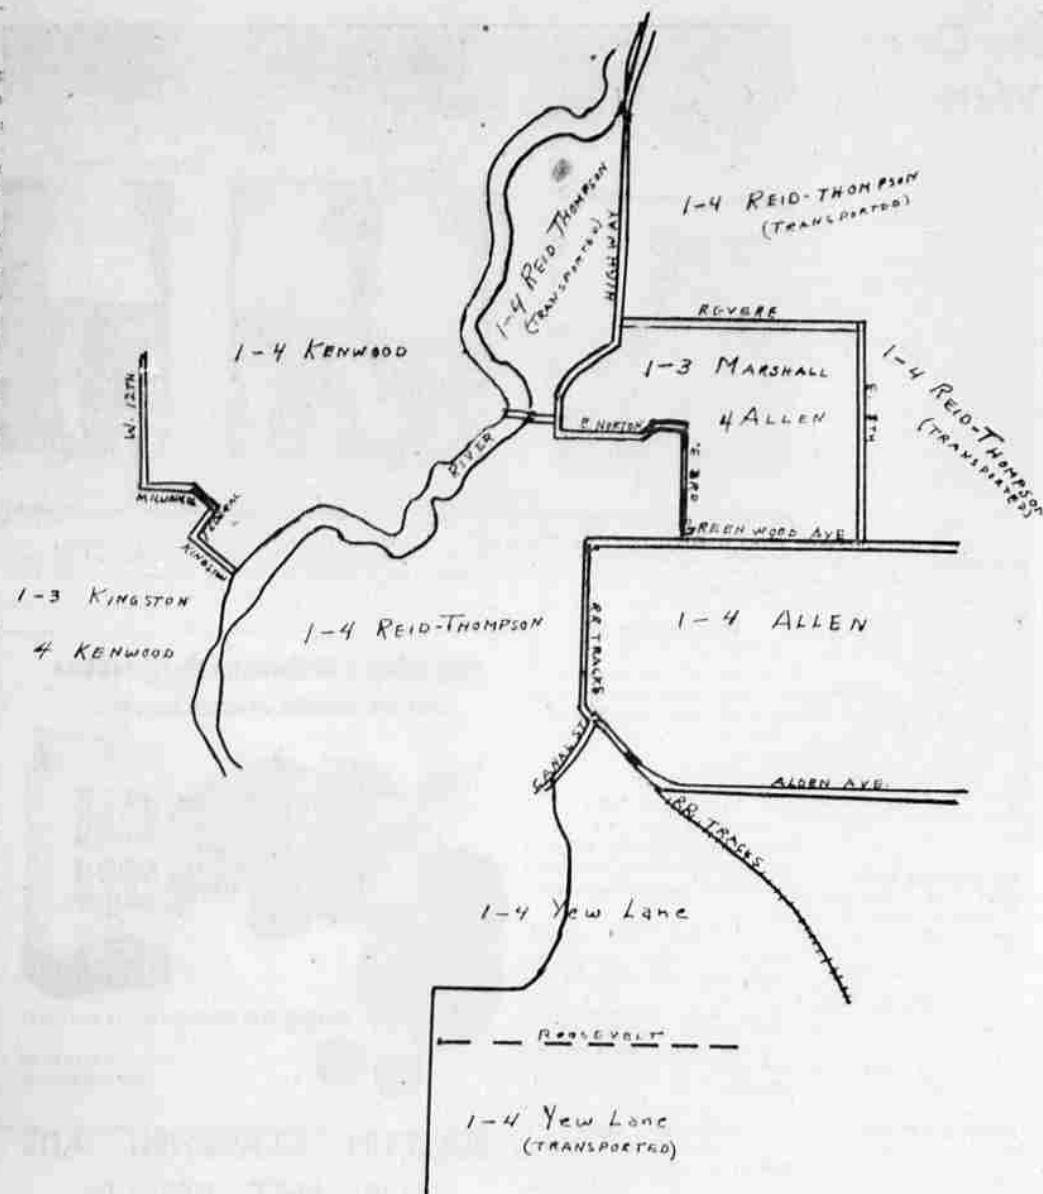

Col. West, a graduate of Grant high school in Portland and the University of Oregon, was wounded while fighting in Tunisia in June, 1943. He lost both his legs, but was fitted with artificial limbs and flew again with fighting American pilots.

The famous Oregon pilot was awarded many medals including the Distinguished Flying Cross from both the United States and Britain.

He was highly praised by correspondent Ernie Pyle.

NO COMPLAINT
 DEARBORN, Mich. (UP)—Dearborn officials generally are quite upset when children scribble on freshly poured concrete sidewalks. But they didn't get angry when one child was caught in the act. The child had scrawled, "I love you, mommy."

BOUNDARIES OF PRIMARY DISTRICTS — Shown here are the boundaries of the various primary school areas in Bend. Pupils within each marked zone will attend the school named. For instance, the Allen grade school boundaries are Alden on the south, the railroad tracks on the southwest and west, Revere on the north and East 8th on the East. All primary students riding the school bus will attend either Yew Lane or Reid-Thompson schools. Those living south of town will attend Yew Lane. Children living north or east of Bend will be transported to Reid-Thompson school. (Chart prepared for The Bulletin by Bend school officials)

GRADE SCHOOL ZONES — Boundaries of zones for fifth and sixth grade pupils are shown here. All pupils in the fifth and sixth grades who ride the school bus will attend Allen school.

Ralph E. Moody Dies at Salem

SALEM (UP)—Ralph Elmo Moody, 36, one of Oregon's most widely known attorneys, died in a Salem hospital yesterday after a long illness.

Moody served in the Oregon Legislature in the early 1900s and was employed in the legal department of the Southern Pacific Railroad for many years. He was the son of Z. F. Moody, Oregon governor from 1872 to 1877.

Moody was admitted to the Oregon bar in 1888 and was appointed special prosecutor by Gov. Charles H. Martin to handle the famed "goon" trials on the state's troubled labor scene in the late 1930s. As a result of his efforts, several union leaders were convicted and served terms in the Oregon State penitentiary.

Moody also served as special prosecutor during the Jackson county vote fraud cases and also won convictions there. He was born at The Dalles in 1865 and received his elementary education there. He was known as the author of the Oregon people's utility law.

Sinatra Refuses To Comment

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Crooner Frank Sinatra refused comment today on a one million dollar break of contract suit which 20th Century Fox said it will file against him for quitting work on the film, "Carousel," on location in Boothbay, Maine.

"See my lawyers," snapped Sinatra on his return here yesterday. Sinatra left the location because all scenes were being shot twice for separate type cameras.

Sinatra said he had no immediate plans for work and he expected to remain here "for several months."

Keith Saunders, Editor of National Aeronautics, on Practice of Serving Cocktails Aboard Commercial Aircraft

Keith Saunders, editor of National Aeronautics, on the practice of serving cocktails aboard commercial aircrafts:

"There are grounds for adopting a sensible code under which the practice can be controlled uniformly on all the airlines."

Actor David Wayne on the profession of the stage:

"No one ever becomes an actor unless he seeks love, love in the broadest sense. When he is successful in getting attention, he is at his happiest."
