Portland Snaps Eleven-Game Losing Streak With 6-5 Win

PORTLAND (UP)—The Portland Beavers finally snapped a losing string that spanned 11 games here last night as they came from behind in the fifth inning to edge Sacramento 6-5.

Sacramento threatened all the way to extend the dubious mark the Beavers were working on. They held the lead until the fifth, then fought back gamely with a ninth inning rally to more than worry the 1794 partisan fans that frantically urged the Beavers to snap the string.

Bob Borkowski carried the big wood of the game and proved the difference. It was a grand slam four-master off his bat in the fifth that turned the tide and turned a two-run deficit into a two-run lead that carried the Beavers to the win.

Bob Alexander (5-5) worked 8 1/3 innings in taking credit for the win and gave up only 5 hits while he tolled on the hill. Bud Watkins, (2-4), Salon starter who gave way in the fifth to Rex Jones, took the loss.

To set the stage for Borkowski's big blow, Dick Young singled. Lloyd Merriman singled and Tom Saffell walked. Young was out at the plate when Merriman was trapped between first and second but Luis Marquez singled to load the bases.

RON WEBER
Gains semi-finals

Semi-Finals Gained by Ron Weber

PORTLAND (UP)—Action in the Oregon junior golf championships began to get down where it counts today with only semi-finalists left in contention for titles in the four divisions.

In the boys' division, Albany's Steve Wright, medalist, moved up with a 1-up win over defending champion Dave Munro.

Joining Wright in the select quartet still hopeful of snagging boys' division honors were Jerry Forester, Riverside; Ralph Helton, Roseburg; and Doug Ragen of Oswego.

Taking places in the junior division semi-finals were Roseburg's Joe Hallmark and Prineville's Ron Weber. Rounding out the quartet were Jerry Caudari of Portland Golf club, and Dick Smith of Waverley.

Only medalist in the bracket to fall was Bob Smith. He had knotted for medalist honors in qualifying with Weber, Caudari and Hallmark, all with one-und-par 71s.

In the girls' division, two Eugene lasses qualified for the semi-finals and will meet today. Elaine Porritt and Shirley Sigmund moved up along with June Robinson of Tillamook and Molly Murphy of Waverley.

Pee Wee division performers took a day of rest yesterday but go back into action today with Sutherland's Tommy Kahler rated the lad to beat.

PAGODA TORN DOWN
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UP)—The pagoda that has been a landmark at the Indianapolis Speedway since 1920 is no more. It was torn down Wednesday to make room for a new control tower and a larger pit area for the Speedway's famed 500-mile auto classic.

The cowbird is so called because it gathers in large numbers in pastures to eat insects which are disturbed by grazing cattle.

Mantle Well Ahead of Pace In Assault on Ruth's Mark

By UNITED PRESS
Mickey Mantle went 18 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record home run pace today in what is now the greatest assault any player ever has made on the mark.

Mantle connected twice in the New York Yankees' 4-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers Wednesday night to increase his total to 27 in 60 games. Ruth didn't hit No. 27 until the Yankees' 78th game in 1927. Because Ruth closed that season with 17 home runs in September it is not too unusual for a player "to be ahead of Babe's pace" at this stage of the race.

But Mantle's current pace also is faster than the two sluggers who came closest to the mark—Felix Fox had 29 homers at the end of June—a figure Mantle should easily top in the next 10 days—while Greenberg had hit "only" 21 on June 30, 1938. Both wound up with 58 homers.

Yanks—Seventh Straight
With Mantle exploding two drives into the center field stands at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, the Yankees equalled the current season high by rolling to their seventh straight victory. Johnny Kucks received credit for his ninth win although Whitey Ford took over in the eighth and finished up. Billy Hoefl suffered his fourth loss compared to eight triumphs.

The Chicago White Sox remained 5 1/2 games behind the Yankees when they outslugged the Baltimore Orioles, 12-8, in a three-hour and 37-minute struggle. The White Sox overcame an early 4-0 deficit to slug seven Baltimore pitchers for 15 hits including a homer by Larry Doby. It was the White Sox' sixth triumph in seven games.

STANFORD, Calif. (UP)—Athletic Director Al Masters of Stanford has uncovered a "few minor violations" of the Pacific Coast Conference athletic code.

Masters said Wednesday he found the violations in the course of an investigation he is making at the request of President Wallace Sterling.

"I cannot give the number of violations because the investigation is not completed and the report first must be made to the president," he said.

"However, I've found nothing to indicate a plush-fund operation, and I have found no organized alumni payoff system."

He said all the infractions were individual cases and not part of an organized pattern.

All schools of the conference are making a self-investigation. The results are to be reported to the PCC commission by July 15.

Last week, the University of California disclosed illegal cash payments of $1100 to 20 athletes during the 1955-56 academic year, mostly for grants in aid.

Braves Take NL Lead

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves remained unbeaten under Fred Haney and took over first place when they beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-3. Gene Conley went the route for the first time as the Braves scored their fifth straight win. It was the fifth straight defeat for the Pirates and dropped them into fifth place. Milwaukee's road record now is 16-10 for 615.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, 11-14 on the road, dropped out of first place when they were beaten, 3-2, by Curt Simmons and the Philadelphia Phillies. Simmons struck out seven in winning his third game of the season. Stan Lopata's 12th homer of the year gave him his margin of victory.

Carl Furillo's two-run single climaxed a three-run third-inning rally that enabled the Brooklyn Dodgers to beat Vezar Bend Mize and the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2. Roger Craig received credit for the first win of his career over the Redbirds although Clem Labine finished up.

Hank Thompson's three-run homer and Al Worthington's five-hit pitching gave the New York Giants a 4-1 verdict over the Chicago Cubs. Worthington struck out six and walked one; one to out-pitch Don Kaiser, who hasn't won since he made his debut with a two-hit against the Dodgers on June 2.
