Clothing Sought For Foreign Aid

The Women's fellowship of First Presbyterian church has issued a call for warm clothing, for men, women and children, and blankets. These are needed for relief in Europe and Korea. No shoes are wanted, it was emphasized.

The clothing should be of serviceable type, clean and suitable for wear in cold weather. Items may be taken to the church, where they will be boxed and prepared for shipment.

Persons who have articles to donate may call the church office, telephone 686-J, to arrange a convenient time for leaving their contributions, it was suggested.

Say Again Please

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (UP)—A prisoner being booked by turnkey Henry Vandenberg answered "no" Wednesday when asked whether he was married. But Vandenberg wasn't sure what to put on the record, since the man was charged with bigamy.

SO HOUSES WON'T MELT?

IGLOO, S.D. (UP)—Igloo residents bought more than 75 home freezers during the current heat wave, the Admiral Corp. reported today.
