

Lowdown--

Bet there is one Coos Bay-North Bend baseball player who won't forget himself again and talk with Ron Bowen, the Loggers' likeable third-first baseman.

It happened in the seventh inning of Sunday's game with the Lumberjacks, when Bowen was playing first. The player, a member of the Stanford frosh team this spring, lead off with a single.

Following custom, Bowen and the CB-NB runner began talking. Bowen directed the conversation around to the recent Pacific Coast conference investigation and fines and wanted to know if Stanford would beat the rap.

The player just started to answer when Fred Granato lofted a fly to right field. Bowen suddenly shouted, "Oh my gosh, two outs," and the player took off for second. Dan Luby hauled the fly in and fired to Bowen for an easy double play.

Bernie Price, Logger business manager, was surprised to see a lefthander warming up for Bend Sunday. He knew it wasn't Ray Lunde or Chris Christianson, but they were the only southpaws on the roster.

Closer observation showed that the lefthander was Stan Dmochowsky, normally a right-handed pitcher. It seems several years ago that Dmochowsky hurt his right arm, and learned how to throw left handed.

The University of Oregon pitcher is reportedly as fast and shows just as good form pitching as a southpaw as he does righthanded. He stopped the Jacks, 2-1, Saturday night righthanded and offered to pitch the Sunday game left-handed, but Chris had to turn down his generous offer.

Eddie Donahue certainly has the Police team fixed. The Pilot Butte Inn Junior leaguer whipped the Police every time last year and beat them in all three starts this season.

Bend's protest of the three games with Coquille is not simply a case of "sour grapes." The Southern Oregon league rules limit each team to 18 players and Coquille had 26 listed on their roster when they played up here.

Chances are that would have

Broncs Dump Eugene, 10-3

It was strictly a case of pitch and duck in the Northwest League last night.

Leviston's Broncs lead the barage with a 12-hit, 10-3 decision over Eugene with Joe Riney and manager Hillis Layne each contributing two homers.

Riney got a two-run homer in the first and added a two-run blow in the fifth. Layne's two clouts, in the first and third, came with the bases empty.

It was a big night all the way around for Riney who also had two doubles and drove in six runs. Bob Duretto homered twice in Wenatche's 11-7 triumph over Tri-City. His first, a two-run job, came in the first frame and the second, a three-run product, was in the third.

Wenatche won it with five runs in the fifth on two doubles, a single and four walks. Rick Herrera of the Braves hit a three-run homer in the third.

Salem's meeting with Spokane at Spokane was postponed.

been overlooked if the Coquille team had lived up to its word on several occasions earlier this summer. The Coquille Loggers promised Jack Riley his release so that he could play with Drain, but later reneged. Earlier this spring they promised Jack and Tom Bowen of OSC "a good deal," but later went back on that.

There has been quite turnover of ball players at Coquille this summer and the rest of the league isn't at all happy with the situation.

While America has produced Olympic champions, it has never had a FIS champion like Pravda.

And Corcoran, Dartmouth University student by way of Canada, won the Slalom and Giant Slalom championship in the United States this year and was also a member of the US Olympic team.

There will be some top-notch skiing up at Bachelor Butte Sunday morning, with Christian Pray and Tom Corcoran, leading the way.

Redmond Golfers Enjoy Crab Feed
Special to The Bulletin
REDMOND — Fresh cracked crab was the menu feature Thursday night at the monthly stag for men of Juniper Golf club.

Phil Dahl and Jack Christensen flew to Tillamook early Thursday morning, and brought back 166 pounds of fresh caught, steamed crab. Kitchen chefs reported no leftovers. Men on the committee besides Dahl and Christensen were Elton Mooney, Dutch Voils and John Hanson.

TO 'COVER' FIGHT
TORONTO (UP) — Former heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano will "cover" the heavy-weight fight between Archie Moore and James J. Parker next Wednesday for the Toronto Telegram.

Marciano agreed to take the job Friday after obtaining clearance from his doctor to make the trip. The former champion has been laid up in recent weeks with a back injury.

Don Newcombe became the first National League pitcher to win 13 games when he scattered five hits in hurling the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 4-1 win over the St. Louis Cardinals. Shortstop PeeWee Reese led the Dodgers' 19-hit attack with three singles and a homer to bring his career hit-total to 1,999. Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Mickey Vernon and Enos Slaughter are the only active players with 2,000 hits.

