

Leftover Turkey Makes Casserole

Leftover turkey is no problem in most homes. In fact, there are so many wonderful recipes for using the leftovers, you can't get over all the ground every time you have roast turkey. Here's a turkey sandwich casserole with a cheese sauce to establish its claim to fame.

TURKEY SANDWICH EN CASSEROLE
6 oblong slices whole wheat Melba toast
6 slices turkey, white meat
6 slices crisp, cooked bacon
Cheese sauce
Cut 1/2 inch thick oblong slices of whole wheat bread. Place on baking sheet in moderate oven 250 degrees F., and bake until crisp and toasted. In 6 shallow casseroles or small glass pie plates, place a slice of toast, cover with slice of turkey, then a slice of bacon. Cover all with cheese sauce. Place baking dishes in moderate oven 350 degrees F., and bake until cheese is bubbly, about 15 to 20 minutes. Serve at once. Serves 6.
NOTE: Crumbled Blue cheese may be sprinkled over the top before baking if desired.
4 tablespoons butter
1/2 cups milk
1/2 cups shredded natural Cheddar cheese
Melt butter in saucepan, blend in flour and seasonings. Stir in milk slowly, and cook and stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add cheese and stir until cheese is melted. Makes 2 cups cheese sauce.

Yule Pudding Star-Shaped

You can have a star-shaped holiday pudding, rich with dates, cherries and nuts, without going to the bother of mixing up a batter and getting out the steamer. In fact, if you make your star pudding with a gelatin base, you will find that it is "lighter" than the cooked kind, and altogether appropriate for the ending to a heartier-than-usual meal.

Star Mold Pudding
1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
1/2 cup cold milk
1/4 cup sugar
1 cup sliced pitted dates
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup sliced, candied cherries
1/2 cup sliced, blanched almonds
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon almond flavoring
1/2 cup whipped cream
Soak gelatin in cold milk about 5 minutes. Combine sugar, salt, dates and milk and heat together to scalding. Remove from heat, add gelatin and stir to dissolve. Chill mixture until it begins to set. Stir in fruits and flavorings. Whip cream and fold in. Turn into individual star molds or a 1-quart mold that has been rinsed in cold water. Chill until set. Serve with whipped cream if desired. Serves 6.

Maple Syrup Used in Cooking

New England food authorities hold that 100 per cent pure maple syrup is the greatest of America's syrups—on griddle cakes, on waffles, in puddings and cakes. Now we have a Christmas recipe using it in cranberry sauce, and one for candied sweet potatoes.

Whole Cranberry Maple Sauce (Serves 4)
One cup sugar, 1 cup pure maple syrup, 1/2 cup water, 4 cups fresh cranberries.

Combine sugar, syrup and water. Cook 5 minutes. Add cranberries, cover, heat to boiling, do not stir. Simmer until skins pop open. Chill and serve in scooped out grapefruit shells.

Mapled Sweet Potatoes (Serves 4)
Four sweet potatoes, 1/2 cup pure maple syrup, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 tablespoon lemon rind.
Prepare syrup by combining sugar, juice and rind of lemon. Cook pared, halved potatoes in salted, boiling water until just tender. Place potatoes in pan, add syrup, and cook uncovered for 15 minutes. Spoon syrup over potatoes frequently during cooking.
MONDAY'S DINNER: Browned corned beef hash with poached eggs, whole cranberry sauce with maple syrup, buttered kale, corn bread, butter, fruit and nut bowl, assorted cheeses, crackers, coffee, tea, milk.
