TROTH IS PLEDGED — Mr. and Mrs. Ben Encisco (Mary Louise Loggan) were married Sunday afternoon. They will live in Portland. (Photo for The Bulletin by Myrick Studio)

Couple Wed in Home Rites; Leave on Trip to California

Mrs. Mary Louise Loggan and Ben Encisco of Portland were married Sunday afternoon. The informal double-ring ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Loggan, at 657 Drake road. Rev. Jack M. MacLeod of First Presbyterian church officiated.

The vows were exchanged before the fireplace, which was flanked with standards holding white chrysanthemums. A bouquet of chrysanthemums decorated the mantel.

The bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Encisco, were here from Portland for the wedding. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bushnell, also of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Sitz and John Gibbon, all of Burns. Mr. and Mrs. Sitz are the bride's uncle and aunt.

Mrs. Bushnell was the bride's only attendant, and the bridegroom's father acted as best man. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

For the 2 o'clock ceremony, the bride wore a ballerina-length frock of embroidered white organza, with matching head band and white organza mitts. She carried a small bouquet of pink rosebuds, centered with a white orchid. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bushnell wore a ballerina frock of green embroidered organza, with matching headband. Her flowers were pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a wedgewood blue afternoon dress, with a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue afternoon dress, with white carnations.

The vows were exchanged in the presence of family members and a few close friends. After a wedding dinner at the Loggan home, the bridal couple left on a honeymoon trip to San Francisco and the Bay area.

For going away, the bride wore a gray silk knit dress, with a red straw sailor hat and white accessories. She pinned on the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The former Miss Loggan is a graduate of Bend High school and Oregon State college. She is a teacher in the Portland school system and was previously employed in the personnel department of Consolidated Freightways.

Encisco attended Stanford University and is now a student at Northwest School of Law in Portland.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Deeds home. Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Bart Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Crane and children of Cloverdale, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Drake and daughter of Drain, Mr. and Mrs. Al Eppengaugh of Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes of Bend, Mrs. Emma Harrel of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Maston, Mr. and Mrs. Armand Karrer and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lomas and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stephens.

TOUGH BUTTONS

The kernel of the matured tagua nut is a fine-grained hard vegetable ivory from which tagua buttons are made. Toughest in the world, these buttons defy wear and tear, fire, machinery, bayonets, and guns.

DAR Chapter To Take Part In Annual Fair

Several members of the Bend chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution plan to attend the Newell House festival August 25 at Champoog park. On that occasion, the annual "county fair" will be held. The Bend chapter will take potatoes, pine cones and local souvenirs to be sold at the benefit event.

Plans were announced at a luncheon meeting Tuesday afternoon at the Pine Tavern, in honor of the state regent, Mrs. Roy Armstrong of Portland. She was accompanied here by three other Portland women: Mrs. Howard Arnest, past national registrar and state program chairman this year; Mrs. Albert J. Caven, regent of Willamette chapter, and Mrs. A. L. Berkley, past state regent. Mrs. Arnest organized the Bend chapter on March 25, 1942. From Bend, the women went to Lakeview for an evening meeting.

Announcement was made of the appointment of Mrs. W. C. Coyner of Bend as American music chairman for the state organization.

Mrs. Armstrong told about the 64th Continental Congress, which she attended this past April in Washington, D.C. Vice-president Nixon, on that occasion, praised the DAR for its emphasis on patriotic education, she said. The state regent announced as her theme for the year, "Loyalty and Devotion to Country."

Auxiliary to Fete Three Officers

The ladies auxiliary of Canton Deschutes, Patrons Militant, will hold a reception honoring three Central Oregon women, Saturday evening, Aug. 4, at the IOOF hall. They are Mrs. W. V. Merchant of Culver, and Mrs. Ben Evick of Madras and Mrs. George McQuinn of Bend. Mrs. Merchant was elected state association vice-president, at the convention in Tillamook in late May. Mrs. Evick and Mrs. McQuinn were appointed to the offices of state press chair-