FIGHT RE-SCHEDULED
NEW ORLEANS (UP) — The world lightweight title fight between champion Wallace (Bud) Smith and Joe Brown, scheduled for Aug. 10, has been re-scheduled for Friday, Aug. 24 so as not to conflict with the All-Star football game in Chicago between the College All-Stars and the defending National Football League champion Cleveland Browns.

Husband-Wife Golf Tournament Set for Sunday

Golfing news for the end of this week included announcement of a husband-wife tourney tomorrow, setting of the Junior Golfers schedule for the rest of the season, and the results of two junior tourneys.

Husband and wife teams will take to the Bend links Sunday to compete for the Vern Larson trophy. There is no entry fee for the tournament but entrants must take the designated handicap. For men it is 27 and for women 35.

Einar Allen has announced that he will hand out National Golf cards to all Junior Golfers present at next Friday's clinic.

There are six more Friday plays for the juniors, he said. These plays include a clinic that starts promptly at nine and immediately after that a tournament.

Dates of upcoming Junior matches are: Aug. 17, nine hole qualifying for Junior Golfers; Aug. 24, playoff competition in match play style; and Aug. 31, parent-child matches followed by a pot luck supper at the club house.

The date of a tournament with the Redmond Juniors will be announced later.

In a pro Junior Girls tournament held at Tualatin in Portland July 13, Einar Allen, pro at the Bend golf club, shot a 75. Best ball total net scored was 151.

Susy LeBlanc, Janet Shumway and Marilyn Hackett won the blind bogey which was run off as last weeks Junior Golf Tournament.

Lundgren Sales Knocks Off VFW

Lundgren Sales continued its winning ways Friday night as it knocked off VFW 6-4 in a major league softball tilt at Bruin Field.

Hitting star of the game, though his efforts were of no avail, was Milt Sexton of VFW. He collected three of his teams seven hits and three of their four runs. Gathering power, he slammed out a single, then a double and finally a home run to gain a perfect record for three official times at bat.

It did no good however, in face of the combined bats of Sales sluggers, John Newell, Bob Lubcke and Bob Wilson, plus top pitching three for three, a single and two doubles. Lubcke got a single and a double and Wilson batted out two.

Braves' Victory Over Phillies Paced by Aaron

The Milwaukee Braves get great pitching from just about anybody Fred Haney calls on, but it's Hank Aaron who gives them their day-to-day "punch."

Only 22 years old, the slender Aaron has developed into the "soldier man" of the team. Joe Adcock, Ed Mathews and Johnny Logan break out in rashes of hits at times but Aaron keeps driving toward what he believes will be his first National League batting title.

Aaron has been belting the ball at a 455 clip this month. In the last 21 games he has lifted his average from .293 to a league-leading .337-mark.

Hank was at it again Friday night when the Braves drubbed the Philadelphia Phillies, 10-0, behind Bob Buhl's no-hitter. Hank smashed a two-run homer and collected two other hits to drive in a total of four runs in pacing the Braves to their 10th win in 11 games.

Toby Atwell, purchased from Miami earlier this week, also hit a two-run homer in his first at-bat for the Braves to make it easy for Buhl to register his fourth straight victory and 12th of the season.

The Redlegs remained two games behind the Braves when Smoky Burgess' two-run 12th inning homer gave them a 5-4 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates and their sixth win in seven games. The Pirates took an early 4-0 lead but Ted Kluszewski hit his 24th homer of the year with two aboard in the fifth and Wally Post hammered out his 17th round-tripper in the seventh to tie the score. Johnny Klippstein won his eighth game.

Don Newcombe became the first National League pitcher to win 13 games when he scattered five hits in hurling the Brooklyn Dodgers to a 4-1 win over the St. Louis Cardinals. Shortstop PeeWee Reese led the Dodgers' 19-hit attack with three singles and a homer to bring his career hit-total to 1,999. Hollywood Nips Portland, 5-4

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Dick Smith scored the winning run on Carlos Bernier's fourth single last night as Hollywood nipped Portland, 5-4, to even their series at two games each.

Bob Garber (4-1) emerged the winner, and Bob Darnell (10-7), who went the distance, was tabbed for the loss.

Carlos Bernier was forced home on a walk for the first Hollywood tally in the initial frame and then Bernier came across for the Stars again in the second inning by scoring all the way from first on a single by Spook Jacobs. Bernier was able to cover all that distance because the Beavers were trying to trap Jacobs in a rundown.

Portland pulled a triple play in the third inning and in the fourth came through with four runs to take a 3-2 lead.

The Stars bounced back to tie the game in the fifth when Jacobs, after singling and being sacrificed to second, scored on a double by Danny Kravitz.

In the sixth the Beavers tallied another run to take the lead by one tally in the sevens battle.

But the Stars put the game on ice in the eighth with two runs, the decisive tally being scored by Smith.

Tomorrow afternoon Portland and Hollywood will wind up their five-game series with Rene Valdez (12-7) going on the mound for the Beavers against Hollywood's Bob Purkey (9-1).

Babe Zaharias In Good Spirits

GALVESTON, Tex. (UP) — Babe Didrikson Zaharias was "recovering splendidly" today after an operation performed a week ago to relieve the pain of cancer, a spokesman at John Sealy Hospital announced.

The operation on July 13, was to sever a sensory nerve joining the backbone to the hips. The Babe is in her third bout with rectal cancer.

Her husband, George, disclosed today that, for the first time since the operation, his famous athlete wife had had an egg for breakfast yesterday.

"She was able to move her toes, and was in good spirits. In fact she and her sister, Lilly, and I harmonized in a little singing. She was in good voice," he said.

"She just wanted to show us how well she was feeling seven days after the operation," Zaharias said.

Readings Delight Women Golfers

Women of the Bend Golf club will have their regular weekly luncheon Wednesday, July 25, at 1 p.m. at the club house. Mrs. William A. Healy Jr. is chairman of the hostess committee, which also includes Mrs. M. B. McKenney, Mrs. H. Allen Young, Mrs. Harry Terwilliger, Mrs. Michael Sullivan and Mrs. Vance Coyner. Reservations must be made by Tuesday noon.

At the luncheon this Wednesday, Mrs. J. G. Hepworth of Salt Lake City entertained with dialect readings. In costume. An experienced performer, she has been a guest at the golf club on previous visits here. She is the sister of Mrs. W. L. Stollmack and Mrs. Jessie Faddis of Bend.

The nose of the Statue of Liberty is four feet six inches in length.

Favorites Run True to Form In First Round

CANTON, Mass. (UP) — A generally formful first round left most of the favorites, including defending champion Doug Ford and Slammin' Sammy Sneed, in the running as the field in the PGA golf championship teed off for the first of two 18-hole rounds today.

By nightfall only 16 of the 64 first-round survivors will be left. The big first-round casualty was Tommy Bolt, who had been rated at 4 to 1 to win the title. Ford and Sneed are co-favored at 3 to 1.

Bolt lost out to Charles Prentice, 32-year-old pro from Columbia, S. C., playing in his first PGA championship. The tournament toughened Bolt led, one up, going to the 17th, but lost that hole when he drove into the trees and then Prentice, refusing to crack under the pressure, wound it up with a brilliant birdie on the par five 18th hole.

Ford got by the first round, whipping Buddy Vair of South Charleston, W. Va., 3 and 2, while Sneed, who termed the fairways of the Blue Hills Country Club course "the worst I've ever seen since I started playing golf," turned back Jack Weitzel, a 25-year-old pro from Columbus, Ohio, 2 and 1. Weitzel never met his idol until they teed off today.

"He played mighty well, considering the poor condition of the course," Sneed said. "But he made mistakes, which were natural, considering this is his first big-time competition, and I was able to take advantage of them."

In the morning 18 today, Ford meets Mike Dietz of Lake Orion, Mich., while Sneed's opponent is John O'Donnell, Baltimore.

Other feature second round matches pair Masters champion Jackie Burke against Bill Collins of Grossinger, N. Y.; former PGA champion Chick Harbert with Skeet Riegel, Ithaca, Pa.; former Open champion Ed Furgol vs. Jack Isaacs, Langley Field, Va.; Walter Burkemo, the PGA king in 1953 from Franklin, Mich., against Bob Zander, Fayetteville, Ark.; Shelley Mayfield vs. Ellsworth Vines, and Jim Turnesa, a nother former champion, vs. Dean Adkisson of Wichita, Kan.

Members of the Elks' Sea Scout unit today were moving their boat, the "Osprey", to Elk lake, according to word from Jack Smith, Fremont district field director for the Boy Scouts of America.

Except for occasional transfers to other waters for competition, it is planned to keep the boat at Elk lake.

The Sea Scouts' craft is a sailboat of the Lightning class and is 20 feet long. Scouts will man the craft during weekends and on various outings at the lake in connection with their work. Myron H. Symons, Elk lake resort operator, will be caretaker of the boat.

Medford Sets Pace in Tight Southern Oregon Loop Race

Medford Loggers draw a bye this weekend as one of the tightest Southern Oregon league races in recent years begins second-half action.

Medford Cheney Studs currently pace the circuit while three other clubs are only a game back. Bend, the cellar occupant at the present time, is only two games off the pace.

But if the Loggers protest of the three Coquille games goes through, Bend will be leading the league.

SOL rules limit each team to 18 players. When Coquille played up here they had 26 players on the

Anne Quast, Pat Lesser In Golf Finals

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UP) — Medalist Anne Quast had an old score to settle today when she met defending titlist Pat Lesser for the 56th Women's Western Amateur golf championship in a match they had to travel 3,000 miles to play.

Miss Lesser, of Seattle, Wash., has defeated Miss Quast, a native of Everett, Wash., on three previous occasions. Today's match should prove whether the sensational-playing 18-year-old Miss Quast has come of golfing age.

Back in 1952, Miss Quast at the age of 15 became the youngest qualifier in the history of the National Amateur. It was Miss Lesser, now 22, who knocked her out in the second round. Miss Lesser defeated Miss Quast, 5-4 in the 1955 quarter-finals of the WPGA Amateur after knocking her out, 2-up, in the opening round of the 1954 WPGA Amateur.

Other feature second round matches pair Masters champion Jackie Burke against Bill Collins of Grossinger, N. roster. The protest will be acted upon by a five-man board, composed of a representative of each team.

This weekend the strong Portland semi-pro club, Bashor's Babes, will be in town to provide opposition for the Loggers. Games will be Saturday at 8 p.m. and again Sunday at 1:45 p.m. at the Municipal Ball park.

Righthander Dick Beachel, ex-Jefferson high and Oregon State Brook tosser, will take the mound for the Babes Saturday night. At the present time he owns a 5-won 0-lost record. He also boasts a pair of no-hitters, although he was scored on in one of the games.

Sunday's pitcher will come from Hugh Hendry (6-0), Ron Stempel (9-2), or Rollie Heath (2-0) Hendry just graduated from Oregon City where he hurled numerous no-nos in high school. He is regarded as a fine mound prospect. Stempel tossed for Lewis and Clark college, and Heath for the University of Oregon frosh this spring. His battery mate in college was Larry Fivecoat, Logger catcher-outfielder.

Tom Bowen, who did his second basing with the Loggers last summer, is now with the Portland club.

Other Bashor infielders include 1B Tom Beclie, who signed with the Cleveland Indians for a bonus, L & C's Pete Ward at shortstop, and Terry Burke at 3B. Outfielders will be Danny Segal, Bill Acker, and Bill Hardin. Ron Walp, outstanding catcher prospect from Parkrose, will do the receiving for the visitors.

Logger boss Chris Christianson announced that he would throw Lowell Pearce in one game. He was still undecided as to who would start in the other contest.

NEW YORK (UP) — Slender Tony Anthony of New York, a so-called "tissue-paper pug," began maneuvering today toward a lightweight title shot because of the durability he displayed Friday night while stopping tough Tony Johnson in the 10th round at Madison Square Garden.

Instead of collapsing under head and body punishment as he had done four times previously in his career, 21-year-old Anthony came fighting back in a fashion to make the TV-radio bout lopsided until he scored a technical knockout at 1:36 of the tenth.

New Yorker Johnson weighed 175 pounds to Anthony's 170.
